OREGON ON FIRE

Big Battle-ship Narrowly Escapes Destruction.

Methodist Episcopal Conference—Durrant's Appeal—Mistaken for a Deer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—The Call says: The coal bunkers in the United States battle-ship Oregon caught fire Sunday evening from spontaneous combustion, and for over eight hours the crew worked with a vengeance to smother what looked like a costly blaze. There were over 250 tons of coal in the vessel, and prompt action alone saved the ship and fuel. The fire is supposed to have started from water leaking into the coal bunkers. This would eventually cause a terrific heat from accumulating gases. Luckily the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway.

An alarm was immediately given, and orders were issued to remove the coal from the vessel to the wharf. Steam-pipes were attached and connection made with the lower part of the vessel in an attempt to smother what fire might have been in other parts of the ship. The men went to work with a will, but the task was larger than had at first been supposed. The work was done with difficulty, as the smoke hindered the men in their attempts to quickly put it out.

During the whole night after the fire had been discovered, the entire crew labored in removing the smoking and blazing coal, and it was not until daylight that the men were allowed to leave their work. The warship will be dry-docked within a few days and properly righted, after which she will be coaled and her ammunition will be ready for action.

Methodist Episcopal Conference.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—The national conference of the Methodist Episcopal church which began yesterday, was continued today. Between 300 to 400 prominent members of the church from all parts of the country were in attendance. After devotional exercises, John W. Thomas, of Allegheny college, read a paper on "The Right Relation of Emotion and Reason in Religion." The speaker declared flippant remarks or light criticism found in magazines upon religion most harmful.

The feature of the afternoon session was the paper presented by E. C. Conklin, Ph. D., professor of comparative embryology, university of Pennsylvania. The subject discussed was "The Evolution and Revelation." The paper came near producing a sensation. During its reading the attention of the audience was divided, and the general discussion which followed was spicy. When the doctor had finished, the opponents of his position came to the front in numbers, which showed that the theory of evolution was not universally popular in the congress.

Appeal Permitted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—When the attorneys interested in the Durrant case assembled in Judge Bahrs' chambers this morning in accordance with the arrangement made Saturday last, when the court refused to settle the bill of exceptions in the matter of the proposed appeal from the order refusing to set the Minnie Williams case for trial. Judge Bahrs announced that he had changed his mind after thinking the matter over, and thereupon signed the bill of exceptions, thus perfecting the appeal.

Mistook for a Deer.

LEBANON, Or., Nov. 22.—J. Swank, of this place, while hunting in the mountains yesterday, 35 miles from here, was mistaken for a deer by his father-in-law, the bullet entering one of his legs, inflicting an ugly wound. A messenger came in last night for doctors. One physician from this city and one from Albany have left for Lower Soda springs, where Mr. Swank was taken.

Drowned While Intoxicated.

BAKER CITY, Or., Nov. 22.—Frank Howard, a mining man and engineer recently of the Bonanza mine, yesterday afternoon fell from the Valley-avenue bridge and was drowned. He had been on a protracted spree, and was bordering on delirium tremens. The unfortunate man was about 35 years old.

Vessels Collide.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 25.—It is just learned that the lighthouse tender Columbine, which towed lightship No. 67 back to the station yesterday was damaged in a collision with the lightship. When off Fort Stevens, it is said, for some unknown reason, the men on the lightship cut the cable loose, and the Columbine dove to pick it up. When this was partially completed the lightship steamed up to the Columbine and ran into her starboard side amidships, knocking off two shutters, completely demolishing the cutter and a small boat,

LOSSES BY FLOOD

Great Damage Done in our Sister State.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 24.—Governor Lord granted two full pardons today. One was to Elmer C. Thomas, who had served about one year on a three-year sentence. His pardon was recommended by Judge McBride, who stated he had doubts of the man's guilt at the time of his conviction. The other released J. E. Sutherland, of Douglas county, who had served about a year on a two-year sentence for manslaughter. His pardon was also granted upon the recommendation of the trial judge, J. C. Fullerton, who stated mitigating circumstances attended the trial.

The governor also restored to citizenship R. W. Mole, of Lake county, who served a year sentence for larceny. The restoration was recommended by the governor of California, in which state Mole will live. Benjamin Butler, who served a six-months' sentence for adultery in Marion county, was also restored to citizenship.

INDICTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

W. S. McKean, Head Bookkeeper for the Crane Company in Jail.

PORTLAND, Nov. 24.—William S. McKean, for three years head bookkeeper for the jobbing house of the Crane Company, occupies a cell in the city jail, being held to answer for embezzling $7000 of his employers' money. He has made a full confession.

At the instance of John O'Connor, resident manager of the Crane Company, McKean was arrested yesterday morning on a bench warrant issued by Judge George. The evidence against him was such that he had no course but confession, and an hour after his arrest two indictments had been returned against him by the grand jury.

The first alleges that November 30, 1896, he was in the employ of the Crane & Jack Company, and, while so engaged, there came into his possession moneys, bank checks, drafts and bills of exchange the property of the firm, amounting to $6181, which he unlawfully embezzled and converted to his own use.

The second charges the embezzlement of $913.90 from the Crane Company in September, 1897.

The bail in each case was fixed at $1000, but the accused was unable to furnish it, and was accordingly placed in custody. He was asked by an Oregonian reporter soon afterward to make a statement, but declined to do so.

McKean made a confession to his employer to the effect that he had embezzled $7000 of the firm's money.

Hospital Convicts.

Robert Hinman is the only inmate of the penitentiary hospital, at Salem with the exception of old man Stoughton, who has made the hospital his home for many years. Hinman was brought to the prison from Douglas county with a wound in his leg, received from a gunshot while resisting arrest. He is still unable to walk. Stoughton will be 90 years old in June. He is almost deaf, and his talk indicates loss of mental faculties. For years he has been complaining, saying he does not get enough to eat. He is sentenced for life, and says he expects no pardon until 1899, when, beginning at Rome, this earth will be burned up, and all will be pardoned. Stoughton was sent up from Columbia county nearly 20 years ago, having killed a man with a pike pole while engaged in rafting logs.

The surprise for All.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in the store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottle at Charman & Co.'s drug store.

LOSSES BY FLOOD

Great Damage Done in our Sister State.

THE GREAT NORTHERN RAILROAD NOT SO BADLY DAMAGED AS AT FIRST REPORTED.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 22.—The interruptions to railroad traffic caused by the recent storm are being gradually overcome, and it is expected things will be restored to their normal condition in a day or two.

As the waters subside it is ascertained that the reports of damage done to the Great Northern railroad have been greatly exaggerated. The washouts have been so far repaired as to admit of the running of all coast trains. General Western Passenger Agent Stevens today received a dispatch from General Superintendent Harding, saying that the main line would be open by Wednesday. From that date all trains will be run on schedule time.

The westbound Northern Pacific overland arrived today a few hours late. The Seattle & International train which left at noon is reported to have reached Sumas without difficulty.

Lewis River Bottom Inundated.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 22.—Residents of the county in the vicinity of the Lewis river report that stream has been on a regular rampage for a week past. The North and East Forks of the river are said to be higher than for many years, both being out of their banks, and the bottom lands along each covered with several feet of water. Fences and small buildings, and in some instances small bridges, have been swept away, and considerable other damage done. The original channel of the North Fork, it is reported, has changed, in several places, several hundred feet, the river cutting through farms and laying waste many acres of valuable land. The river reached its highest stage last Friday, and is now slowly falling.

Losses Very Severe.

MOUNT VERNON, Nov. 22.—The flood at Mount Vernon has subsided. In the lower end of town the water is still pouring through the break in the dike and is keeping a considerable portion of the town under water. It will take some time to estimate the damage, but it will be many thousands of dollars.

The ballast is all washed out of the Great Northern railroad grade from a point north of the depot for a distance of 15 miles south. The railroad bridge is so badly out of plumb that it will require extensive repairs before it can be used.

Patrick Gibbons, a logger, lost $3000 worth of logs at the railroad bridge. They were in tow of the steamer Monte Cristo, and the entire boom went out with the flood.

Some of the timbers of the $40,000 county wagon bridge are washed away. The town and country have been given a terrible blow by the great destruction of property, and many are talking of moving away.

Many of the farmers have lost their hay and grain, as few had sold, hoping for still higher prices.

Communication by wagon road is cut off in nearly every direction, and it is not probable that trains will get through for weeks.
