Another—Foot fitting, Comfort-giving Shoes—The shoe question is too often settled on the line of dollars and cents rather than from the standpoint of quality. There is harder service required from a pair of shoes than from any other article of wearing apparel. That is why shoes should be of good quality. Heavy shoes are not always good, but there are good heavy shoes.

DAWSON STAMPEDE

One Thousand Men on Their Return to Skaguay.

All Reports Indicate That Great Suffering Will be Experienced in the Gold Region.

VICTORIA, Dec. 12.—By the steamer Topeka, from Dyea, news is received that more than 1000 ill-provisioned men stampeded from Dawson during the latter part of October, and impelled by the haunting fear of famine are now madly forcing their way over the mountains. Auk, the Indian mailcarrier who brings this report, left the Yukon capital fully 10 days after the Dalton party. He says the vanguard of the terror-stricken army is following less than a week behind him. Auk declares that fully 25 per cent of the stampeding army will never live to recite the terrors of their flight from the North.

Dyea parties headed by George F. Ulmer hope to go to the relief of the hungry men at Dawson. They will make the United States government an offer to deliver 50,000 pounds of provisions within 50 days after starting for Dawson for the sum of $75,000. They already have 50,000 pounds of provisions cached at Lake Bennett, which they will take into Dawson this winter. Ulmer will go south by the next steamer to lay his proposition before the secretary of war by wire.

Another Steamer Arrives

PORT TOWNSEND, Dec. 14.—The steamer Al-Ki arrived at 1 o'clock this morning, with 40 passengers, nearly all of whom are from Dyea, Skagway and Sumdum. The Al-Ki brought but one man, a Mr. Hearn, from Dawson City. Hearn and seven others left Dawson two days after the Jack Dalton party, but six of the crowd turned back, after 10 days' travel up the river, and Hearn and one other man came on to Juneau via Chilkoot pass. Hearn came on south, leaving his partner in Juneau. He has nothing to report from Dawson in addition to news brought out by the Dalton party. He confirms the report that food is very scarce, and that there will be suffering there unless provisions arrive by the middle of February. Hearn is from Colorado. He owns a claim in the rich group on Bonanza creek, but he has not worked it. He expects to return in the spring.

Different Laws for Klondike

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—A meeting of the Yukon committee of the cabinet was held last night. Although no report has been adopted by the committee, it is understood that customs regulations to foreigners entering the Klondike will be made as liberal as possible.

The members of the committee and of the cabinet recognize and appreciate the handsome way in which the United States government met the wishes of the Canadian government in establishing customs ports at Dyea and Skaguay, to the great convenience of all parties going to the interior. In many other ways the kindness of the United States government is being mentioned in this connection as the work of the committee is progressing.

The committee will recommend a change in the size of claims, and also the grouping of alternate claims.

One Dead, Another Wounded

MODESTO, Cal., Dec. 13.—George C. Green, carpenter, fatally shot his wife and wounded his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Liedman with a revolver today. He then turned the weapon on himself, but only inflicted a scalp wound. His wife had left him and applied for a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty and failure to provide. The shooting was the sequel of an unsuccessful attempt to induce her to return to him. She was living with Mrs. Liedman. This fact also angered Green, who was at outs with his son-in-law and is supposed to be his reason for shooting his daughter.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has always given entire satisfaction.—Olagah, Ind. Ter. Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for colds and la grippe, we have never yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia. Persons who have weak lungs or have reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, should keep the remedy at hand. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by G. A. Harding.

Steamers for the Yukon.

SEATTLE, Dec. 13.—Moran Bros. today made the announcement that all details had been completed for the construction of 16 river steamers for the Yukon company. Next week the framing of the hulls will be commenced, for which 40 acres of tidelands have been leased. Within two weeks 1200 men will be at work. The steamers will be completed and towed to the mouth of the Yukon by the time the river opens for navigation. The contract price of the steamers is $1,000,000.

No Change.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Dingley tariff law will not be changed in any of its custom features at the present session of congress. A general understanding to this effect has been reached among the republican members of the ways and means committee, who feel that it is most desirable to avoid what is generally known as tariff tinkering.

General Rivera a Free Man.

HAVANA, Dec. 10.—General Rivera, the insurgent leader, who was captured in March last in Pinar del Rio by the Spanish troops under General Hernando de Velasco, and who was recently pardoned by royal decree, has been released from Cabanas fortress, where he has been imprisoned for several months, and sailed today by the steamer Colon for Cadiz, his home.

The Colon also carries back to Spain 800 sick, wounded and otherwise incapacitated soldiers.

STEAMERS LONG OVERDUE.

The Cleveland and Augusta Reported to Have Been Lost.

SEATTLE, Dec. 14.—To hope that the Cleveland is still afloat is all that anxious watchers for tidings can do. No word comes to relieve the terrible strain. Men who have stood on the deck for 20 years say that the storm which swept the Pacific ocean December 4 to 9, were the worst ever encountered. On the night of December 9, the storm rose to a hurricane of the most violent nature, the waves running mountain high. Vessels are coming into port waterlogged, their masts bare of sails, and in some instances their masts broken off. In the face of these conditions, hope is fast being given up that the steamer Cleveland still rides the waves. Seafaring men commence to shake their heads. When talking of the fate of the Cleveland they add a word of fear that the schooner Augusta will also be numbered among the vessels which will never return.

No news has reached any port that confirms or disproves the theory that they have gone down. The Cleveland is now seven days overdue, and the Augusta 15. If they have survived the story of their experience will be thrilling. The bark Leslie D., was towed into Port Townsend last night. Her deck load had been carried away, and nothing was left that had not been securely lashed. The captain says the hurricane which struck the vessel on December 7 was the worst he ever experienced.

The Wreck of the Cleveland.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 15.—The steamer Cleveland, Captain Hall, was wrecked in Barclay sound, and three boats, containing 20 members of the crew and two passengers are missing. The captain, purser, chief engineer and one passenger and a boat's crew are all that are known to have arrived of those on the ill-fated steamer, and they were only landed after spending a night in an open boat with the big storm raging. The Cleveland sailed from San Francisco, December 4th, for Seattle and when two days out her shaft broke. The vessel was carried northward by the raging seas and wind all the time until dangerously near Starlight reef. The officers decided to abandon the vessel and try to land, knowing the vessel could not be saved. The four boats were lowered but so far as at present known three of them with their human cargoes have been lost.

Death From Pride.

Pride it is believed, was the direct cause of a death yesterday, says the Portland Tribune. Mrs. Joseph Hayes, an old time favorite on the vaudeville stage, died at St. Vincent's hospital after a comparatively short illness. She was formerly a dancer, but at the time of her marriage, some years ago, she retired from the stage. Her husband is a popular engineer on the steamboat Undine plying between Portland and Vancouver.

Several days ago Mrs. Hayes was taken seriously ill at the Esmond hotel. Her condition was such as to alarm her friends and she was removed to the hospital. The cause of her illness is said to be due to the use of a preparation for preserving the color of the hair. The preparation, it is believed, contained poisons harmful to the scalp.

PEACEFUL ENDING

President's Mother Passed to Her Final Rest.

The Cuban Outlook Not Encouraging—Luetger's Attorneys Making a Hard Fight.

CANTON, O., Dec. 12.—Mrs. Nancy Allison McKinley, mother of President McKinley, passed from this life at a few minutes past 2 o'clock this morning, with all her children and immediate relations at her bedside. She did not suffer any in her last hours but gradually passed from the deep, palsied sleep, in which she had rested almost constantly for the past 10 days, into the sleep of death. The end was most beautiful in its peacefulness. She seemed to sleep soundly that it was difficult to tell whether she had yet breathed her last. This condition continued for half an hour. The president and all the family were by her side.

To Save Luetger's Life.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Attorneys Harmon and Riez, in their defense of Adolph L. Luetger, have decided to base a strong fight on the point of the corpus delicti. They have been making a special study of the law covering this point. They will contend for the principle of common law enunciated years and years ago by Lord Hale, that a man cannot be convicted where the corpus delicti and the offense are both proved by circumstantial evidence. Either the body must be produced or the murder proven to have been committed and proved by direct testimony.

Looks Bad for the Cubans.

HAVANA, Dec. 12, via Key West, Dec. 13.—It is officially announced that the Spanish column under command of General Pando, in the province of Puerto Principe, has been pursuing the insurgent leader, General Gomez, so closely that he was obliged to seek refuge in the woods and mountains.

The commissioners sent by General Pando to different parts of the island with instructions to negotiate with the insurgents for their acceptance of the autonomous feature of the government proposed by Spain have not returned in a single case, which seems to confirm the report that some of them have been hanged by the insurgents and that others are forced to remain with the enemy.

Republican League of Oregon.

PORTLAND, Or. Nov. 26, 1897.—As provided by the constitution of the republican league of Oregon, the regular biennial meeting of the league will be held in the city of Portland the first Tuesday in February, being the first day of the month, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The business to be transacted is the election of a president, secretary, three members of the executive committee and fourteen delegates to represent the league at the next meeting of the National Republican league, and such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

Every regularly organized republican club in Oregon is entitled to representation, whether organized since the last meeting or not, on the following basis: Each club is entitled to one delegate at large and one for each twenty-five members and remaining fraction thereof greater than fifteen.

Clubs are urged to meet and organize for the coming campaign and to elect delegates to this convention. As soon as the delegates are elected their names should be forwarded to the secretary on the accompanying credentials blank. No other credentials will be necessary. All clubs that do not receive a copy of this call and the credentials form are requested to write to the secretary for them.
C. H. CAREY, President.
H. L. WELLS, Secretary.
