Those who have had the good fortune to hear Mr. W. Gifford Nash can entertain no doubt as to his genius. He plays so quietly, with such absolute absence of effort, or display of technique that at first you wonder and half doubt that such quiet force will produce so wonderful an effect.—Music Life. Mr. Nash will appear with the U. of O. glee club at Shively's, Dec. 30.

When a person is losing flesh and wasting away there is cause for alarm. Nothing so worrisome as a physician. Consumptives would never die if they could regain their usual weight. In fact there would be no consumption if there was no wasting of the system. The cause of this loss of flesh is a failure to properly digest the food eaten. Nine-tenths of all our diseases date back to some derangement of the stomach.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial will stop this wasting of the body. It acts by causing the food we eat to be digested so as to do good, for undigested food does more harm than good. The Cordial contains food already digested and is a digester of foods as well.

Every mother hates to make her children take Castor Oil. Laxol is sweet Castor Oil.

Jonathan Yoder, the sawmill man, of Needy, was in this city last Monday evening. Mr. Yoder states that for the past several months there has been a great deal of building going on in his section and that he has not been able to fill more than one-half the orders for lumber he has received; that people generally have been paying off their indebtedness and at the same time making permanent improvements. A very large acreage has been seeded to wheat this year in the Needy district.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit, Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneke, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by G. A. Harding.

"Mask and Masking" was the subject discussed by the pastor, Rev. H. Oberg, of the M. E. church, last Sunday evening. The subject was not applied particularly to the word mask as commonly used but to show that the mask or disguise was used by very many people and things to conceal their real traits of character, pretending one thing to accomplish another. The discourse was demonstrative and convincing. The subject "Gospel Dynamite" will be discussed next Sunday evening.

The statement made many years ago that "man cannot live by bread alone" is as true as it ever was—he must have a nice juicy steak or a roast of meat to go with it. MURDERER CAUGHT

George Upton's Awful Crime of Ten Years Ago.

Captured in Portland Last Saturday—A Columbia County Criminal.

George Upton, who has been wanted for murder in Columbia county for more than ten years, was arrested in Portland last Saturday and the next day was identified by Sheriff Rice of St. Helens, who when he entered the prisoner's cell at the city jail said:

"Well, George, I see they have got you," was the sheriff's salutation.

"I am sorry to say they have," was the surly response.

"I don't think we will let you get away this time," continued Mr. Rice. "I am going to land you in your old quarters in the Multnomah county jail, but will not take you out until you are wanted for trial."

The patrol wagon was run out and Upton, under a heavy guard, was taken to the county jail. A stop was made on the way and the prisoner's picture was taken for the rogue's gallery. It is safe to say that, barring death, Upton will be where the Columbia county authorities can lay their hands on him, when they want him for trial.

The crime for which Upton is wanted was committed about ten years ago, and was the outgrowth of the intimacy of himself and two others with the same woman. After Upton had been away for some time he returned one morning, entered the house and stated he had come to kill the whole outfit and proceeded to pour a volley from a well-loaded revolver. The woman and the two men were seated at the breakfast table when he entered. His first two shots took deadly effect on an old gentleman, the original husband of the woman. He then opened fire on the second man and the first bullet severed his lower jaw, felling him to the floor. The woman thoroughly frightened by this time, fled out of the house and ran for her life, the murderer thinking he had killed both men turned his attention to the woman and emptied his revolver at her without effect. He stopped to reload his weapon but discovered that the main spring was broken. He went back to the house with the woman and found his second victim in a badly wounded condition.

Upton then left the scene and traveled several miles for a physician and returned with him about the middle of the night. While the physician dressed the wounds of the injured man Upton busied himself in washing and laying out the dead one, and after everything was arranged he placed his pistol in the dead man's pocket and made the woman and the injured man promise that they would tell the story that the dead man attempted to kill them and the wounded man was forced to shoot him. This promise being given, Upton left the place and was not captured until about two years ago when he was arrested in Astoria. During October, 1895, he was taken from the Multnomah county jail to St. Helens for trial, court then being in session. The day before his trial was to begin he broke jail and got away. Since that time he has been known to have been in hiding out on the headwaters of the Molalla in this county, but no effort was made to capture him, in fact very few persons would care to undertake the job.

At the time Upton was to have been tried in Columbia county two years ago that county had gone to the expense of sending to Arizona for two witnesses—the woman and her daughter—and these same witnesses will again be necessary to make sure of conviction. Upton is a desperate character and no small amount of care will be necessary to safely keep him.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Rev. D. W. Williams gave an excellent address to men on "A Sure Foundation" last Sunday afternoon. The meeting next Sunday will be addressed by Rev. A. J. Ware.

The annual convention of the associations of the Pacific Northwest will be held in the new building in Portland, January 6th to 9th. Every member of the Oregon City association should plan to attend this gathering of young men and see the new building.

The young men's class in the gymnasium is making good progress under Mr. Brown. A beginners class will be started next Monday night and the present class will take up more advanced work. This will give an opportunity to all who were not able to begin at the commencement of the term.

The vocal music class is growing, all who desire to join should do so next Tuesday night.

A new book for the library would be a nice Christmas present for the association. Members and friends are requested to send in one if they can spare it.

 JACOB SPAGLA,
 Committee.

U. of O. Glee Club.

Of the University of Oregon Glee Club, which is to appear at Shively's opera house on the evening of December 30, under the auspices of the Presbyterian church, the Eugene Register says: "The choruses are simply beautiful, the coster work by W. K. Glen, excellent, and the piano solos by W. Gifford Nash evidence his mastery skill. Prof. I. M. Glen's baritone solos were always highly enjoyed, while Mr. Eaton in his monologues and characters were the hit of the evening. Mr. C. V. Galloway, the champion intercollegiate orator of 1895, has at last been secured by the club as its impersonator. He is one of the ablest ever on an Oregon stage, which will be evidenced during their tour of the state two weeks hence.

The register takes great pride and pleasure in recommending them to the cities of the valley and state fortunate in securing an entertainment from this glee club, the jolliest crowd of college fellows in the state."

The Guard says "the glee club gave an entertainment before an enthusiastic audience of 900 people, while the perfect blending of their voices in the chorus work was equal to any of the older college glee clubs. Of the specialists, Allen Eaton in his monologues, shows great genius and is a clever entertainer who will never fail to capture his audience. Will K. Glen, in his coster songs, was compelled to answer to repeated demands for encores, as did Charles V. Galloway in his impersonations. Messrs W. Gifford Nash and Irving M. Glen are each a team within themselves, and received that hearty approval their work merited.

The cities that the club will visit in their holiday tour can rest assured that they will listen to a concert the equal, and in some points superior to the work did by the Stanford club in their tour last year."

Chas. V. Galloway, the impersonator is a son of Judge Galloway, the receiver of the Oregon City land office.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

THE excessive use of tobacco, especially by young men is always injurious and undoubtedly shortens life materially. Mr. Ed. C. Ebsen, compositor on the Contra-Costa News, Martinez, Cal., writes: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and received much benefit from it. I was troubled with nervousness, dizzy spells and sleeplessness, caused by the use of tobacco and stimulants. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with marvelously good results, allaying the dizziness, quieting the nerves, and enabling me to sleep and rest, proving in my case a very beneficial remedy." Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is especially adapted to restoring the nervous system to its normal condition under such circumstances. It soothes, heals and strengthens.

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
