Only ten days remain before the meeting of the state league of republican clubs. All clubs that have not already done so are urged to elect delegates and send their credentials to the secretary, H. L. Wells, Portland.

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Ruddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation and was finally cured by using De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for all stomach and liver troubles. Geo. A. Harding.

Miss Allie Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous pile remedy. Geo. A. Harding.

Butter has long been extracted from new milk, without the labor of churning but now a Baltimore man claims to have invented a method of making butter directly from grass, without the intervention of a cow. But it must be a sort of "green goods" butter.

The combined weight of a couple recently married in Denver is 1253 pounds. The man weighs 720 pounds and his wife tips the beam at 533 pounds. She is three inches taller than her companion, being six feet and one inch. The man is 25 years of age, his wife 22.

Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., says, "My child is worth millions to me yet I would have lost her by croup had I not invested twenty-five cents in a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Geo. A. Harding.

The local paper is supposed to print all the home news, but if they printed all the drunken scraps, family rackets, etc., what a howl there would be. You never know the true value of the home paper until you want something kept out of its columns—then the editor is the best fellow in town.

It is easy to catch a cold and just as easy to get rid of it if you commence early to use One Minute Cough Cure. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. It is pleasant to take, safe to use and sure to cure. Geo. A. Harding.

The statement made many years ago that "man cannot live by bread alone" is as true as it ever was—he must have a nice juicy steak or a roast of meat to go with it. Richard Petzold s'wears ready to furnish his customers with the best of fresh and smoked meats at either his Main or Seventh street market.

Mr. E. W. Dixon, who was special agent of the interior department under the Cleveland administration with headquarters at Oregon City, has been, by Commissioner Hermann, appointed special clerk in the land office here for a period of three months. Mr. Dixon entered upon his clerical duties yesterday morning.

A teacher in a public school not many miles from Milton, having instructed a pupil to purchase a grammar, received a note thus worded from the child's mother: "I do not desire for Lulu shall engage in grammar as I prefer her engage in yuseful studies and can learn her to speak and write properly myself. I have went through two grammars myself and can't say as they did me no good. I prefer her engage in german and drawing and yokal music on the piano."

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit, Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneme, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm," and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by G. A. Harding.

FRANKLIN'S GRAVE.

Reasons Given For Allowing It to Remain In Its Present Condition.

Benjamin Franklin's grave is in a neglected condition. No appropriate stone rises over it, the ground round about it is uncared for, and the tomb of the great scholar and statesman is as obscure as that of a man whose name and fame were no part of the glory of his country.

His grave is destitute even of a headstone. It is covered by an old fashioned marble slab which was placed there 100 years ago and is now worn and discolored by age.

Nothing has been done to it since Franklin was buried there, and even the modest arrangements of the grave are not kept in the perfect condition that is expected of a great man's tomb. The earth on all sides is bare of grass, the common thatching of the commonest grave, and an air of desolation is about the whole place.

The sexton said that the descendants of Franklin would not do anything to repair the grave; neither would they allow anybody else to do anything. Every day he has received offers of subscriptions from visitors, who are distressed by the forlorn appearance of Franklin's resting place and who would like to see it improved. In reply he says, as he has been instructed, that Franklin wished it so, "being a plain man averse to display of any kind." Not long ago, at his own expense, he had the fading inscription recut, or else even the only distinguishing mark, the name, would be gone.

If he had not done so, the last resting place of the greatest man, outside of Washington, in American history would have been forgotten and unknown. Who is responsible for this condition of affairs? Not the living relatives of Franklin. The responsibility rests with the American people, to whom the man belongs. They should see to it in the future that what little is there to mark the grave is kept in better order than it has been in the past.

Before he died Franklin provided for his own gravestone and instructed a stonecutter of his acquaintance in every detail, even to the inscription which was to be placed upon it. He desired to be buried beside his wife, who had died some years before, and a common slab was to be placed over them both. The inscription arranged as he ordered it reads:

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN
DEBORAH
1730

Everything was done as he desired, and the work was paid for out of his estate and stands today the same as when he died.—Philadelphia Times.

Wobbled When He Came to Possum.

Old Uncle Claybrook is a very religious old dorky and holds converse with his Maker twenty times a day or oftener. His habit is to pray and then turn off into what appears to be a one sided conversation with the Lord, but it is evident that there is another party to it as far as he is concerned. To hear him reminds one very much of a telephone conversation.

The other day he was going through his customary devotions, and when he got to the point of expressing thankfulness for the many blessings of life he broke off into a recounting of them, says Cicero T. Sutton of the Owensboro Inquirer. "An den, dar's possum, Lord—how'd you ever think of makin possum? Possum jes' beats all. You jes' couldn't beat it if you tried ag'in. Possum, he, he! Yes, dar's watahmillion. I hadn't thought of dat. Hit's jes' great. You couldn't beat hit neither, could you, Lord? Now, hones', couldn' you jes' fix it so dey bofe git ripe at once? Ef you was to do dat, you might go out an shet de do'. Dey wouldn't be no mo' sin an no mo' sorrow an no mo' tribulation. Jes' try hit once, Lord, an jes' see what a diffence hit would make."

And then "old uncle" began to hum a quaint negro camp meeting tune and stopped to look at a piece of liver in a butcher's stall as the best substitute for his loved possum or as best suited to the small piece of money which represented his total movable wealth.

Burglarized a Second Time.

Sometime during last Sunday night the general merchandise store of Ely Bros., located in the lower story of Shively's opera house was entered by removing a large glass from the front door and goods to the amount of $100 or more taken. The missing articles consist of clothing of almost every kind, boots and shoes, rubber goods, cigars, tobacco, etc. No money was taken. About two months ago the same store was burglarized, at which time in addition to taking a considerable amount of goods, $100 in cash was also secured. The firm has been peculiarly unfortunate in this particular, and it is generally believed the same parties committed both robberies. No particular clue was left by which the burglars could be apprehended.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised "Electric Bitters," and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at Charman & Co's. drug store.

LaGrippe,

Followed by Heart Disease, Cured by DR. MILES' HEART CURE.

M R. C. C. SHULTS, of Winterset, Iowa, inventor and manufacturer of Shults Safety Whiffletree Coupling, writes of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "Two years ago an attack of LaGrippe left me with a weak heart. I had run down in flesh to mere skin and bone. I could not sleeping down for smothering spells; frequent sharp darting pains and palpitation caused a constant fear of sudden death, nothing could induce me to remain away from home over night. My local physician prescribed Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a few days I was able to sleep well and the pains gradually lessened, and finally ceased. I reduced the dose, having gained fifteen pounds, and am now feeling better in every way than I have for years."
