FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1896.

TO BE FUMIGATED.—The Southern Pacific Road has taken a step, which in view of the increased travel and crowded state of their cars, is to be highly commended. In the future all the passenger cars on the system will be fumigated at the end of each trip. Dr. Gardiner, the company's head surgeon, has completed arrangements for clearing the cars of the disease germs that might lodge in them from carrying disease infected passengers, and the work of fumigating them will be inaugurated in a few days, it is reported.

THE YOUNGEST SOLDIER.—Albany Democrat: The Corvallis Times says that M. A. Hubler, of that city, is probably the youngest union soldier in the United States. The Democrat is prepared to present a candidate for the honor who will probably knock Mr. Hubler out several years. S. A. Landis, of Albany, on May 9th, 1861, enlisted in the 16th Indiana, F Company, and served continuously through the war, later in I Co. 99th Ind. He was in 113 engagements and skirmishes, including Fort Donelson, Fort Henry, Shilo, Vicksburg and Sherman's march to the sea, in one fight under fire steadily for 21 days. His regiment marched over 4000 miles. Mr. Landis was only 13 years and less than one month old on entering the army and a mere boy when the war closed. He is now 49 years of age. Let's hear about Mr. Hubler.

WILL HANG NEXT FRIDAY.—Gus Wachlin, recently convicted at Hillsboro for the murder of John D. Ledrick about four years ago has been sentenced to hang February 4th. Wachlin's attorneys have been making every effort to secure money to pay the expense of an appeal to the supreme court, and with that object in view one of the condemned man's counsel made a trip to St. Paul, Minn., last week to see Wachlin's mother who is said to possess considerable means, but she refused to put up the money. This is said to be the last hope the convicted man had entertained and now that the effort has been unsuccessful there is nothing left to do except to carry out the sentence imposed by the jury. Preparations for the execution have been under way for the past two or three weeks and now that an appeal will not be taken the final scene will be enacted next Friday.

PROFESSION WELL REPRESENTED.—The fact that a comparatively small amount of the legal business of Clackamas county goes to outside attorneys speaks volumes for the ability and integrity of the law profession as represented by the local bar. Indeed this is as it should be. The fact of a lawyer being located in a large city is no guarantee that he has superior knowledge and can more successfully attend to legal procedure than the man who lives in a smaller place. As a matter of fact the local attorney as a rule is more successful in his practice than the one from abroad, for the reason that he has an opportunity to become familiar with his case and also with the character of jurors which the attorney from the large city does not possess. The bar of Oregon City, we believe, will compare favorably with that of any city in the state, and therefore there seems no good reason for going from home for legal advice.

NOT SO MANY FAILURES.—An important indication of the fair measure of prosperity in the country during 1897 is in number of bank failures as compared with previous years. The smaller number of casualties and the greatly reduced volume of failures point clearly to the transaction of a business less hazardous than was the case in 1896 and 1895, and decidedly more profitable than in 1893, when the suspension of financial institutions was an almost daily occurrence. There were but 105 suspensions or failures of all classes of banks and loan and trust companies in 1897, against 197 in 1896, and 598 in 1893. When the comparative liabilities of the different years are considered an even greater diminutive is seen. The total liabilities of all the failing institutions in 1897 is found to be 69 per cent less than 1896 and 90 per cent less than 1893.

TARGET SOLDIER.—Albany Democrat: "The Democrat recently published an item about S. A. Landis, of this city, being among the youngest soldiers in the war of the rebellion, existing when 13 years of age. John Catlin, of this city, better known as Warm Spring Johnny, presents a record that beats this. When 11 years of age he enlisted as bugler in Company A, Fifth New York, and served continuously through the war, his discharge papers showing that he was discharged on July 19, 1865, when he enlisted in Company K, and served in Arizona. His regiment was in 185 engagements, said to be the record in the war of the rebellion. Johnny was under General Compton at one time. On this coast he was in nearly if not quite all of the Indian engagements after the rebellion."

THAT SPECIAL SESSION.—The adverse report on seating Mr. Corbett in the United States senate has started anew the talk of a special session of the legislature, and while the talk goes merrily on the governor says wood. In all that is said regarding a special session no one has yet offered any evidence that the same members who refused to take the oath of office last time would not do so again if convened in special session. In fact it seems absolutely certain that they would not perform their duties better now than before, and why have the farce repeated. It is only a year until the regular session will be held, at which time we believe the people will be represented by men and not hoodlums. The people want remedial legislation—they wanted it last time—but were deceived by those whose greed for money caused them to "forget" their promises. These same people may have lost their greed for money or they may not have. To try them again is the only way to find out, and the test comes too high. It does not pay to experiment with infernal machines. Let the members of the late lamented legislature serve out their terms unmolested and perhaps the object lesson may be of benefit to the people in selecting servants hereafter.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

E. E. Williams Takes Steps to Protect His Creditors.
The people of this city were somewhat surprised last Saturday to learn that on the previous day E. E. Williams, the grocer, had made an assignment to Thomas F. Ryan for the benefit of his creditors. The approximate assets are as follows:
Stock ..... $4,000
Accounts ..... 6,500
Real Estate ..... 900
Total ..... $11,400
Liabilities ..... 10,589
The principal creditor is Allen & Lewis, the wholesale grocery firm in Portland. The cause which led up to the assignment by Mr. Williams are said to be due to a failure or forfeiture of a wood contract by Batdorf Bros., who had a large contract for getting out wood on the West side which was to be delivered on board the cars of the Willamette Falls Co., for which they were to receive $1.40 per cord. Mr. Williams had been furnishing the firm with supplies until the account amounted to something like $3500. The firm abandoned the contract and were unable to pay their bill and while Mr. Williams has security on certain property the cash is not at present available and in order that his creditors might be protected in the premises he deemed it best to make the assignment. The business is still conducted by Mr. Williams at the same stand under instructions from the assignee.

In addition to the cause above stated it might not be out of place to state that an additional reason for the failure is assigned to the great business depression of the past three or four years, together with close competition and excessive rents paid. The latter in particular in Oregon City is out of proportion to the business transactions in almost every line. Mr. Williams has been in the grocery business here for over eight years and has enjoyed a good trade, but the expense incurred in carrying on the business has left but a very small margin.

Not For Everything.

But if your kidney, liver or bladder trouble you will find Swamp-Root just the remedy you need. People are not apt to get anxious about their health soon enough. If you are "not quite well" or "half sick" have you ever thought that your kidneys may be the cause of your sickness? It is easy to tell by setting aside your urine for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine sates linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. To frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder need doctoring.

There is satisfaction in knowing that the great remedy Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, fulfills every wish in relieving weak or diseased kidneys and all forms of bladder and urinary troubles. Not only does Swamp-Root give new life and activity to the kidneys—the cause of trouble, but by treating the kidneys it acts as a tonic for the entire constitution. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar, or by mentioning the Oregon City Enterprise and sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. you may have sample bottle of this great discovery sent to you free by mail.

Entertainment

The entertainment at the West Side school Friday evening was a complete success. At the appointed hour the singing boys opened, disclosing the sage surrounded and canopied by a large American flag. In the center, on the throne sat the Goddess of Liberty while on either side stood the various sections of our country, holding rich gifts to her majesty.

A prominent and pleasing feature of the entertainment was five scenes from a historical drama. The brave Boston boys, who would not be oppressed by British soldiers; The patriotic woman who would rather drink poison than to touch a drop of imported tea; and The men who would not build up their town at the expense of Boston while she was in distress, were all there. The young ladies were unique in Revolutionary costumes.

The contrast between 1798 and 1898 was clearly shown by the manner, speech and dress of two young ladies.

A small boy recited "Seven Things at Night" in a pleasing manner. Two other recitations, "The American Flag" and "Little Golden Hair" were nicely spoken.

Club swinging was a novel feature and was much appreciated.

The musical program was made up of songs by the intermediate grades, a duet by the Misses Younger of Oregon City and violin solos by Miss Henrietta DeBauer, of Oswego.

"The Rival Speakers" two boys trying to speak at the same time created much merriment.

The closing number was a reading acted in pantomime. The interest grew from the beginning to the climax at the end when the audience fairly went wild with merriment over the ludicrous scenes.

There were more than 50 persons taking part, yet during the progress of the entertainment the order was almost perfect.

The net proceeds, amounting to about $21 will be used to start a fund for the purchase of an organ for the school.

The Marketing Point OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

The factory towns of the East are noted for affording the best market to the neighboring farmers and gardeners in proportion to the population of any of the towns in that section. The reason for this is that the people of these towns have a fixed income upon which they can always depend, and, as a consequence, they are liberal buyers, paying cash for all their purchases.
