"It hardly seems right," said the Cornfed Philosopher, "yet it is undoubtedly true that many a young woman is willing to trust with her heart a young man that no butcher will trust for a pound of liver."

A schoolboy was asked to explain the formation of dew. His answer was: "The earth revolves on its axes every twenty-four hours, and in consequence of the tremendous pace at which it travels it perspires freely."

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Ruddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation and was finally cured by using De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for all stomach and liver troubles. Geo. A. Harding.

Miss Allie Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous pile remedy. Geo. A. Harding.

Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., says, "My child is worth millions to me; yet I would have lost her by croup had I not invested twenty-five cents in a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Geo. A. Harding.

It is easy to catch a cold and just as easy to get rid of it if you commence early to use One Minute Cough Cure. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. It is pleasant to take, safe to use and sure to cure. Geo. A. Harding.

At least one thousand men will quit employment in this city between now and the first of May and go to the Alaskan gold fields. This will certainly have a tendency to increase local wages and open many places for employment of those now idle in this community, says the Portland Welcome.

The statement made many years ago that "man cannot live by bread alone" is as true as it ever was—he must have a nice juicy steak or a roast of meat to go with it. Richard Petzold is always ready to furnish his customers with the best of fresh and smoked meats at either his Main or Seventh street market.

A Kansas cripple walked 597 miles on crutches to marry a woman who, at the end of his long tramp, heartlessly jilted him. They had become engaged through correspondence, and as he found her to be 60 years old, he being only 35, the walk back was probably even more cheerful than that which had seemed to lead to a wedding.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit, Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Huene, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by G. A. Harding.

Headache stopped in 20 minutes by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. "One cent a dose."

There is said to be at present a glut in the labor market at Juneau, Dyea and Skagway. More workmen than there are jobs for have gone to those towns, with the result that wages are coming down, and many men are now eating up their supplies and earning nothing. When a good fall of snow comes, followed by a freeze the situation will be good, for then the carrying of supplies over Chilkoot and White passes will begin in earnest and every man there can get work.

At the Congregational church next Sabbath there will be the usual services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. at the evening service Dr. Butler will begin a series of three Sunday evening sermons on the "Second Coming of Christ." The public is cordially invited. Good music will be furnished.

Joseph McKenna has been appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate as associate justice of the United States supreme court. There were only a few dissenting votes on the question of confirmation. Governor John W. Griggs, of New Jersey, has been appointed attorney general to succeed McKenna.

J. G. Tate, of Lincoln, Neb., past-supreme master A. O. U. W. will deliver a free lecture at Weinhard's hall next Monday evening. The subject will pertain to the order generally.

Pointed Paragraph.

The meeting of the state central committee of the pops took place in that suggestive locality, the Union Hall, in Union block, Portland, the premises owned by ex-Senator H. W. Corbett, First and Stark streets. The meeting which was fairly well attended, was a sort of epilogue to the late Oregon City exposures of $80-U'Ren and How-much-did-he-get Young, made by J. D. Stevens of Oregon City. Free-riot, that prominent plank of the pop's last platform was in thorough evidence throughout the meeting in such a manner to make a Dennybrook Fair appear as a Quaker meeting when compared with it. The endearing terms applied to one another by these populist brethren would not appear well in cold type and can best be expressed in a continuation of two em dashes, thus— — —! $80-U'Ren came out of the "mill" with a highly frescoed optic as a result of getting in contact with Stevens' strong right hand, and had to call in the assistance of a beauty doctor to make him presentable, while Stevens' nasal organ was the worse of the wear from vigorous punches from $80 U'Ren's powerful left swing. Altogether the proceedings were highly if not edifying, and present an object lesson—if it were needed—of the incapacity of these howling desivahs to govern themselves, let along others.—Ashland Tidings.

Snow and Ice Train.

Several of the passengers who will go north on the snow and ice train are already in the city. Dr. W. S. Bunn, of Chicago, who will act as the physician of the company, has arrived, and Dr. E. J. Carroll, another surgeon, is expected in the city next Monday. Among the passengers are A. J. Bruce, D. A. Pollock and L. E. Robertson. The last named gentleman will be the official photographer of the company, and will make pictures of the scenes along the way.

The parties named are from Chicago, and have a personal acquaintance with the managers of the train. They are satisfied that the trip will be a success, and they are looking forward to a comfortable and speedy journey into the gold country. J. F. Knapp, the local agent of the company, said yesterday that all arrangements are progressing in a satisfactory manner, and that the train will make its initial trip early next month.

Mr. Kehr has arrived in Seattle, and wired that he would be in the city today. Mr. Kehr is the purchasing agent of the company, and will look after the business arrangements of the train. The outfitting will be done in this city, and the money for this purpose has already been deposited in one of the local banks. A boat has been chartered to carry the expedition to Pyramid harbor, and it is expected to leave about the 9th or 10th.—Portland Tribune.

I. B. Donaldson, of Morrison, Illinois, a cousin of F. E. Donaldson, arrived in the city Friday. He will look after the latter's insurance business during his absence in the East and on his return will engage in business either in Oregon City or Portland, when he will be joined by his family, who for the present are at the old home in Illinois.

V. Harris, returned last Monday from a two week's visit to Southern California. While absent he visited Redlands, Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Riverside, and although it is but eight years since he left there many changes have taken place. The weather has been quite cold accompanied with snow at Redlands, something very unusual, but Mr. Harris thinks the cold there affects one worse than in Oregon.

THE COURT JESTER.

A Practical Joke That Will Sommers Played on Cardinal Wolsey.

Amelia Wofford tells of "The Court Jesters of England" in St. Nicholas. The following is related of King Henry VIII's jester:

Sommers, like Scogan, liked a practical joke, and one that he played on Cardinal Wolsey is thus quaintly told by Armin:

"Of a time appointed the king dined at Windsor, in the chapel yard at Cardinal Wolsey's at the same time when he was building that admirable work of his tombs, at whose gate stood a number of poor people, to be served with alms when dinner was done within, and as Will passed by they saluted him, taking him for a worthy personage, which pleased him. In he comes, and finding the king at dinner and the cardinal by attending, to disgrace him that he never loved, Harry, says hee, lend me £10. What to doe? saies the king. To pay three or foure of the cardinal's creditors, quoth hee, to whom my word is past, and they are now come for the money. That thou shalt, Will, quoth hee. Creditors of mine? saies the cardinal. He give your grace my head if any man can justly aske me a penny. No, saies Will. Lend me £10. If I pay it not where thou owest it, He give thee £20 for it. Doe so, saies the king. That I will, my liege, saies the cardinal, though I owe none. With that he lends Will £10. Will goes to the gate, distributes it to the poore and brought the empty bag. There is thy bag againe, saies hee. Thy creditors are satisfied, and my word out of danger. Who received, saies the king, the brewer or the baker? Noyther, Harry, saies Will Sommers. But, cardinal, answer me in one thing, to whom dost thou owe thy soule? To God, quoth hee. To whom thy wealth? To the poore, saies hee. Take thy forfeit, Harry, saies the fool. Open confession, open penance. His head is thine, for to the poore at the gate I paid his debt, which hee yields is due, or if thy stony heart will not yield it so, save thy head by denying thy word and lend it mee. Thou knowest I am poore and have neither wealth nor wit, and what thou lendest to the poore God will pay thee tenfold. * * * The king laughed at the jest, and so did the cardinal for a shew, but it grieved him to jest away £10 so."

Cesar did not say, "Et tu, Brute." Eyewitnesses of the assassination deposed that he died fighting, but silent, like a wolf.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

THE excessive use of tobacco, especially by young men is always injurious and undoubtedly shortens life materially. Mr. Ed. C. Ebsen, compositor on the Contra-Costa News, Martinez, Cal., writes: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and received much benefit from it. I was troubled with nervousness, dizzy spells and sleeplessness, caused by the use of tobacco and stimulants. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with marvelously good results, allaying the dizziness, quieting the nerves, and enabling me to sleep and rest, proving in my case a very beneficial remedy." Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is especially adapted to restoring the nervous system to its normal condition under such circumstances. It soothes, heals and strengthens.

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
