LOST IN THE HOUSE

The Teller Resolution Defeated by a Decisive Majority.

The United States Will Pay Its Obligations in the Money Agreed Upon—A Solid Delegation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The house today buried the Teller resolution, declaring the bonds of the United States payable in silver, under an adverse majority of 50 yeates. The republicans were solidly arrayed in opposition, with two exceptions—Linney of North Carolina, who voted with the democrats and populists, and White of North Carolina, the only colored member of the house, who answered "present" when his name was called. The desertions from the democratic side were McAleer of Pennsylvania, and Elliott of South Carolina. Both voted with the republicans against the proposition.

Speaker Reed, although it is not customary for him to vote, had his name called, and, amid the cheers of his followers, went on record in opposition to the resolution. The vote was reached after five hours of debate, under a special order, adopted at the opening of the session today. The limited time allowed for debate, and the pressure of members for an opportunity to be heard, was so great that the leaders on both sides were compelled to farm out the time by minutes. This detracted much from the continuity of the discussion, but in some measure intensified the interest in the galleries, which were crowded all day, and the combatants on the floor were cheered by their respective sympathizers. Many of the senators from the other side of the capitol were present to listen to the arguments.

The majority, under the leadership of Dingley, who made a carefully prepared speech sounded the key-note of the opposition, assumed the position that the last clause of the resolution was in reality a disguised declaration for the free coinage of silver, while the assaulting democrats, under the direction of Bailey, maintained that the defeat of the resolution was another step in the direction of the establishment of the gold standard, to which he alleged both the president and Secretary Gage had irrevocably committed the republican party.

The debate was at times fast and heated, but there were no sensational incidents, beyond the hissing of Rhea, when he said that as the author of the "crime of '73," the hottest place in hades would be reserved for the present secretary of the state.

The vote on the resolution was: Ayes, 182; noes, 182.
Congressmen Ellis and Tongue voted against the resolution, thereby leaving no doubt as to where Oregon's congressmen stand in relation to the question of finance.

Equal Rights for All.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Senator Carter has offered for the bill granting right of way in Alaska an amendment which reaffirms and continues the present mining regulations and offers the following provision:

"Provided that native-born citizens of the Dominion of Canada shall be accorded to citizens of the United States in British Columbia and the Northwest territory by the laws and regulations, and the secretary of the interior shall, from time to time, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations to carry this provision into effect."

Bomb Throwers in Havana.

HAVANA, Jan. 31.—About midnight a man named Luis Corolazo, who recently returned to Cuba from African prisons, exploded a bomb at the private residence of the mayor of Havana. The noise of the explosion was heard throughout Havana, although the scene of the explosion was Jesus del Monte. The door was broken and a large hole was made in the house. The Diaz family and those inhabiting the neighboring houses were panic stricken. The bombthrower was captured while attempting to escape.

Killed While Coasting.

ROSALIA, Wash., Feb. 1.—The 4-year-old son of Judge Schurra was killed this morning while coasting. At a sharp turn his sled left the road and pitched down the hill. Its progress was stopped at a fence, a post of which the boy struck with his head. His skull was fractured and the barbed wire penetrated his scalp. He lived about 70 minutes.

A Party From Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Thirty-one prospectors under the direction of the Yukon Valley Prospecting & Mining Company, left for the Klondike in a special coach over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road last night. From St. Paul the party will proceed in a Canadian Pacific tourist car by way of Winnipeg to Calgary. It is expected that the trip will take four days.

The overland route, with sledges, by way of Edmonton, will be taken at Calgary. An outfit of huge flat sleds with 75 horses as the motive power is in waiting to take the party and its freight over the 1000 miles of snow and ice to its destination at the headwaters of Pelly river. It is expected that the trip overland will take 60 days.

A farewell dinner to the prospectors was given by the Yukon Valley Prospecting & Mining Company at the Tremont house, in the afternoon. Forty-five other guests, all stockholders in the company, were present. The men who are bound for the gold fields represent almost every trade. Two are experts and practical miners.

YAMHILL COUNTY MURDER.

Old Family Feud Results in a Fatal Shooting Affray.

Paul Ducleos, a farmer living 10 miles southeast of McMinnville, was shot and instantly killed last Saturday morning by Clemmens, aged 20 years. The trouble was the result of an old feud of long standing. The coroner's jury exonerated Clemmens on the ground of self-defense. Young Clemmens was put on the stand before the coroner's jury and made the following statement which is corroborated by the neighbors:

"I had known Paul Ducleos in life. I saw him alive this morning about 10 o'clock, and I know the cause of his death. I started to go hunting this morning, going through the field to the line between our place and that of Mr. Mackey. I then went down the hill by L. Baker's place. Here I saw Ducleos approaching from the same direction that I had come. When he was within about 50 yards, he began to abuse me, and still came nearer, swearing and threatening to kill me. When he was close to me he pulled off his gloves, or mittens, and began to draw his gun. I tried to evade him, and said that I did not want to have any trouble. Ducleos kept coming, and then began to raise his gun. When he had raised it to about the range of my head, I fired."

The story seemed to show that Ducleos did not intend to shoot Clemmens, but was trying to intimidate him. Previous to drawing the gun, which is of the hammerless pattern, he had slipped the catch which holds the gun in readiness to fire. As he drew the gun, he did it as though he intended to kill Clemmens. Clemmens raised his gun and fired to save his life.

Trouble has existed between the Ducleos and Clemmens families for a long time, and it nearly reached a climax last fall during harvest, when Clemmens and his father and the two Ducleos boys came near fighting. Since then the bitterness has been more intense, and the Ducleos boys have promiscuously threatened the lives of the two Clemmens men. Ducleos' gun was found by his side, in full readiness for shooting.

Republican Editors Meet.

At the annual meeting of the Republican Editorial Press Association, held Wednesday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: D. M. C. Gault, of Hillsboro, president; W. J. Clarke, of Gervais, secretary; S. S. Train, of Allany, treasurer; executive committee, J. B. Eddy, J. R. Beegle, J. T. Lighter.

The following resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted: Whereas, It is evident that the battles of 1898 and 1900 will be practically the same line as in 1896, namely, between the gold standard and protection on the one side and free silver and free trade on the other; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of the Oregon Republican Editorial Press Association hereby declare firmly and uncompromisingly in favor of a gold standard as the basis of our monetary system; and that we renew our allegiance to the principles of protection; and that we stand squarely upon the St. Louis platform as interpreted by the McKinley administration.

Household Gods.

The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of Throat, Chest and Lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at Charman & Co's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

STRUCK ON A REEF

Steamship Corona, Bound for Alaska, Wrecked.

A Large Amount of Freight and 247 Passengers Safely Lande—Struck an Unknown Reef.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Further particulars have been received of the wreck of the Pacific coast steamship Corona on a reef at the southeast point of Lewis island, 480 miles north of Victoria, on Sunday, January 23.

The Corona sailed from Seattle with 247 passengers for Juneau, Dyea and Skagway, January 20. She carried a cargo of 700 tons, together with 10 horses and 38 dogs. At 5:30 Sunday morning the steamer suddenly crashed upon a reef. Most of the passengers were up awaiting the breakfast call, but a scene of indescribable confusion followed. When the steamer finally settled down, the officers and crew succeeded in calming the panic-stricken passengers, and Captain Pierce at once ordered the boats lowered and the pumps worked.

At 7:35 A. M. the first boat put off for the nearest land, Lewis island. Seven boats were manned and the passengers were all landed in two trips without accident.

The hand baggage and that in the forward hold was then transferred and the dogs and horses saved. The mattresses and blankets from the staterooms were also landed for the accommodation of the ship wrecked passengers.

About noon the steamer sank, stern foremost, with her bow hanging to the rock on which she struck. A severe storm which struck the camp added to the horrors of the hapless passengers. The storm continued until Wednesday morning.

Wednesday night the steamer Danube was sighted, and answered a signal fired from the point, and Captain Pierce boarded her in a canoe. Upon his return, he conveyed the glad news that the steamers Al-Ki and Elder were close behind the Danube, and would relieve them. The Danube proceeded south with news of the disaster. It was understood that one of the two vessels would turn back to Fort Wrangel with such of the passengers as desired to proceed to the Northwest, while the other would bring the remainder to Seattle.

Intense Heat in Australia.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31.—The steamer Warimoo, just arrived from Australia, brings news of the most appalling climatic conditions prevailing in many sections of Australia. Prostrations from the heat are so numerous that the condition of affairs in the large cities was alarming. In many instances work is out of the question and sleep is impossible. Telegrams show the same conditions prevail all over the colony. The thermometer during the day averages about 124 in the shade. In the sun it is 160.

News comes from all parts of Australia of destruction by flames. It would appear from the press reports that the total damage will amount to £1,000,000. In Victoria colony 100,000 acres have been swept clean and enormous crops destroyed. In other colonies houses and barns were burned.

The Modern Way

Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after-effects use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by California Fig Syrup Co.

The Time to Spray.

Fruit growers have found by experience that the best time to spray trees for San Jose scale is during the months of February and March, and no doubt many of them will attend to caring for their trees during the next two months. A very strong solution of lime, sulphur and salt can be applied now, before the buds begin to swell, without injury to the trees, but if put off until April or May, a spray that is sufficiently strong to destroy the scale, would prove very injurious to the foliage and fruit. Hence now is the season of the year when the orchardist should exert his greatest activity if he would insure a good crop this season.
