

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

Garfield Notes.

GARFIELD, Feb. 14.—Still it rains. It's old Webfoot and what we may expect.

The measles are still raging. Three sick at George Marshall's, one at Stingley's, two at Rhode's, three at John Tracy's. Mrs. Baker's son is quite sick with them yet. Mr. J. Davis' whole family has them. Some of them are just taking down. None are seriously ill but Mr. George Marshall, he being over 60 years of age and not a stout man, his case is doubtful.

Mr. Wm. Palmateer and his son-in-law and wife start for Eastern Oregon this week. They intended going some time past but were hindered by the family having the measles. We all wish them success and a prosperous time.

Joe Horner has been busy the past week closing up his business here in Garfield, preparatory to opening up in the city, he going there to work. We will miss you, but wish you all success in all that's good, Mr. Horner.

Rev. Moorehouse preached at Zion church Sunday the 13.

Mr. Halliway sold his horses, harness and wagon to a Kansas man then had a time plotting him out of the settlement, he being from a state where there were few roads could not tell how to find his way around so many fields.

Mr. Sam Huffman's family have the measles. Mr. Youn's family have about recovered from their illness.

There has been a panther heard to scream in the neighborhood lately.

Matilda Frakes has been engaged to teach the Springwater school in the Tracy district.

Fred Gerber is framing a barn for F. Schneider. Mr. Schneider will have a barn-raising in a few days.

A. J. Johnson has built a stump puller and is now busy pulling stumps on the farm he recently purchased. If other young men would pattern after Mr. Johnson, the world would be better and fewer families in distress.

Died—Alfred Siekadollar, on Feb. 3, of throat trouble. Funeral services were under supervision of the German church. Interment was in Pleasant View cemetery. Mr. Siekadollar was a native of Switzerland. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

Shubel Happenings

SHUBEL, Feb. 14.—Since our last communication, by virtue of the power invested in us as a community, by the general government, we have changed our original name of "Mink," a word of doubtful meaning—to that of Shubel, a name that congress has recognized as legal and has engraved in its postal system, the best in the world.

Thieving by the wholesale is the rage around here at present. Last week not less than three different homes were inspected, and an attempt was made on the fourth, but unfortunately the pecky dogs kept them at bay.

One of the dogs was struck across the nose with a club, inflicting a deep gash. The following places were inspected: Rev. Wittrock's home was the first to fall victim, the thieves were successful in getting away with considerable sausage and other minor articles. Mr. Godfried Moshuke's smokehouse was raided in the same manner. Mr. Hanson was also imposed upon, but after searching for some time they beat a hasty retreat, as Mr. Hanson began to stir a little. The unsuccessful attempt of the thieves, and where they encountered the dogs, was at the home of your worthy scribe. These enterprising gentlemen who understand the "ways that are dark, and tricks that are vain" may elude justice for awhile, but sooner or later they will be caught like the chicken thief in Milwaukee about a year ago. There is an unerring principle that unfortunately produces such a class. Is it our enslaved industrial condition? or what can it be? There is certainly a cause.

Mr. Eddie Schmidt and Miss Emma Hornschuh were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Hornschuh last Sunday.

Born—To the wife of Charles Shockley, a son on the 14th. Mother and babe doing well.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hettman one night last week. Your scribe was not present to note events but it is reported that a large audience was on hand and all had a good time.

Mr. William Hornschuh, of Carus, donned in citizens clothes, having laid aside for the time being, his martial robes and kingly airs, came over and mingled with the common folks for a few hours last Sunday evening. Come again, Willie, and bring your best girl with you and give ours a rest.

Mrs. Wittrock, wife of the Rev. Wittrock, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Moshuke, went to Portland last Saturday to spend a few days in the metropolis.

Miss Hattie Gintner closed a successful term of school in the Marysville district last Friday and went to Portland the following day to attend the Portland Business college.

Mr. E. W. Hornschuh has bought a pony with which to spend his leisure hours in his old days. May he have many a pleasant journey, is the wish of his friends.

Meilien, decided in favor of the affirmative.

Sandy Siftings.

SANDY, Feb. 14.—(To the Editor).—As Mr. John Crisale and Ed. F. Bruns, of Sandy, are anxious to know who is the author of "Good Roads" that appeared in your paper of January 12th, if it will save much plank, time and money as Mr. Crisale thinks—although I am not desirous of newspaper notoriety—I will let him know, and Mr. Bruns thinks I was afraid to personally hear, from people here, that which I would not like. I may have done some things in my life that I might not feel proud of, but the authorship of "Good Roads," or anything I ever wrote for publication, I am not afraid or ashamed to acknowledge. They have not tried to impeach the truthfulness of my assertion, that there was no political pull, no purchase or sell out by anyone in the appointment of J. H. Revenue as road supervisor. The difference between them and myself is that they do not think Revenue has done much volunteer road work, but on several occasions Mr. Revenue and myself have done volunteer work on the roads, though of course Crisale and Bruns did not know this for they were not there. The principal difference between Messrs. Crisale and Bruns and myself is that they feel hostile toward Revenue and I do not. I believe the Court has shown good sense in appointing such men as Currin, of Currinville, John Lewellyn, of Springwater, John Everhart and John Daily, of Molalla, and J. H. Revenue, of Sandy, as road supervisors. It proves to me that our county court is not hidebound in politics but is desirous of bettering the condition of our roads.

HENRY MCGUGIN.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicate an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine strains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet sent free by mail. Mention The Enterprise and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Easy.

Cazabon of the Marseilles theater relates that he learned in two hours and played the same evening the part of Buridan in "La Tour de Nesle." "Prodigious!" says a bystander. "How could you ever do it?" "Ho, I just read it carefully and then I tied a knot in my handkerchief to remember it by."—Paris Figaro.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

It is impossible to promise particular features that will appear in the "AMERICAN MONTHLY" during the coming year, for it is, as the Bookman says, "a great monthly newspaper." As such, it prints for its readers an illustrated account of the notable things which make the history of the month, of the political, the economic, and literary happenings which are of value to intelligent men and women. The Editor's "Progress of the World" tells succinctly an illustrated story of the month. The "Leading Articles" give the best thought and information of the current magazines in five continents; the contributed articles furnish the character sketches of the man of the month, and give timely discussions by authorities on any question of immediate serious import.

The result of this comprehensive effort to edit in one monthly volume the information needed by intelligent people of "live" instincts is best gauged in the opinions which the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY have seen fit to express. These are thinking business men, clergymen, editors, lawyers, professors, engineers, the wide-awake women of America. They write that the AMERICAN MONTHLY "is indispensable"; "is simply invaluable"; "is a generous library in itself"; "is a historical cyclopedia of the world"; "the best means of aid for a busy man"; "the best periodical of the kind we have ever had"; "a triumph of editorial genius"; "the world under a field-glass," etc., etc.
