Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. Geo. A. Harding.

A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. Geo. A. Harding.

The women of Seattle have instituted a Society of Klondike Widows. The lists are exclusive, being restricted to those whose claims to "Klondike widowhood" are indisputable. Only the wives and sweethearts of men off to the gold fields are eligible and no others need apply.

After years of unkind suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell, of Knitersville, Pa., was cured by using a single box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. Geo. A. Harding.

George F. Horton has forwarded his official bond as postmaster in Oregon City, for approval by the Judge of the United States district court. The bond is for $8,000 with four sureties. Mr. Horton expects to have things in shape to take charge of the office about March 1.

A Kansas editor, writing of a cyclone, said it turned a well inside out, a cellar upside down, moved a township line, blew all the staves out of a whisky barrel and left nothing but the bung hole, changed the day of the week, blew the hair off a baldheaded man, blew mortgages off farms, blew the cracks out of a fence and took all the wind out of a politician.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Nelson fell from the platform of the East Side railway at Gladstone and fractured her left thigh. There are no electric lights at that point and the night was very dark. When she stepped off the car, being somewhat blinded from the effects of the lights in the car, walked off the platform falling a distance of several feet.

Chas. A. Tongue, of the "Zenith City of the Unsalted Seas," and chairman of the national silver forces, who is coming to Oregon to try and unite the badly demoralized advocates of 16 to 1, will make four speeches in Oregon from March 5th to the 10th, inclusive. He will make his debut in Oregon in Ashland on the 5th of March, coming in over the S. P. through California, Salem on the 7th, Portland on the 8th and Baker City on the 10th.

We are sorry to leave out a part of our Shubel correspondence this week on account of the writer's name not accompanying the same, the matter referred to being of a personal nature although no names here mentioned in connection therewith. Correspondents should sign their names to their communications, not necessarily for publication but that we may know from whom it comes. Matter of an offensive personal nature should be published over the author's own signature.

GIVEN A RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams Receive the Good Will of Friends.

It has been known for some time that Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams expected soon to take their departure from Oregon City and to take up their home in another state. Last Wednesday about 200 or more of their friends gathered at Willamette hall to tender them a hearty farewell and to express their good will in no uncertain manner. The business and social elements were represented to testify to the high esteem in which residents of more than eight years were held by those with whom they came in daily contact.

The early part of the evening was largely spent in social chat interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections by a number of ladies and gentlemen while others engaged in different parlor games. About 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Williams, with the members of the reception committee, were ushered to a position in front of the rostrum, where, on behalf of their friends Mr. Franklin T. Griffith presented the honored couple with an elegantly framed picture of Mount Hood in the following well selected words:

"My Friends: We are here tonight for the purpose of testifying, by our presence, in slight degree, to the esteem in which we hold those in honor of whom we have gathered. At such a time it is fitting that we say to them, and in so saying I believe I express the sentiments, not only of all those within the sound of my voice, but also of all those within the confines of our city, whose privilege and pleasure it has been, during the years our departing friends have resided here, so well and favorably to know them, the husband as a man of unimpeachable honor and integrity, business associate, friend and company; the wife, most estimable lady, as one of the brightest jewels in our social firmament, that they go not hence to be forgotten, but on the contrary we part from them with deepest regret and reluctance most sincere and we wish the land to which they go may be for them full of sunshine, milk and honey.

"I have been selected tonight to perform a duty that is to me at once a source of pleasure and regret; to present to the friends about to leave us some slight token of our high regard, not for its intrinsic value, but to remind them that they are leaving in this northwest corner of the country, this place that was so long called the jump-off of all civilization, some friends who have reserved for them a place in their minds, if not in their hearts.

"And now, my dear sir and madam, it becomes my pleasurable duty to present to you this likeness of that grand old sentinel, placed by the Almighty to guard over the destinies of the people of Oregon and to express to you our wish that your heads may be as white as the mantle of this old mountain 'ere good fortune ceases to smile upon you."

Mrs. Williams thanked her friends briefly for the good will offering but Mr. Williams was "speechless." Words were not available in which to express their thoughts, and the friends again gathered around to once more grasp the hands of those whose hospitality and good fellowship they had enjoyed for all these years.

At this point light refreshments were served followed by dancing and other pleasurable festivities during the remainder of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams expect to leave for Denison, Texas, next Wednesday where they resided prior to coming to Oregon City, taking with them, we believe, the good will and esteem of all who had the pleasure of their acquaintance.

Birthday Party.

One of the most delightful parties ever enjoyed by the young people of Oregon City, was that given in honor of Miss Ira Harrington's eighteenth birthday, at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. E. F. Storey corner of Ninth and Taylor streets Saturday evening, February 12th. The parlors were beautifully decorated with evergreens and house plants.

A number of beautiful presents were received. Games and other amusements were the order of the evening. One game in which all were very much interested, was given pinning the nose on a man. A prize was given to the one who succeeded in pinning the nose in the right place. Miss Ira Harrington was the successful winner. The prize was a beautiful bouquet of LaFrance roses.

After some time had been devoted to games, a lunch of delicacies was served of which all heartily partook. The bill of fare consisted of delicious ham sandwiches, many varieties of cake, oranges, bananas, and abundance of refreshing lemonade. After playing "Good Night," the best wishes of all were bestowed upon the young hostess and thanking Mr. and Mrs. Storey for their kindness, the company departed. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Storey; Misses Ira Harrington, Eva Moehne, Lorena Lazelle, Emma Allison, Bessie Wood, Gussie Maddock, Maude Noble, Bertha Scott, Clara Holstrom, Octavia Herman, Rachel Thomas; Messrs. Rea Norris, Samuel Stevens, John C. Knop, Harry L. Shaner, Charlie Blumh, Thomas Meyers, George Harrington and Fred Armstrong of Portland.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

Resolutions of Condolence.

On the evening of February 11th, 1898, at a regular meeting of the Canemah Literary society, the following resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote of the society:

Whereas, it has pleased God in his wisdom and in effecting his purposes, too far superior to human conception and knowledge to be understood by man, to remove from our midst and from their loved ones four respected citizens of this community, two of whom were fathers of fellow members and one lately president of this society, and

Whereas the manner of their death and its time and suddenness have rendered more nearly unbearable the realization of their removal forever from those they loved and for whom they diligently strove,

Resolved that the members of this society sincerely condole with, and express the deepest sympathy for, the women and children whose dear ones were so unexpectedly and, as to some of us it seems, cruelly torn from their homes and accustomed places, and

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be given to each of the bereaved women and families, and that they be spread upon the minutes of the society.

Married.

McCord-McCord.—Mr. Walter A. McCord, of Haron county, Ohio, and Miss Stella A. McCord of Mt. Pleasant were married Monday February 14, at the Presbyterian parsonage, by the Rev. A. J. Montgomery.

STRANGE.—On February 10th, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Strange.

From Extreme Nervousness.

WHAT no one remedy can contain the elements necessary to cure all diseases, is a fact well known to everyone. Dr. Miles' System of Restorative Remedies consists of seven distinctively different preparations, each for its own purpose.

Mrs. L. C. Branley, 37 Henry St., St. Catharines, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in my left side, palpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills and the Anti-Pain Pills to relieve sudden paroxysms of pain and headache. I soon felt much improved and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and am now restored to my former good health."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
