A Spectacular and Musical Extravaganza by Homo Talent.

Forty Ladies in Oriental Costumes Will Participate and Make the Affair a Leading Society Event.

"An Oriental Fete" is a new, novel and original entertainment, of a spectacular musical character produced as a stage performance.

Some of the leading ladies of Oregon City have engaged Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell, of Chicago, who are prepared with special scenery, costumes and paraphernalia, to come here and work up this entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.

A chaperone and invitation committee has been appointed to invite 40 of our popular society young ladies and a few gentlemen to take part, forming a cast of 16 Turkish Princesses, 12 Grecian Goddesses, 12 Persian Girls, the Great "Sultan," His Prime Minister and Royal Body Guard, Court Comedians, etc.

The "An Oriental Fete" is a high-class refined, artistic and intensely interesting and fascinating performance, bright, sparkling and brilliant, given on a large and very elaborate scale of magnificence. Good songs, with chorus work by 50 voices, fancyisms, and witticisms by the Court Comedians, a series of elegant living pictures, the stately Delarte drill by the Grecian Goddesses, the fancy drill by the Persian Girls, the "News boy's Chorus" from Opera "1492," and the Amazon grand march by the 40 ladies, calcium light effects and orchestra music, all arranged and handled in professional style, to be given at Shively's Opera House about April 26th, 1897.

Suicide at Borings. Henry Perrett, of Borings, aged 37 years, disappeared from his home Tuesday and was found about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning not more than 150 yards from his home lying with his head in a creek, dead. Coroner Sommer and Deputy District Attorney Dimick were summoned, but no inquest was held as everything pointed to suicide. The man had cut his wrists in order to bleed to death and had then placed himself so that his head would be under water. The reason assigned is that he had gone mad, his wife being dangerously ill with pneumonia. He is survived by his wife and four children.

LaGrippe, Followed by Heart Disease, Cured by DR. MILES' HEART CURE.

M. R. C. SHULTS, of Winterset, Iowa, inventor and manufacturer of Shults' Safety Whiffletree Coupling, writes of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "Two years ago an attack of LaGrippe left me with a weak heart. I had run down in flesh to mere skin and bone. I could not sleep lying down for smothering spells; frequent sharp darting pains and palpitation caused a constant fear of sudden death, nothing could induce me to remain away from home over night. My local physician prescribed Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a few days I was able to sleep well and the pains gradually lessened, and finally ceased. I reduced the doses, having gained fifteen pounds, and am now feeling better in every way than I have for years."
