Think or Starve!!

That is the alternative now-a-days. If you pay out too much money thoughtlessly, you will soon have none left to pay. It would be money in your pocket to give a little thought to what we are offering. Investigate and see how remarkably low our prices are on Wall Paper. We sell a double roll for 7c, but 10c will buy a better, more serviceable paper.

RIOTING IN SPAIN

Internal Dissensions Claiming Attention of Government.

Indications That the Present Ministry Will Be Compelled to Resign and Weyer Will Take Charge.

BAYONNE, France, May 13.—Blood is flowing and men and women are lying dead in the streets of Linares tonight. The torch, knife and rifle are the weapons of mobs that are marching in half the cities of Spain.
Martial law is proclaimed in almost every great city. Civil guards are useless and sympathize with the people. Even soldiers cannot be trusted. This is especially true of Madrid. The soldiers there are only restrained from leading the riot, which has become seriously near to a rebellion, by being kept in their barracks.

Linares, 23 miles from Jaen, was the center of the disturbance today. Brenes, near Seville, is in the hands of an angry, bloodthirsty mob. Catiz, Alicante and Barcelona follow with menacing crowds, tearing down shops for bread, and yielding only to bayonets and machine guns. "Death to the thieves in office" is the cry of a marching mob at Martos.

At Linares a mob attacked the city hall.
A giant pile in the hands of a hundred stalwart men smashed the doors. The crowd swarmed in. The woodwork and furniture was piled in the court yard and fired.

Civil guards charged the mob packed densely in the corridors. The mob fought desperately and the civil guards fired repeatedly.

Some of the rioters, armed, returned the fire. Twelve men were killed and fifty wounded. The wounded lay groaning and shrieking in agony in the street, while the soldiers drove the mob from the city hall at the point of the bayonet and fired at the fleeing rioters. There was no time to pick up the dead or the wounded, for the troops kept up such a fusillade that none dared venture into the streets. The commander sent to Jaen for reinforcements. Later the mob reorganized in a quiet street and procured arms and ammunition. Then, with shouts of "Down with taxes!" they rushed up the city hall stairs, fired upon the civil guards inside and drove them out. How many were killed in this attack is not yet known.

The mob marched to the house of the tax collector, who fled after a brief resistance.
His house was sacked. The mob stole 2000 pesetas and a box of jewelry. Then it fired the house.

News from Brenes is meagre, but it is known the village priest, who tried to calm the turbulence, was stoned to death.

Martial law has been proclaimed in the provinces of Albacete and Jaen, while the province of Catalonia and the city of Barcelona have been formally declared in a state of siege. Lieutenant-General Daban is disgusted with the difficulty of his position as captain-general of Madrid and is expected to resign.

Trouble at Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Matters in Porto Rico are growing daily more serious.
Refugees who have reached here from the Spanish island say that great distress prevails there.

As no news is given out on the island, the residents of Porto Rico implore their friends here to keep them posted upon current events. The Spanish government stops all code messages and communication of any kind is most difficult.

It is said the annexationists are growing daily in numbers, and the revolutionary party of Porto Rico is awaiting the arrival of the first American troops or the blockading of the ports to rise against the Spanish government.

Military activity at San Juan de Porto Rico and at other places continues unabated.
Volunteers are being armed in large numbers, and it is believed arms have been given to some 30,000 men, in many cases falling into the hands of the revolutionists, who are only awaiting the signal to commence active operations against the Spanish troops.

Value of the Philippines.

CHICAGO, May 13.—A special to the Times-Herald from Washington says:

The representatives of the foreign governments are taking an intense interest in the serious conflict between the United States and Spain. They are especially concerned at present in the fate of the Philippines, and are discussing the possibility of interference by the powers. The consensus of opinion seems to be that if the United States concludes to retain possession of the conquered islands of the Pacific, the European powers will have no cause to interfere.

"It may surprise some Americans to know that Dewey's victory carries with it spoils of war probably larger than was ever decided by the issue of one battle. The future value and influence of this conquest is almost incalculable.

Studying the situation as it exists, we must assume that, with the fall of the Philippines, the United States acquires almost the right of disposal of the destiny of more than 9,000,000 people.

Drifting Toward Carlism.

LONDON, May 13.—The Earl of Ashburn-ham, who admits that he is the representative of Don Carlos in England, says in the course of an interview:

"The issue of the war so far concerns the present occupant of the throne, which is already lost. In a very short time either Don Carlos will be seated upon the throne, or a republic will be proclaimed. It is difficult to say which. The Spanish people are for the most part either Carlists or Republicans. The former are stronger in the rural districts and the latter in the large towns. The numbers are about equal.

The Carlists have the advantage of being perfectly organized, disciplined and united under one leader, whereas the Republicans are divided among themselves, and, moreover, are discredited by the outrages committed by the extreme or anarchist wing of the party.

"Besides, the mere fact of America being a republic would at present not dispose the Spaniards towards Republican institutions.
But everything in Spain depends upon the army. The present dynasty was re-established by a military pronouncement, and will probably end in the same way."

Ignored Court's Order.

SALEM, Ore., May 10.—Secretary of State Kincaid ignored the mandate of the circuit court in reference to the middle-of-the-road Populists in certifying the list of candidates to the various county clerks. The order of the court required the secretary to place the middle-of-the-roaders on the ballot as "people's party" candidates, in accordance with the credentials filed by the officers of the middle-of-the-road convention. Secretary Kincaid appealed from the decision of the lower court, but the appeal has not been perfected. The attorney for the middle-of-the-road candidates has been notified that the secretary will justify his bond on undertaking to the appeal at Dallas tomorrow.

In the meantime, middle-of-the-road candidates have filed as "regular people's party" candidates, by petition, and the secretary has made up the form of the official ballot. On the ballot he has used the designation "regular people's party," as used in the petition, instead of "people's party," as directed by the court. The statutory time for certifying to candidates for state offices expires today. If the case is carried up and a decision should be rendered by the supreme court affirming the lower court, there is room for speculation as to just where the secretary would be "at."

Oregon Crops.

PORTLAND, May 13.—There is no record in Oregon of a failure of crops. From all parts of the state come reports of bright promises for the grain, hay, fruit, hop and vegetable crops. Some sections—Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties, west of the Cascades, and all the counties to the east of them, especially the stock counties —report that the continuation of the dry weather for a much longer period will be detrimental to crops. The barometric conditions peculiar to the winter season continue to prevail and it is almost absolutely certain that rain will fall, that it will be copious and general before the summer or dry season really sets in. Past records show that when March and April have been dry, or comparatively so, May and June have had generous showers, and such may be expected this year; so that for several weeks more there need be no fear of a drouth or injury to crops.

Fighting to be Forced.

NEW YORK, May 13.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Aggressive action along the whole line describes the attitude of the administration, according to the policy now definitely adopted, growing directly out of Admiral Dewey's unparalleled achievement in Asiatic waters. Any hope that existed that Spain, after a crushing blow, would recognize the futility of senselessly resisting the inevitable, has at last been abandoned. The president has determined that the fighting shall be vigorously forced with the full power of the United States in order most speedily to terminate the conflict by the destruction of the last vestiges of authority exercised by the Madrid government beyond the shores of the Spanish peninsula itself.

Corbett and Fitzsimmons.

BOSTON, Mass., May 13.—Bob Fitzsimmons has announced his acceptance of the offer of Kid McCoy to pay the champion $10,000 for a fight at middle-weight; also his acceptance of the offer of Corbett of $25,- 000 for an opportunity to regain the heavyweight championship. Fitzsimmons will meet either man before the club offering the largest purse, but he will insist on a side bet of $10,000 in each case, and both matches must take place before the last of September this year.

Jim Corbett says he will meet Fitzsimmons and sign for a fight on the terms proposed. Nothing has been heard from Kid McCoy.

Guarding Against Treachery.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—All the reservoirs and exposed properties of the Spring Valley waterworks, which supply San Francisco with water, are guarded against treachery from a foreign foe by an armed patrol, which watches day and night. It is feared that attempts may be made to blow up reservoirs with dynamite and then set fire to the city.

CHICAGO, May 14.—A special to the Tribune from Tampa says that the party of three correspondents who, in company with Major Smith, of Gomez' body-guard, started some time since to interview Gomez has been captured by the Spaniards and beheaded. No mention is made of the fate of the other members of the party, and this story has not yet been confirmed.

SPANISH COWARDS

The Flying Squadron Have Returned Home.

They Are Afraid to Meet Sampson in American Waters and Refuse to Engage in Battle.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Advises were received late this afternoon by both the state and navy departments that the Spanish flying squadron of four cruisers and three torpedo boat destroyers had arrived at Cadiz, Spain. This is the fleet that sailed from the Cape Verde islands nearly two weeks ago. It is hard to tell whether the naval officers were relieved or disappointed by the news. The safety from attack is now completely assured, and the way is clear for military operations in Cuba, without running the risk of having the occupying army's line of communication cut off.

On the other hand, it is believed that no enduring peace can be secured until the Spanish navy has been destroyed, and it now appears that the sailors and soldiers must make up their minds to go after the Spanish, a task very much more difficult than that of meeting them near our own shores. It was suggested by some of the members of the navy department that there was just a possibility that the Spanish squadron might take a quick passage into the Pacific through the Suez canal and attack Dewey at Manila. It is said that, contrary to common understanding, the Suez canal is open to warships of belligerent powers, so that if the Spanish choose to take this course they would have a long start of any pursuing fleet from our side of the Atlantic.

It is scarcely believed, however, that the Spanish are willing to take the risk of exposing to our attack their own home ports by the withdrawal of so considerable a proportion of their naval strength as would be required to overmatch Dewey.

Nothing was heard from Sampson today, but there is a confident expectation that interesting news will be coming from his squadron within the next twenty-four hours. Whether this means an attack on Porto Rico or no cannot be learned.
The return of the Spanish fleet leaves the course free to the Oregon to make a juncture with the North Atlantic squadron.

Spanish Treachery.

HONO KONO, May 10.—A fresh example of Spanish treachery seems to have come to light. It is said here that priests and sisters of charity of Cavite Hospital in a procession, bearing crosses, etc., petitioned Admiral Dewey not to massacre the sick and wounded, which naturally he did not do. The Spaniards, it is asserted, thereupon thereupon thanked the Americans for their humanity, and repaid them by informing them of a narrow channel, which they said was not mined, while the broad channel, they explained, was fully mined. Investigation on the part of the Americans revealed the contrary to be the case, and the mines were blown up by the sailors of the American fleet.

It is asserted here that Admiral Dewey finds the insurgents at the Philippines growing dangerous. He cannot control them, nor can he enable the Spaniards to do so. Massacres are said to have occurred outside Manila, the insurgents killing Spanish women and children.

There is one Japanese warship at Manila.

To Aid Cubans.

TAMPA, Fla., May 13.—The United States has begun the work of arming and equipping patriots in Cuba.

An expedition will leave Port Tampa in the morning on board the transport Gussie.
It will be in command of Captain Dorst of the Fourth cavalry, and will carry 7,000 rifles and 200,000 rounds of ammunition to the Cubans, besides rations. Two companies of the First Infantry will go along as guards.

Dorst is the man who successfully landed in Cuba near Havana last week and delivered to Colonel Delgado, of the insurgent forces, rifles and a large amount of ammunition.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groten, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Charman & Co.'s Drug Store.
Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.
