A FALL FROM GRACE

An Interesting Letter from a Populist Brother on the Fusion Ticket.

In the following letter is one written by Charles A. Fitch, editor of the Herald, written one year ago, which will be interesting reading matter to the Democrats of Clackamas county: ALBANY, Or., April 2.—(To the Editor.)—The fusionists have met and placed before the voters of this state a ticket composed of men who are almost entire strangers to the average citizen. From now on until June, stump speakers and penny-a-liners will be introducing these several gentlemen to the public. Allow me, as a straight Populist, to say a few words regarding Mr. Charles A. Fitch, of Oregon City, the fusion candidate for state printer. Until a very few weeks ago, Mr. Fitch was a thoroughbred Populist, standing firm on people's party principles and fighting bravely the trades combination of the unscrupulous machine. But alas! Penneyer went to Oregon City, or at least Penneyer's "ideas" inoculated the Falls City air, and Fitch fell from the straight path he had so long traveled. Not that I question his right to change his views on any subject, for 'tis said, "Wise men change, but fools never," but the manner in which he brings forth his objections. If Mr. Fitch desired to turn Democrat, Fusionist, or what not, he is only exercising his right as an American citizen, but I deny that he is privileged to juggle with the destiny of more than one party at a time. I repeat, if Mr. Fitch desired to join the Democratic party—hate it as he did—it was his privilege. And I know he hated the Democratic party only a few months ago, though today he stands as its candidate for state printer. The following letter which he wrote to me before the "office bee" stung him, proves that he then despised monopolies, even office-seeking ones. Here is the letter: OREGON CITY, June 3, 1897.—J. A. FINCH: Dear Sir:—You will see by my issue of this week that I am not in sympathy with the Republican Aid society, organized in your city yesterday. I feel sure it will cut a very small swath in this county. Will you do me the favor to at once give me all of the information you have acquired regarding it. Let me admonish you also to not deal too much in personalities or bitter controversy in your just fight against a pretended Populist—the editor of the Imprint—stick to the text—the principles—and display as little vindictiveness as possible. At best we shall lose some of our best forces by this new deal of Cooper's. Let us have as little warfare as possible in our own ranks. These are times for patriotic devotion to principle. Democracy may fool the people once more on the popular belief in binetualism. We may not be able to avert the result—revolution—but so help me God, I will never consent to become a party to the crime of delivering my following to the Democrats. I am poor, but I will be a—sight poorer before I betray an honest but politically ignorant people. Yours for durin' the war, CHARLES A. FITCH.

I will let the reader draw his own conclusions and will conclude by asking a few questions. Was Mr. Fitch in earnest in June, 1897, and until a few weeks ago? What caused this sudden change of base by one who had labored so hard to build up the People's party? Was it the promise of office? Who can tell? J. A. FINCH. For the benefit of Mr. Finch, it has been suggested that Fitch and U'Ren are weaving the silver blanket for the purpose of fattening themselves at the government crib. Just how the Populists will enjoy the last clause of the letter wherein Fitch says: I am poor, but I will be a—sight poorer before I betray an honest but politically ignorant PEOPLE. It may transpire on June 6th that the Populists are not as politically ignorant people as Fitch says they are. We shall see.

Then and Now.

The following is a letter written by U'Ren on January 10th this year. We publish it for the benefit of the Clackamas county Democrats. BAKER CITY, Or., Jan. 10, 1898. Mr. J. Suter, Eagle Creek, Or: Dear Friend—Will you kindly collect the evidence of Democratic perfidy on fusions in Kansas and Nebraska and attend our state committee meetings and have them with you in Portland on the 19th. This is important, and I hope you will be there without fail. There is no fusion sentiment here to be worth talking about. The Demos in Union county tried to fuse with the Reps. to destroy the hated Populists. Yours truly, W. S. U'REN.

Cantata.

The Cantata "David, the Shepherd-boy" will be rendered in the Methodist church Friday evening, May 20. The Cantata will be under the direction of Professor Heritage, director of the Conservatory of Willamette University. Some of the best singers in Portland will take part. All Odd Fellows should see the scene of David and Jonathan represented by Professor Heritage and Mr. Haines. It will no doubt be the greatest musical event of the season.

School Money.

County School Superintendent Starkweather is sending out orders to the clerks of the various school districts for the first apportionment of the county school fund for the year. This is the $50 general appropriation for each district, and another apportionment will be made later, when more taxes are paid in, making two more allotments of school money for the present year. Aside from the $50 appropriation, the county fund will bring in a little more than $3 per capita for each child of school age in Clackamas county.

The Hop Crop.

Hopmen in Clackamas county complain of the unevenness of their hopvines, some having reached the tops of the poles, while others are just coming up. In some yards vines are arming out when only half way up the poles. In yards where mold and lice prevented picking, few hills came up. The prevalence of lice and the unevenness of the vines has discouraged many growers to such an extent that yards will be plowed up. There is a big stock of old hops on hand, for which there is no demand.

UNCLE EZEKIEL OBEAR, assessor and tax collector, Beverly, Mass., who has passed the 80th life mile stone, says: "Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve has done a great deal of good. I suffered for years from sleeplessness and nervous heart trouble. Would feel weary and used up in the morning, had no ambition and my work seemed a burden. A friend recommended Dr. Miles' Nerve, and I purchased a bottle under protest as I had tried so many remedies unsuccessfully. I thought it no use. But it gave me restful sleep, a good appetite and restored me to energetic health. It is a grand good medicine, and I will gladly write anyone inquiring, full particulars of my satisfactory experience."
