If anyone offers you Linseed Oil or White Lead at less than the market price, don't buy it. Nothing is more easily adulterated than lead and oil—the one with whitening and the other with fish oil. You have noticed how the color in some houses fades and peels off in a year or two. For a dollar or two more that house could have been made to last four years instead of two. The trouble all comes from saving (?) 3 cents a gallon on Linseed Oil and 1/4 cent on White Lead. We are selling Lead and Oil—pure Lead and Oil, too—at Portland prices, and if anyone offers it to you cheaper the chances are the quality is cheaper, too. For the past seven years we have been selling Masury's Liquid Colors, and they have given universal satisfaction. It is without question the best mixed paint on the market. Masury will not use Linseed Oil in his paint without it is at least two years old, and old Linseed Oil is like old whiskey. This year we have also Bay State Mixed Paint, at $1.35 per gallon, which is guaranteed to us, and we guarantee it to you. Try it—at the manufacturer's risk. We have everything you need for painting—Brushes, Carriage Paint, Bicycle Paint, Bathub Enamel, Varnish, Stains and Colors in oil. Come in and get our prices. C. G. HUNTLEY, Popular Price Druggist.
