

PERSONALS.

Raleigh Woods and family have gone to Nehalem, Or. Miss Ora Spangler left for her home in Corvallis Thursday. Mrs. J. B. Bellwood of Portland, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Miss Lucy Williams, of Salem, is the guest of Miss Greta Strickler. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gill, of Portland, were in this city during the week. Miss Nettie Walden visited Miss Ford, of Portland, a few days last week. Hugh Smythe, of Boston, Mass., is visiting his brother Sidney Smythe. Mrs. George Broughton and children visited Salem relatives during the week. Rev. L. M. Ideman has been temporarily called to occupy the pulpit at the St. Paul's church. Ernest Graham, son of A. B. Graham, of Portland, was visiting relatives in this city Sunday. Rev. H. Oberg is in Salem attending the commencement exercises of the Willamette University. T. F. Ryan was elected Associate Grand Patron of the Eastern Star at Portland this week. Miss Kate Ward is quite ill at the residence of her aunt Mrs. C. D. Latourette, with an attack of malaria. Miss Metta Finley went up to Salem the first of the week, and will visit friends there for a few days. Mrs. T. A. McBride, of Astoria, was in this city Wednesday and Thursday, the guest of Mrs. B. Charman. Miss Olive Luelling has been elected to the third grade in the Barclay school in place of Miss Nefzger, who resigned. Mrs. Jane Hayne, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. T. A. Pope. Mrs. Hayne expects to leave for Alaska in a few days. Quite a number of music loving people of this city attended the Ysaya concert given at the Marquam last Friday evening. S. H. Kennedy and wife, of Netarts, Or., who have been the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Anne, left for their home Thursday. Miss Blanch Harpstein, of Mill's Seminary Cal., was the guest of E. Sadie White, Sunday. Miss Harpstein was on her way to Rossland, B. C. Mrs. George Brownell returned from Forest Grove Monday where she had been visiting her son, Howard, who is a student at the university at that place.

Gilbert Leslie, of Washington, D. C., who has been the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Geo. Herro, has gone to Alaska where he will remain during the summer. Rev. Rugg, D. C. Latourette and Ralph Knapp, of this city, attended the closing exercises of the McMinnville college, which took place Wednesday evening. Miss Amy Kelly, who has been in charge of the Postal Telegraph Co., has resigned her position and Charles Humphrey has taken charge. Mr. Humphrey was operator in a Portland office for two years. Mrs. H. Z. Burghardt, of San Francisco, arrived in Oregon City Wednesday and left Thursday for Halsey, Idaho, her former home, where she will visit for a few months. Mrs. Burghardt formerly lived in this city. On Wednesday Fred C. Charman returned from the Agricultural College, which he had been attending for the past year. The commencement exercises at the college take place next week and Misses Holden and Miss Lyle Lawrence will return after this takes place. F. D. Carroll was adjudged insane on Tuesday and taken to the asylum at Salem the same evening. Mr. Carroll has been a resident of this city for about a year, having come from New York, where he has relatives residing. His insanity is caused by excessive drinking. G. B. Dimick has been appointed deputy district attorney by Mr. Cleaton. Mr. Dimick took an active part in the campaign visiting nearly every precinct. His work on the canvas was efficient and at the same time he made friends for himself. The entire ticket as well as his other friends are glad to see that his ability and faithfulness to his party have been recognized. Miles Johnson, of Butte Mont., passed through this city Wednesday afternoon on his way to Portland, where he will visit for a week with his brother, Thurston. Mr. Johnson, who is now a doctor of Butte, and having a large practice, spent his boyhood days in this city and has many friends here. The family of Rev. W. D. Williams left for New York City Tuesday afternoon, where they will be ministering to the Rev. Williams being a rector in one of the churches of that place. While here Mr. Williams and family made a host of friends who sincerely regret their lines are not just with us. In another column we publish an interesting letter from his new post.

The Determined Woman Wanted Him to Find Her Nephew. She had a look of determination in her face as she stood on the corner of Main and Court streets in Auburn and signaled for an electric car. The car stopped and the woman advanced to the steps. "Where do you go?" said she. "Figure 8," said the conductor. "Eh!" "Figure 8." "Ate what?" said she. "Who said anything about eatin? Do you go past my nephew James Strout's house?" "Dunno," said the conductor. "All aboard." "You hol' on, young man," said the woman. "Don't you get excited. Don't you know Jim Strout? He lives on Rural avenue, and he's expectin me today." "We go College street," said the conductor. In the meantime the motorman was stamping on the gong and passengers were getting interested. "All aboard," was the courteous suggestion of the conductor. "If you are going with me, madam, get aboard. We don't keep a directory and we don't sell stamps, and I am not acquainted with James Strout of Rural avenue, but if you want to ride around the figure 8, all aboard." "Well, I never!" said the woman. "Well, young man, there's one thing you kin do. You can hold your horses till I get my gripsack." And they did, and the conductor helped her aboard with it, and on College street, near Skinner, she saw a family in a team, and she gave a yell that shut off the electricity quicker than a cat catches a rat. It was her nephew. Such are the tender ministrations of fate that watch over resolute women.—Lawiston Journal.

Thieves Sentenced. Scott, Johnson and May were sentenced by Judge McBride on Saturday, to 2 1/2 years in the penitentiary, they having been indicted by a special grand jury. These parties stole about $75 worth of bacon from Dan Fellow's place at Highland, a lot of merchandise from Mr. Butala's store at Mt. Angel, robbed Ely Bros.' store in this city, stole various articles from L. Hornschuh at Beaver Creek and some tools from G. W. Force, of Molalla. Chief of Police Burns says that he has at least half a dozen charges that these men could be convicted on. They are supposed to have caught away some of the stolen goods while they confessed to have burned some taken from Ely's. Letter List.
