About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. PARKPLACE SCHOOL PARTY.

Reception Tendered to the Graduates of the Past Three Years.

On Saturday evening Professor and Mrs. Gray tendered a delightful reception to all graduates of the Parkplace school since 1895. The spacious parlors of Prof. Gray's residence were beautifully decorated with an assortment of flowers and ferns. The front parlor, which was reserved for the class of '98, was decorated with special care and presented a most artistic appearance. The wall was trimmed with a rare variety of sweet brier, and on the center table a quantity of class flowers—the marguerites—were thickly strewn. Between the folding doors Old Glory hung, decked with a myriad fragrant rose buds. In the adjoining room, which was set apart for the class of '97, an elegant variety of sweet peas and woodlark fern were in evidence, the sweet pea being the class flower.

A large parlor on the west received its portion of the extensive decorations chiefly in an endless variety of roses. This very tastefully decorated room was in honor of the old graduates of '95. The flowers of this class were red and white roses, and these, made into large bouquets, added much to the beautiful effect.

When the students had assembled, they listened to the following program, which was well rendered in all its parts: Address to Incoming Class...Dollie Cross Response...Florence Patty Class of '97 Song...Class of '97 Address...William Beach Instrumental Solo...Fred Smith Address...J. Garrow Vocal Solo...Mrs. J. W. Gray Address...W. Garrow Poem...Mary Huertch Class of '98 Song...Class of '98 Class History...Carl Butts Address...Capt. Apperson Impersonation...Charles Galloway After the program the company enjoyed a delicious luncheon of choice fruit, cake and candies. At a late hour they took their departure, declaring that the evening's entertainment was perfect in every detail. The following composed the party:

In closing, in behalf of the class, she thanked the people of Corvallis for consideration and kindly treatment during four years of life at the O. A. C.; she expressed gratitude to the board of regents for the splendid opportunities afforded for securing an education, and the faculty for patient and able efforts expended in imparting knowledge. She bade a feeling adieu to all and elicited hearty applause for her effort." "The presentation of the diplomas was made by Hon. J. T. Apperson, president of the board of regents. This fine old man whose rugged honesty stands out in every fibre of his being seized the occasion to make a few remarks to the class and as 27 stood before him and listened attentively to his solemn words of simple advice the scene was impressive."

"Saved Her Life."

Mrs. JOHN WALLET, of Jefferson, Wis., than whom none is more highly esteemed or widely known, writes. "In 1890 I had a severe attack of LaGrippe and at the end of four months, in spite of all physicians, friends and good nursing could do, my lungs heart and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all."
