Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at Charman & Co's. drug store.

To the Teachers of Clackamas County.

I take pleasure in announcing to you that the annual teachers' institute for 1898, Clackamas county, will be held at Oregon City in the Barclay school building, commencing Monday, August 29, at 9 o'clock, a. m. and closing Friday September 2nd. The instructors will be Prof. J. H. Ackerman and W. A. Wetzel. Profs. F. Rigler and C. W. Durette are expected to address the institute on educational subjects. Mrs. J. H. Strickler, of Oregon City, will furnish vocal music at each afternoon session.

Instruction will be given in the best methods of teaching all the common branches. The prompt and regular attendance of all the teachers of the county is expected. Your attention is respectfully called to the school laws of Oregon, which require all teachers holding state papers, as well as those holding county papers, to attend institutes under penalty of having their certificates revoked for failure to do so without cause. The hearty co-operation of our teachers is needed to make this an institute of interest and profit.

We hope that you will enroll the first day and be present at each session.

Yours truly, H. S. STRANGE, Superintendent of Schools, Clackamas County.

An Enjoyable Day.

Several of Miss Vesta Broughton's friends spent a very pleasant day at her home on the Clackamas last week. Out door games and delicious refreshments engaged their attention and all declared that the occasion was one long to be remembered.

A Good Time.

Everybody enjoyed a splendid time last Wednesday evening at the social, given by the young people of the Presbyterian church, at the residence of Fred Myers, on Seventh street. The lawn was brilliantly lighted with fifty Japanese lanterns, hung from the limbs of the trees and the dozen tables, covered with their spotless linen and delicious ice cream and surrounded by a happy assembly of young people, made it a scene of no little beauty. All who appreciate a good time and real ice cream should patronize the social entertainments given by these buoy workers of the Presbyterian church.

Street Superintendent Snidow worked all day Sunday on the bridge on Washington and 12th streets, putting on new mud sills and stronger braces. Last week he was actively engaged on Jefferson street, filling up its numerous holes and putting it in a much improved condition.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. BOGGS, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by Geo. A. Are You Disappointed?

Sometimes people are disappointed with the photographs they get. Perhaps they had expected we would shorten up the nose or take a kink out of the mouth. Possibly they thought we could put dimples where dimples don't naturally come. Well we can do all this, but unless you instruct us that you want them otherwise we will make the picture like the original. Let us know your wants and we will supply them.
