Councilmen - R. Koerner, Frank Busch, R. D. Wilson, James Roake, H. E. Harris, G. D. Latourette, Arthur Millin, Fred A. Metzner.

Died.

Frost - Mrs. Annie Frost, at Ely, Oct. 15, 1898, aged 27 years and 4 months. Mrs. Frost, wife of Allen Frost, passed quietly away at the home of her parents...

The deceased thus early in youth was of both father and mother bereft; had his prospects in life blighted by the greivous disease of consumption gradually taking his life with a lingering illness, yet withal he bore his misfortune with calm resignation to the end. He leaves a sister and two brothers.

The funeral services were held on Thursday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery.

Funeral - Wednesday October 19, 1898. Mrs. Herman Suhr.

Mrs. Suhr arrived in Oregon City from California on the morning preceding her death. She leaves a sister Mrs. H. H. Chase of Oregon City to mourn her loss.

Kruse - At his home near Wilsonville, Oregon, October 19, 1898, John Kruse, aged 71 years 2 months and 7 days.

Mr. Kruse, an Oregon pioneer of 1850 was born in Denmark, August 11, 1827. His forefathers were shipbuilders and were men of ability and influence. Grandfather Kruse lost his property by Napoleon Bonaparte's war. At the age of 15 years Mr. Kruse began the life of a sailor before the mast, sailed for the ports of Denmark until he was 17 and came to the United States in the winter of 1845-46. He made two voyages from New York to Savannah. Then he became a mate on a schooner and sailed to South Carolina, where he was for a time employed at railroading. After this he went to New Orleans and was engaged in steamboating on the Mississippi river and also worked along shore.

From the Mississippi he came West, landing at San Francisco on the 3rd of January, 1850, and in Portland on the 1st of April, same year, in company with Captain John Wolf. At Portland he was first employed as engineer in Stephen Coffin's sawmill. Afterward he aided in building and putting in place the machinery of the steamer Hoosier, and was for a time her engineer. Later he and Leonard White purchased this boat and ran her on Willamette river between Oregon City and Dayton. She was the first steamboat on the river and carried ten tons of freight.

In 1852 Mr. Kruse took his donation claim in Clackamas county on the west bank of the Willamette, eight miles above Oregon City, purchasing the right from a Mr. Moffet, who had located it. On the 30th of August, 1852 he married Miss Jantha Geer, a native of Ohio, born Dec. 6, 1836, daughter of Joseph C. Geer. The day after their marriage Mr. Kruse brought his young wife to their new home. He worked and improved his farm in summer and steamboated in winter and his earnest and well-directed efforts rapidly brought him prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Kruse have had eight children to bless their union, three of whom survive him. Mr. Kruse was a Democrat until the firing on Fort Sumpter, when he joined the republican party and has since been a supporter of that party. In 1878 he was one of the organizers of the grange, and several times served as master of the order. He was twice elected and has served two terms as county commissioner of his county, and while an incumbent of that office he evinced the same integrity and ability that has always characterized his own affairs. In 1887 he was elected as representative to the state legislature.

Besides a host of friends, he leaves a widow and three children, Albert O., J. Loren, and Homer A. Kruse.

"I want a gentle horse for my wife to drive," said the prospective purchaser. "Can you recommend this one?" "Yes, indeed," replied the owner. "There is not a safer horse for a lady to be found anywhere, and there is but one thing he's afraid of." "And what is that?" asked the other. "He is awfully afraid some one will say 'Whoa!' to him and he won't hear it," replied the conscientious owner. - New York World.

The Teacher. One cause of the low standing of the teacher's calling is lack of extended professional training. Professions easily entered are not usually highly respected. The medical profession has been cited as an illustration. Not long ago, when one could be a physician without special training, the profession was not very highly esteemed. Now, when extended training is demanded both by public opinion and by law, the profession is respected as one of the highest. In like manner the teaching profession would undoubtedly increase in favor were training of a high order demanded. In fact, we find the respect for the profession varying in different countries and in different grades of the school system almost in direct ratio to the education and professional training required of candidates. - Forum.

Wasted. A lad in one of the London board schools was found guilty of a serious infraction of discipline and was directed by his teacher to tell his mother when he got home what misdemeanor he had committed. The next morning the schoolmistress called Johnnie to her desk, when the following dialogue ensued: "Well, Master Johnnie, did you inform your mother what refraction of discipline you were guilty of yesterday and the reprimand and punishment you received?" "Yes'm," was the sententious reply. "Well, and what did your mother say?" "She said she'd like to wring your neck for you."

No more discipline reports were sent home to that mother. - Pearson's Weekly.

His Crew. Burbank - You say that you never saw that man before, and yet you think he has been married about 15 months. I'd like mighty well to know what there is about him to make you arrive at such a conclusion? Sherlock Holmes, Jr. - Watch him closely, and you will notice that he starts at every sound as if he were afraid it would wake the baby. - Cleveland Leader.

SPECIAL SALE of trimmed hats Friday, Saturday and Monday October 21, 22 and 24, by Mrs. M. E. Hamilton at Red Front Store, Oregon City.

For Young Men and Young Women. There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Johnson's barber shop.

For Constipation take Karl's Clover Root Tea, the great Blood Purifier. Cures Headache, Nervousness, Eruptions on the face, and makes the head clear as a bell. Sold by Charman & Co., druggists, Oregon City.

How to Prevent Croup. We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be out Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined. - J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

Legal Notices.

Assignee's Notice Final Settlement. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT C. O. T. W. HEMES, assignee of the Oregon City Gas and Coal Company, S. B. Collier and Charles E. Wilson, insolvent debtors, has filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas, his account with your estate in final settlement of the above entitled matter, and if there are no objections to such final settlement, filed on or before the first day of the November term of said court, the said assignee will ask the Hon. Judge of the said court for an order for the distribution of the remainder of the assets and for his discharge as said assignee and trustee.

Assignee of the Oregon City Gas and Coal Co., S. B. Collier and Charles E. Wilson, insolvent debtors. Filed at Oregon City, Oregon, this 6th day of October, A. D. 1898.

SUMMONS. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.

Ida Grove, Plaintiff, vs. E. W. Grove, defendant. To E. W. Grove, the above named defendant.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in the above entitled Court on or before the first day of the next term of said Court after six weeks publication of this summons, to-wit: On or before Monday, the 5th day of November, 1898, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the Court House in the City of Oregon, in the County of Clackamas, Oregon, for the relief demanded in the complaint. The relief demanded in the complaint is for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, James T. Smith, on the ground of desertion, and that the said defendant be awarded custody of a minor child, Lila E. Smith, and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.

This summons is published pursuant to an order made by Hon. Alfred F. Sears, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas, in the above entitled case, on the 19th day of September, 1898. The Hon. Alfred F. Sears, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas, made on this day, to-wit: September 21, A. D. 1898.

G. O. T. WILLIAMS, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Admin. stry's Notice. In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Clackamas County.

In the matter of the estate of John W. Boston, deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of John W. Boston, deceased, by the above entitled court. All persons having claims against said estate will present the same to me for payment with the proper vouchers at the office of G. E. Hayes, Oregon City, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice, or be forever barred.

NANCY O. BOSTON, Administratrix. G. E. Hayes, Attorney for Adm. Dated September 24, 1898.

DEWEY AS A DISCIPLINARIAN.

His Method of Subduing Some Refractory Sailors.

"I was with Commodore Dewey when he was the executive officer of the Colorado," said a financier, "and I remember one incident which shows the manner of man he is. We had a fine crew, some of them as powerful men as I ever saw. Four or five of them went ashore one day and came back fighting drunk. "Three of them were men who would singly have been more than a match in strength for John L. Sullivan. The order was given to put them in irons, and it was found impossible to carry out the order, for the men were dangerous. Dewey was notified of the situation. He was writing a letter in his room at the time. "He went to the place where these giants were and he told them to come out and submit to the irons. They did not stir. Then Dewey said quietly to an orderly, 'Bring me my revolvers,' and when he had his pistols he again called upon the men to come out, but they did not move. Then he said, 'I am going to count three. If you are not out here with your hands held up on the third count, you won't come out of that place alive.' "He counted one, then he cocked the revolvers, and he counted two. We all expected to hear the report, for we knew that Dewey meant what he said. The men knew it too. They stepped out just in time to save their lives and held up their hands, and they had been partially sobered by their fright and the moral effect of Dewey's glance. "One of them said afterward that when he saw Dewey's eyes he knew that he would either be a dead Jackie in a moment or he would have to yield, and when the irons were put upon him he was as sober as he ever was in his life. Dewey went back to his room and finished the letter he was writing." - Philadelphia Press.

"The Lucky Duffs." "The Lucky Duffs" is the title of an article in The English Illustrated Magazine in which Mr. J. M. Bullock traces the rise of the Duke of Fife, like a prince in a fairy tale, from a little farmer in the north of Scotland 200 years ago. One good woman of the house used to ride to market with a huge pile of plaiding, which she had spun from her sheep, in the crupper beside her and duly brought back its value in merka. These she hoarded in bags. On one occasion she banked her savings in a leather bag in the ceiling, but the rats got at it, so that the family dined amid a downpour of ducatoons. The family flourished so well that each of her three sons got an estate of his own - Patrick, the youngest, bringing 86 children into the world, while William became the father of the first Earl of Fife.

Queen Wilhelmina. There is no longer any doubt that Wilhelmina, queen of the Netherlands, is engaged to marry Prince Bernhard of Saxe-Weimar, who is now 20 years of age and the second son of the late hereditary Prince of Weimar. The young queen has lately been in Paris seeing the sights and selecting a trousseau. Her dresses, rides in the Bois and goodness of face and character have been items of interest in the Paris journals. They deem it significant that she shops in Paris instead of Berlin and believe the future queen a valuable person to cultivate.
