The way to build up Oregon City is to give Oregon City People your Patronage.

THE ELECTION.

The recent election indicates several things political. In the first place the senate that for sometime has been in the hands of the opposition will now be republican by 18 majority. This means that the senate will be controlled by this party for sometime to come. The house still continues in the hands of this party but by a much narrow majority. The present indications are that the majority will be thirteen.

Locally on the coast it means that the silver party is utterly dead. Washington, Oregon and California have refused to listen to the Warrior statesman William Jennings Bryan and hereafter his "cross of gold" will have to be borne without help from this section.

In the East the silver question cut very little figure in the recent elections. It is only in the such great states like Idaho, Montana, Colorado, and Utah that the fundamental principles of the double (?) standard are fully understood or its benign blessings are fully appreciated and upheld at the ballot box.

There was a decided tendency in the East on the part of the democrats to get together, and many a democrat who supported McKinley supported a congressman nominated on a silver platform because they believe that free silver will never obtain even with the democrats in power any more than free trade has.

They regard the question as practically out of politics and are trying to get the party together on other issues for 1900. This resulted in cutting down the republican majority in the house. The control of both houses of congress with the election of Roosevelt and a republican legislature in New York can safely be taken as an approval of the administration's war policy although Alger cost many a vote and all mishaps are laid at the door of the administration even if unavoidable. As we have said before silver is out of the question, will not figure in 1900 with any party, but the democrats will be far more united in 1900 than they were in 1896.

The democrats by leading the populists astray on the fusion scheme have completely extirpated that party nationally from politics.

The populists of this county and state will have to choose between the democrat and republican parties. It is a well devised scheme to try and deliver the populists bodily to the democrats and that is especially true in this county but it will not work.

RALPH PLATT commissary of the Second Oregon Volunteers writing from Manila to the Oregonian states that the trouble on ship board with the rations was the absolute lack of facilities to bake break or cook for the regiment. If the transport had been furnished with these facilities the food would have been as good as on land except the refrigerator was not equal to its task.

LORD SALISBURY'S speech at the lord mayor's banquet in which he said that America must now be taken into consideration in the affairs of the world, since she has taken up with a colonial policy has created a great stir through Europe, and is interpreted as meaning an Anglo-American agreement as Salisbury said that the entrance of America into the diplomatic affairs of the world not be to the detriment of England.

The report of Gen. Miles shows that much of the sickness in camp arose from the fact that the government was not prepared to furnish the troops properly and a long detention in a camp hardly provided with absolute necessities tended to make the men homesick and bring on melancholia under which circumstances disease more readily planted itself as both physical and mental resistance were lacking.

ARCHBISHOP GROSS was a man of great executive ability and a fine scholar. At the same time he had such a winning personality and affable manner that to know him was to respect and love him. Not only the church, but the Northwest has lost one of its foremost citizens and educators. A man of broad and tolerant mind, the humblest sought his advice and always received his consideration. His place will not be easy to fill.

The letter in this issue from Captain Pickens ought to set at rest any fear that may have been raised by anxious friends concerning the boys at Manila. It will be seen that all possible care is being taken and the resources properly looked after rather than wasted, as some of the volunteers seem to think they should be.

It is certain that the administration is going to push the settlement of peace with Spain and no farther delays are to be tolerated. The negotiations have now reached the stage where it is a question of the price to be paid for the islands and the method of taking possession of them.

The gloating manner of the assassin Luigini shows that he mentally is a degenerate. No properly balanced mind can exult in so foul a murder as that of the empress of Austria. At his trial he was anxious that it should be known that he premeditated the crime and designed that it should be fatal.

It has been suggested that Elyville is entitled to a councilman. We believe they should be given one. This section of the city has never had a representative in the council and it is no more than right that they should have a voice in the city affairs.

JOSEPH was elected senator in Multnomah county, receiving nearly two-thirds of the vote. Flanders receiving about twice as many votes as Henry. Less than half of the vote of the county was polled.

Wanamaker and Quay are going to have a fight in earnest for the senatorship in Pennsylvania. Many people will hope the former wins but the chances are against him.

READ Congressman Tongue's letter in this issue on the appointment of a cadet. He takes the right method in this matter and one that every citizen will approve.

A Sure Sign of Croup.
 Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

From New Zealand.
 REEFTON, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896.
 I am very pleased to state that since took the agency of Chamberlain's medicine the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement continued their use for three, weeks and am now a well man. Katie Gold Irish Bull.

One of the finest specimens of a real Irish bull was perpetrated by that clever and witty but blundering Irish knight, Sir R. Steele, when inviting an English nobleman to visit him. "If, sir," said he, "you ever come within a mile of my home, I hope you will stay there."

A rich bull is recorded of an alderman at cards who, on inspecting the pool, found it deficient. "Here's a shilling short," said he. "Who put it in?" At the time of the home rule difficulty and when the cause seemed to be languishing a meeting was held, and one of the speakers thus addressed the audience, "Friends, the cup of our trouble is running over, and it is not yet full."—London Telegraph.

A Fighting Diet.

In some remarks on vegetables as a fighting diet G. B. Shaw says: "Ninety-nine per cent of the world's fighting has been done on farinaceous food. Compare the Tipperary peasant of the potato and buttermilk days with the modern gentleman who gorges himself with murdered cow. The Tipperary man never read bloody minded novels or cheered patriotic music hall tableaux, but he fought recklessly and wantonly. Your carnivorous gentleman is afraid of everything, including doctors, dogs, disease, death and truth telling."

Premature.

"You've kissed that young squirt good night and let him go, haven't you, Stella?" said a weary voice at the top of the stairway. There was an awful silence for a moment, and then in a shrill, hesitating voice the young man in the darkened hall below responded: "No, ma'am, but I—I think she's going to."—Chicago Tribune.

Appropriate Hymns.

Some people have peculiar notions of what is "appropriate." Some time ago a resident of a neighboring town was preaching at the Gladstone jail and prefaced his remarks by regretting the small attendance. At a race meeting held at a band was engaged to play "appropriate music," and it was found that the numbers selected were from Moody and Sankey. "Go Bury Thy Sorrow" was one of them, and the others were all equally "appropriate."

Christmas religious service was held at the local jail and hymns suitable to the occasion were of course selected. The first one was "Free From the Law, Oh, Happy Condition," and the last, "We'll Never Leave This Safe Abode, a Refuge in the Time of Storm." The funny side of it all appealed to some of the inmates, and the intended good effect of the service was lost.—Adelaide Quiz.

Bismarck's Intense Hate.

That Prince Bismarck was a good hater is shown in the reminiscences of Herr von Tiedemann, formerly chief of the imperial chancellery. During the first dinner at which Herr von Tiedemann was present with the prince Bismarck said he thought Goethe was wrong in saying that only love beautified life. Hate did the same service and was quite as great a vivifier as love. "To me," added the prince, "are indispensable love for my wife and hate for Windhorst." One morning Bismarck said to Herr von Tiedemann "I have not been able to sleep, I have hated the whole night."

"There is so much trouble coming into the world," said Lord Bellingbrooke, "and so much more to go out of it, that it is hardly worth while to be here at all." If a man and a philosopher comes to this conclusion, what must be the natural conclusion of the thousands of women who undergo untold torture in bringing their babes into the world?

Philosophy of this kind is based upon gross ignorance. The fact is, that there is no necessity for the severe pains undergone by the average woman. If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the majority of women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can always be remedied. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sure, speedy and permanent cure for all disorders of this description. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic. It banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits. Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good."

"I suffered fourteen years," writes Mrs. Mary J. Stewart, of Box 46, Saratoga, Santa Clara Co., Cal., with female weakness, nervousness and general debility. I tried everything to no avail. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me." The names, addresses and photographs of hundreds of women cured by Dr. Pierce's medicines are printed by permission in the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It's free. For a paper-covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only. French cloth binding 51 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman needs a great medical book.
