THE LOCAL NEWS.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS.—The Eighth California Infantry are doing garrison duty at Vancouver Barracks and like many other military organizations have issued a paper called the "Reville," which is a very newsy little sheet, with Robert B. Byram as editor. R. B. Byram will be remembered in Oregon City as the bookkeeper for Hamshaw & Behm and is now chief clerk to the quartermaster in the Eighth California.

LIGHTS FOR THE CITY.—At a special council meeting held Tuesday evening concerning the lights on lower Main street it was determined to allow the arc lights to remain as now stationed and place an incandescent light at Tenth street to light the approach to the new walk up the hill. The council had quite a spirited debate on the matter. It is difficult to move the present light on the street without considerable dissatisfaction. The council also ordered an arc light at the end of the bridge back of the Barclay school and two for Ely. If the cost of arc lights was put in incandescent lights the city would get more benefit on these back streets.

SEPARATE COMPANY F.—The members of separate Co. F. expect their uniforms the coming week. Captain Fred Metzner has appointed the following non-commissioned officers: First sergeant, Semur Lankins; quartermaster sergeant, Joe Austen, sergeants, M. L. Miller, Alfred Weed, David Fancher and Fred Jack; corporals, C. Graeser, Michael McQuaid, G. Hall and W. Hall; lance corporal, Joe Boylan; musician, Winnie Boylan. The company is fast getting into shape and will be one of the finest in the state. The boys are taking great interest and pride in the matter.

CHARITY ENTERTAINMENT.—The employees of Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works have made arrangements to give a musical and literary entertainment at the Marquam on December 6th for the benefit of the families of the workmen recently killed on the torpedo boat Davis. The best talent of Portland has volunteered its services and the entertainment will be well worth attending outside of the fact of helping in this very worthy cause. The families of these workmen are dependent and anyone buying a ticket to this entertainment can be sure that his money goes to a worthy object as well as seeing one of the best entertainments that the musical and literary talent of Portland can give. Tickets are $1 each and can be had at the postoffice, this city.
