There will be a basket social and literary and musical program at Crescent, or Jones Mill, school house, Saturday, Feb. 25, at 8 p. m. A graphophone with a 4-foot horn has been secured from Portland. Recitations, songs, dialogues, and music by the Jones Logging Camp Orchestra will form the program, to be followed by auction of baskets. A large attendance is expected and all young ladies are invited to bring baskets. Proceeds to go to the school.

Mrs. B. F. Giltner died at the family home in Salem last Saturday at the age of 49 years. She was the wife of B. F. Giltner, who has been prominent in politics for many years, and a sister of Senator George W. McBride and Judge Thomas A. McBride, of this city. Her husband and two children survive her, Edmund C. who is now in Washington, D. C., as Senator McBride's private secretary, and Miss Georgie, of Salem. The remains were taken to St. Helen, her old home, and laid to rest beside her mother and father, who both passed away many years ago.

On Wednesday of this week John R. Humphreys received a silver mounted ebony cane from his brother, Fred, who is a corporal in Company M, Second Oregon now at Manila. Engraved upon the mountings is the inscription, "J. R. Humphreys, from F. W. Humphreys, Manila, P. I. December 25, 1898." The souvenir is naturally very highly prized by the recipient. Mr. Humphreys also sent his brother, Charles, of the Postal Telegraph Co, this city, several dozen kodak views of Manila, many of them containing snap shots of our Oregon City boys. These are interesting and instructive and likewise illustrate the manners and customs of the natives.

There will be no service at the Congregational church except Sunday school next Sunday.

Heinz & Co. have purchased the Schrader bakery on Seventh street but will not operate the same.

The funeral of Mrs. George Shipley was held in Oswego Tuesday. She had a large circle of friends in this city where she formerly resided.

The electric car on the west side will leave at 9:50 Saturday morning for Willamette. This is to enable the teachers to reach that place after the morning train is in.

A fire in Heinz's bakery was only averted by prompt action Monday. The fire originated in the roof probably from the flue and by quick action was easily extinguished.

A. W. Phillips was accused by Herman Fisher, of stealing a wagon from Fisher's barn. Phillips previously owned the wagon and claimed he had not sold it. A jury trial was had Monday and Phillips was acquitted.
