Mr. and Mrs. Noble Heath, formerly of Oregon City, will soon leave La Camas for the east, and possibly on to Europe. Miss Bertha Davis, of Corvallis, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. G. I. Strango, returned to her home Friday morning. H. H. Wade, of Eagle Creek, one of the prosperous farmers of the county, passed through the city Monday on his way to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, relatives of T. B. Hankins, arrived from Klamath Territory Wednesday. They will likely locate in the county. Miss Olive Luelling is very sick, and has resigned her position as teacher in the Barclay school. Miss Marjorie Buford is teaching in her place. Miss Orpha Cosper, employed with James & Wolf has been up on a vacation and enjoying a few days visit with her parents and friends. Miss Nellie Lambert, of Portland, who has been visiting with the Misses Kelly the first of the week, paid her friends a visit Sunday, and remained until Tuesday, when she returned to her home.

Local Events

The city authorities are not being bothered with hobos of late. The mayor, Hon. C. D. Latourette, has been talking hard with them this winter. The sheriff's office at the court house is being considerably enlarged. Five or more space has been added by soaking out a partition. The plasterers are now putting on the finishing touches. From a letter received by Mrs. Norris on her son Rhea it seems that he and Dick Humphrey were with the 3rd tillery at the time of the battle of Alcock. Feb. 10th, and took part in that fight. Miss Ella Hoberg, formerly of this city, but now of Portland will take part in the entertainment to be given on the evening of the 31st at the Baptist church for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. building fund. The Clackamas County Teachers' Association will hold a meeting at Milwaukie on Saturday, March 25. A good program has been prepared and the Milwaukie school will assist. The dinner will be free. Mrs. Minerva Hamilton, who was committed to the asylum last Monday on account of dementia, died the following day. She was buried from the home of her son-in-law, Isaac Farr Thursday. Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating. Mrs. H. Hargraves, of Gladstone, was given a surprise party St. Patrick's day by some of her women friends of Oregon City. There were about ten in the party. They went down early in the afternoon and remained the greater part of the day. A very enjoyable time was had. August Voight, a farmer living out on the Tualatin, was examined for insanity before County Judge Thomas F. Ryan Thursday. After looking into his mental condition he was found to be sane and instead of committing the patient to the asylum, he was sent to Portland for hospital treatment. Christian Science services are held in Willamette Hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday March 26, "Unreality." Sunday school at 12:10. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services. A meeting of Clackamas county fishermen, members of the union, was held in Justice Schubel's office Saturday night. Questions affecting the fishing interests were discussed generally. The members of the union have agreed to stand in together and contest the laws, which they claim are unfair and unconstitutional.

J. A. Jones has built a new mill house beside the old one on Abernethy creek, and is now transferring the machinery to it.

The boy's minstrel show given at Pope's hall Saturday night was well attended and the performers received hearty applause for their performances. About $7 was taken in.

H. T. Sladen, of Gladstone, is building a new six-room cottage on a lot between his residence and the electric car track. The material was to have been on the ground the first of the week ready for the carpenters to begin at once.

Deputy District Attorney G. B. Dimick, received a letter from the justice of the peace at Barlow last week stating that the jury could not agree in the assault and battery case preferred by Casper Weisnauale against one Reynolds. The case was therefore ordered dismissed.

The United Artisans are increasing their membership rapidly. Last Thursday 20 new members were initiated into the order. Forty-four applications have been received the last 30 days, and it is expected that nearly 20 will be taken in at the regular meeting held last evening.

The Mollie Adelia Brown Concert company appeared at the M. E. church Tuesday night, and played to a small but appreciative audience. Miss Brown's singing was the attractive feature of the evening, although Miss Crist the pianist and Mr. Ballard the cellist were highly entertaining.

Stationery must be scarce over at Manila. The following extract is taken from a paper recently received from there: "One of the most historic mails thus far in the history of Manila will be the next one leaving for the United States, as there are over 2000 letters and post cards written on the covers of cartridge boxes already posted."

A meeting of the bicycle riders of Clackamas county will be held Saturday evening, March 25th, at 7:30 in Justice Schubel's office for the purpose of organizing an association of wheelmen to further the interests of riders in the county, and particularly to choose the most suitable route for the proposed bicycle path. There will be no fees or dues. All riders are invited to attend.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Mrs. J. Doremus, Friday evening in honor of her birthday. The party of young and old gathered at the home of Mrs. N. McKilllean before springing the surprise. About 30 ladies and gentlemen were present. Refreshments were served and music on the organ, violin and accordion were the features of the evening. All left wishing Mrs. Doremus many happy returns of the day.

Mayor C. D. Latourette is in correspondence with an eastern firm regarding the purchase of a street sweeper for the city. The council has intended to get one sooner or later. The mayor's attention has been called to one that serves the double purpose of sweeping the pavement and taking the sweepings at the same time. The machine does not need an extra man with horse and cart to follow after. It cost $500.

Assessor Eli Williams started his three field men out to make appraisements of Clackamas county property values Tuesday. They are, J. F. Nelson, of Mulino, R. L. Pollock, of Oswego, and Nixon Blair, of Needy. It is customary to send the field men out about every third year in order that the actual values of property etc., can be obtained. During the intervening years the assessments are made up from the books in the office.

The last will and testament of Charles E. Murry, deceased, was admitted to probate, by County Clerk Dixon, Monday. Charles E. Murry jr., a son, gets nearly everything. There are notes and mortgages left to the value of $4400. Of this amount $5 is bequeathed to Will Shelley Murry, and the rest goes to Charles E. Murry, jr. According to the provisions of the will Charles E. Murry jr. has full power to settle the estate without the interference or control of the courts.

A number of talented speakers and lecturers have been secured to appear at the high school during special occasions in April and May. L. W. McAdams, superintendent of city schools, states that the following persons have been engaged to take part: Miss Wilhelmina Joehuke will speak on the subject, "Hawaiian Islands;" Judge William Galloway is to deliver his lecture on "State and Public Lands;" Mrs. Eva Emory Dye will deliver a historical lecture, and President Campbell, of Monmouth, President Chapman, of Eugene, and President Hawley, of Salem, will give lectures on various topics.

To a Better Site. The state authorities have decided to move the salmon hatchery of the upper Clackamas from its present location to a more desirable site on the opposite side of the river. It is owing to the damage sustained from extreme high stages of water that this change is made necessary. The rocks and traps have to be constantly repaired or put in anew each year, thereby entailing a considerable expense.

A gang of men left for the station Thursday. Most of them went from the Clackamas station and were as follows: Superintendent King Spurgeon, Erwin Wilson, M. B. Webster, W. W. Smith, J. Talbert and J. J. Davis, of Garfield. Others will follow later. The trail leading to the station is said to be in a bad condition and impassible until it is cleared out. From the settlement to the hatchery the distance is about 35 miles and traverses a region of snow. Later Governor Geer, the secretary of state and other officials interested in the fisheries will go up there on a tour of inspection.

A Surprise Party. Theodore Weed's popularity among the young people of Oregon City was the cause of his being given a surprise party at his home Thursday night. Nine couple of his friends called upon him when he was not aware of their coming, which was one feature of the happy occasion. The guests came well prepared to furnish amusements and different games and social pastimes were indulged in. Those present were: Mrs. Weed, Gertrude Shaner, Maud and Nettie May, Myrtle Curran, Myrtle Winnesett, Lydia Yoder, Nora Hess, Sadie James, Maggie Young, Elva Mack, James Young, Edward Demster, William Price, Theodore Weed, Arthur Thomas, Charles Smith, Jacob Straight, Gus Winnesett.
