Dresser for defendant.

Wounded in Battle. Rudolph Gantenbein, an Oregon City boy, whose mother, Mrs. Annie Gantenbein and family live here, and Leon G. Holland, whose home at present is at Salem, but who is well known here, have been wounded in battle with the Philippine insurgents. Dispatches to that effect were published in Sunday's Oregonian.

Rudolph Gantenbein is a corporal in company "I" in which company are all the Oregon City boys. He is 22 years of age and formerly worked in the woolen mills here. His wound is mentioned as not being serious, being only a hurt in the leg.

Private Leon G. Holland is wounded seriously in the chest. He worked in this city three years as drug clerk for Geo. A. Harding and enlisted in company "M" from Woodburn, Or., his home being at the time at Salem, where his mother resides. He was originally a lieutenant in the Salem company, but as that company lost its organization he went from Woodburn as a private. Charles Athey, a boss spinner in the woolen mills here is his uncle. Holland is 22 years old.

STOCKHOLDER'S MEETING.

Annual Meeting of the Willamette Saving and Loan Association. The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Willamette Savings and Loan Association was held March 29th for the election of directors and auditors, also for the reading of reports of officers. The secretary's report shows a very satisfactory condition of affairs. The association has not earned quite as much as for the previous fiscal year on account of the idle money on hand, very few applications for loans having been made during the year. There is now loaned out on first mortgage and collateral security $9055. There is on hand city and county warrants $437.22 and cash with treasurer, $2,167.26. The book value of stock in series No 1, is $40.74 per share. Series No. 2, 34.46 " " " 3, 23.32 " " " 4, 12.94 "

The expense of conducting the affairs of the association is very small and the fact that it is managed by a board of directors composed of well known citizens in whom all who have confidence, makes a very safe and profitable way of investing small savings. Series No. 5 has just been opened and should be taken up rapidly. Local pride should influence all to take stock in the Willamette Savings and Loan Association in preference to outside institutions. The following directors were elected: Geo. A. Harding, Rudolph Koerner, H. E. Straight, W. A. Huntley, T. F. Ryan, L. L. Porter, E. E. Charman, A. W. France and E. G. Canfield. The auditors elected were A. W. Cheney, Max Bollack and Chas. H. Canfield. The secretary is G. B. Dimick, who will be pleased to give information regarding its plan of operation.

A Society Event. At Willamette hall Saturday afternoon a musical and social was given by the Ladies' Music club of this city. The occasion was the most attractive social function held this season. The musical talent of the city was represented. Nearly 200 ladies were present. Decorations of ferns, potted plants and Oregon grape gave the hall an enlivened appearance. The tea tables were appropriately ornamented, and Turkish rugs were spread upon the floor. A musical program of select numbers was rendered. Mrs. Robert A. Miller's Shakesperian readings were very artistic and constituted the most striking feature of the occasion. She first gave a selection from "Antony and Cleopatra," and responded to an encore with a selection from "Taming of The Shrew." Dainty refreshments were served and the afternoon will long be remembered as one of unalloyed pleasure.
