

LETTER FROM ROUMANIA.

Mr. Stern Writes From Bucarest of the Customs of That Place.

and there are small hopes for his recovery. He has the best medical care and they will do their best for him.

Fires occur occasionally here, and if they had the necessary appliances at the fire departments here that our Americans have, they would save a great deal of property, as it is, they are carrying water in iron barrels and use large hand pumps. Bucarest has the distinction of owning a fire engine, which is of old English make and style and looks like an old forty-niner. The houses here being built of brick and not higher than four stories, the firemen as a general rule got them in case of fire and not encounter much difficulty in keeping the fire from spreading—except when a strong wind makes its appearance.

Since the above was written about the railroad accident I am informed that the senator was not hurt as serious as was supposed at first, but the engineer and fireman died and a young merchant was also found dead under the debris. All of the cars, with the exception of the sleeping car were made into splinters and the rest of the passengers escaped with slight injuries.

The expulsion of journalists here is in vogue now, under pretext that they are socialists and through their writings in the papers which makes the peasantry rise against the government, about a dozen journalists have been expelled in the last two weeks and there are more to follow. This is the way they do it. They are called to the police station and told that the next day they will be taken to a frontier, this to be chosen by the journalist and the next day with two secret service men he is taken to the frontier and let go. Some of them who have wives and children have to be left behind and in case they want to follow, they cannot, as the government won't furnish passports, they being related to the supposed socialist journalist. It is indeed outrageous, as the majority of the newspapermen are innocent.

EM A. STERN.

Easter Day at the Churches.

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH. The service commenced with a celebration of the holy communion at 7:30 a. m. At 11 o'clock an elaborate musical program was rendered by the choir, consisting of Mrs. Clark Ganong, Miss Mary Conyers, Miss Imogene Harding, Mrs. F. Freeman, Mrs. N. W. Lawrence, Miss Louise Cochran, H. K. Kelly, Wm. Wright, Dr. F. Freeman, with Miss May Kelly as organist. The solo parts of the "Te Deum" and "Jubilate" were sung by Mrs. Ganong, Miss Conyers and Dr. Freeman. Miss Harding sang "The Resurrection" for an offertory in a very pleasing manner. Beautiful floral decorations bedecked the chancel, white lilies being most in evidence. Rector P. K. Hammond preached an eloquent sermon on the resurrection, and the lessons it taught, and what it meant to the world. He said there must be weeping and sorrow and disappointment in this life, and dwell effectively upon the sorrows of the attendants at the tomb of the Savior. The sacrifice that was made the condensation and humility of the Christ were referred to as valuable to the world. "That was done for the remission of our sins, and to open a way of redemption," he said. "He sacrificed a crown of glory to appear in a stable at Bethlehem. It taught a lesson of love and honor.

THE PRESBYTERIAN.

Sunday morning the Presbyterian church was well filled with its usual attentive audience. The pulpit was tastily decorated with woodland ferns, and beautiful calla lilies surrounded the choir's stand and contributed their appropriate Easter charm to the floral scene. The services were opened by an Easter song which was followed with a touching baptism of infants by the pastor. Rev. Montgomery's sermon was then delivered in an able manner on "Christ our Redeemer." This was a beautiful presentation of Christ's divine power and portrays in a pleasing way His sacrifice in behalf of mankind.

THE CONGREGATIONAL.

The Congregational choir entertained a large audience last Sunday evening with a charming sacred musicale of unusual merit. The auditorium was profusely adorned with a rare floral display which thoroughly perfumed the church with its sweet fragrance and rendered more endearing the thoughts of the Easter awakening. The choir, composed of Mesdames E. E. Charman, W. S. Wiggins, J. Roake, Chas. Canfield, J. W. Gray; Misses Jene White, Echo Samson; Messrs. J. Roake, G. H. Bestow, G. A. Heinz, and C. Roake was ably assisted by E. E. Cumpston, and in the number of selections which it rendered fully sustained its former enviable reputation. In the duet "O Salutaris" Mesdames Wiggins and Charman appeared to good advantage and pleased all. A quartet of Mesdames Wiggins and Charman, Messrs Cumpston and Bestow rendered in a creditable manner, "The Resurrection." Mrs. E. Sadie White sang "The Palms" and rendered it with her usual good effect and service. E. E. Cumpston concluded the service in a splendid rendition of the "Resurrection," by Shelly. Mrs. Fred White, the organist, who has been so long an indispensable factor in the choir, performed her part well and to the satisfaction of all. When the program was half over the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bolinger delivered a brief Easter address and spoke beautifully of the Resurrection morn and the life hereafter.

THE METHODIST.

At the Methodist church Sunday evening a large audience listened to an excellent program and eloquent sermon by the Rev. Isaac Naylor, of England. The church was elegantly decked in the rarest of floral adornments which gave to the scene a beauty and refinement seldom witnessed. The following is the program: Selection by orchestra; recitation, "Easter Chimes," Miss Leonora Williams; class exercise, "The Easter Rainbow;" song, school; class exercise, "Who Shall Roll Away the Stone;" violin solo, Prof. Everest; paper, "Methodism in Missions;" recitation, "Two Pennies;" Frank Clark; recitation, Beryl Hill; address, Rev. Naylor, subject, "Christ the Conqueror of Death."

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist church prepared no special literary Easter program Sunday, but their auditorium was artistically beautified with a variety of choice plants and flowers, and a well filled house listened to an instructive and profitable sermon by the Rev. Mr. Barden, of Portland.

Died.

MOSHER.—In Redland, March 31, at his home, Elias Mosher, aged 63 years. Mr. Mosher was born in Illinois in 1835. In 1842 with his parents he moved to Missouri and in 1847 crossed the plains to Oregon where he took up a home at this place. He was married to Miss Sarah S. Pearson in 1855, to whom were born nine children, of which six survive, five boys and one girl. Mr. Mosher had enjoyed good health until one week before his death when he took what was supposed to be the lagrippe, but he grew worse so fast that a doctor was summoned, who pronounced it congestive apoplexy of the brain. The remains were laid to rest in the Redland cemetery where a large concourse of friends had assembled to pay their last tribute of respect. The deceased was well and favorably known. Rev. Morehouse preached the funeral services.

BARRETT.—At her home near Oregon City at 9:30 Tuesday evening, March 28, 1899, Mrs. Mary Barrett aged 66 years and 10 months. Five children survive Mrs. Barrett, Arthur M., Edward N., Minerva C., and Ida T. Barrett and Mrs. Belle Kennedy. The funeral services were held from her home. Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating. The interment was in the City View cemetery.

An Easter Monday Party at Mt Pleasant.

Mr and Mrs. H. A. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Titus and daughter Ethel, Mrs. Kellogg and daughter Lucile, Mrs. W. B. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kidder, Mrs. E. Warner; Misses, H. Warner, K. Casto, K. Warnock, M. Andrews, M. Kidder, R. Stafford, E. Weisbart, A. Myers, and H. E. Riggs; Messrs. C. P. Andrews, W. B. Lawton, C. Warnock and J. Partlow met at Lognot Farm April 3, where hacks were waiting to convey the party to Mountain Ash Farm.

Miss Lazelle was not aware of the party until the jolly crowd arrived. Misses May Andrews and Helen Riggs had prepared the program so the evening slipped by as by magic. The party partners were selected for lunch was quite novel. Each lady brought a box like her dress, these being placed in a box, the gentleman drew their fate. Messrs. James Partlow and E. A. Titus entertained the guests with music, which was highly appreciated. Prizes were awarded after one of the games and Mrs. H. Andrews carried off the first prize while James Partlow is the proud possessor of the booty.

After a late hour the guests departed all saying they had a good time. Oregon City subscribers to Soldiers' Monument fund will please call at Bank of Oregon City and get copy of history of Spanish war.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Geo. A. Harding's Drug Store. THE GUARDIAN OF CHILDREN.

Slow creeping upon outstretched wing The fierce, rapacious bird of prey Glides near that small, sweet, tender thing Those cruel claws would snatch away. O, how that mother's heart must leap To drive this peril of the air! A way from that soot nest of sleep With all her love and longing there.

But see the staunch defender rise With bristling mane and head erect, No power can snatch that precious prize, While he stands ready to protect.

Sleep on sweet babe, your mother's breast Once more shall press you close and warm, No evil bird shall'er molest you, While this brave guardian scans the harm.

To protect her little ones is among the strongest instincts of a mother's heart, and through all the thousands care and worries of a busy woman's life there arises ever and anon the thought "O, if I could do more for my baby!"

But mothers are too often weighed down and weakened with their own daily burdens to do any more than struggle almost hopelessly against the physical and mental evils that beset themselves, with no strength left to care for others. Women with large families find that the very ordeal of bringing children into the world, and nursing and rearing them to boyhood and girlhood, is so great a drain upon the mother's strength that she herself becomes the natural object of care and protection.

It is a glorious boon to the women of this generation that the wonderful supportive tonic, originated by Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is capable of sustaining them through the ordeal of frequent motherhood, and bringing them out of it with unimpaired womanly strength and energy. Motherhood is not only the grandest of woman's possibilities, but is the natural fulfillment of her physical being and when prepared for with proper observance of nature's laws and attended by reasonable care should be free from the mental depression, excessive pain and subsequent prostration so commonly experienced. Thousands of women have found that the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during the expectant time and over the nursing period imparts precisely the local strength and constitutional reinforcement needed to carry them over this critical juncture in their life, almost unscathed.

It affords direct organic endurance and constitutional nerve-force. It gives recuperative power; it promotes the secretion of abundant healthy nourishment for the child during the nursing period. It is in the best sense the guardian of childhood for it not only enables the mother to take up the work of life again with vigor and enjoyment but through her it imbues the little one with the rugged natural strength which is a constant protection against the physical evils with which childhood is constantly assailed.

What Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does for mothers and their children is well exemplified in the experience of Mrs. H. M. Hansrott, of Magnolia, Morgan Co., W. Va. In a recent letter to Dr. Pierce she writes: "I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription something over two years ago, and my child, tottly healthy, is a God send to me. The three children who were born before I began to take your medicine did not live long; they were very delicate, but those born since (three in all) are very hearty, and that convinces me that your medicine is what it is said to be and a great deal more. I could tell enough to fill a book about the way I suffered and the way your medicine cured it. Indeed, every woman on the globe ought to know about your medicine." Another lady, Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, of 27 Merrick St., Pawtucket, R. I., writes: "I have had fifteen babies, and always had a bad time. Sometimes I have had to have two doctors. I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' last July and in September I gave birth to two little girls and I never had such an easy time. I had no doctor and did not suffer half as long as before. My twins when born weighed ten pounds each. They are fine girls, now four months old." Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser tells you how to treat almost every known form of disease at home and just what to do in case of emergency. There is no trouble in understanding it. It contains 1008 pages and more than 700 illustrations. A paper-covered copy will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. If a French cloth binding is wanted, send ten cents more, thirty-one stamps in all.
