THE LOCAL NEWS.

DAY RAN LIKE MAD—R. Freytag's very team became frightened Friday started towards the Abernathy bridge at the speed of well trained race horses. They ran at a terrific rate across the bridge, where the horses fell down, and the team, not overly anxious to drag both horse and wagon further, came to a standstill. No serious harm was done to the wagon and only a few goods suffered damages.

COLLISION—Ray Haines, of this who has been spending sometime away was riding his wheel up one of the main thoroughfares of that city a day ago and upon turning a corner had long into another wheelman from the opposite direction. He violently thrown to the pavement and on his right thumb mashed it and dislocated his wrist. He was sent to Portland where the injuries were carefully dressed and he is still under the doctor's care.

WORKING WAGES—125 employees of Willamette Pulp and Paper Company met in Willamette hall Saturday to draw up a petition asking their employers to raise their wages 25 cents. J. Edmunds was chairman and T. Gaylor secretary. The petition was framed as follows: "We, the workers, by a meeting of the Willamette Pulp and Paper company employed justified by the raising prices products and an advance of wages there on the coast, in asking a raise of 25 cents for each man per

OFF THE WALK—Side walks as some know, are built for walking men and not as an aid to bicyclists. Number of riders are growing somewhat indifferent to this good law and on Monday morning some one near Miller's residence rode over Rev. Mr. Gray and wounded her ankle. A law been enacted by the city council forbidding the use of any side beneath the bluff allowing them the use of the side walks above and confining them to a rate of not exceeding three miles an hour necessary an officer can be vested with power to watch the walks and arrest one violating the bicycle law, but it is hoped that all riders are endowed sufficient good judgment to refrain using the walks altogether and by insure the safety of those using

WOOL WAS HEAVY—Messrs. Pope and Ralph Miller came with us last Monday of suffering serious injuries as a result of being struck by pounds of wool. They were coming from a visit to the island and passing the wool warehouse at the mill, when they were both to the ground by a heavy sack of which was thrown from a window five feet above them. Mr. Miller remained unconscious for sometime remained so until revived by cold water. Mr. Pope was badly bruised and the arms and neck but managed to escape any serious injuries. This surely another example of Providence's preservation, from instantaneous death, if they had happened to be by any one of the other heavier which were being at that time thrown out of the window, nothing short of death would have ensued and a most appalling one at that.

A MEETING OF YOUNG PEOPLE—Careful plans are being laid for a rousing session of the inter-state Y. P. S. C. E. to be held at Portland May the 25th to the 29th. Many prominent leaders in this work for young people are to be present; some among them being Father Endeavor, F. E. Clark, the originator Y. P. S. C. E. movement, Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, of Pittsfield, Mass., President Newlin, of Pacific college, Rev. J. H. Ketchum, D. D. of Salem, Prof. P. L. Campbell, of the Normal school and several others of no less note. Already 15 delegates have been chosen from the Baptist church in this city to represent them on this occasion and there will be a car load go from Woodburn and many more from all the towns up the valley. This is without doubt the greatest association in the world for the advancement of upright living and the culture of stable character among our rising young men and women. In this community, so rich in its possession of promising young people, they should be sent to this association a representation of second to none for its faithful devotedness and society fervor.

PRIZES AWARDED—The humane society of this city, which has ever since its organization, been doing a noble work in behalf of dumb animals, and which is everywhere being recognized as an indispensable factor for good, offered prizes a few weeks ago to the students of the public schools here and in Park Place, for the best essays on kindness to animals. Ever since the beginning of the contest many have assiduously contributed their best thought to the subjects and as a result of these efforts the judges, Mrs. R. A. Miller, Dr. W. E. Carll and Rev. A. J. Montgomery awarded the following prizes: First prize of $7 to Miss Isabelle Kennedy, of Park Place, for the best essay on "Influence of Humane Education," 2nd prize of $4 to Miss Dollie Pratt, of St. John's school, for the best essay on "The Way Right Reins Affect Horses," 3rd prize of $2.50 to Taylor Crumbley, of the Barclay school, for the best essay on "Native Birds of Oregon." Dr. Carll gave a special prize of $2 to Ardis Burgman for an essay on his dog and Agnes Jeskin and Irene Moore will each be awarded a pair of shoes for essays on Mr. McKittrick's parrot.

MAIDS MADE OVER—This is the most wonderful achievement of modern invention and it was accomplished in the presence of a crowded house at Shively's hall Friday evening under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church. The curtain arose on a glittering array of old maids seated around an elaborately attired old maid president, Josephine Jane Green by name, who had convened the Fortnightly Club for the transaction of important business matters.

After an amusing reading of the minutes of the last meeting the Vigilant Committee reported that they had learned of a town in Klondike where there were no women and immediately every ambitious spinster on the platform was eager to emigrate to the new land not yet known to the rest of the woman world. But before going the question of dress reform arose for discussion and a comical debate ensued conducted by Portia Olinia Bennett and Patience Desire Snodgrass. While the judges were coming to a decision on the funny subject of debate a ridiculous original poem was recited by Betsy Bobbin followed with a love song by Lucretia Goodhope. Just at this moment the program is interrupted by the appearance of Prof. Makeover who brings with him a mysterious machine which changes human beings from one condition into any other desired. Violet Anne Ruggles, Arphelia Arville Pittman and Jessica Janet Smith all complained of being too tall so into the machine they went and came forth according to their directions. But when Sinthia Priscilla Jones started through the professor's machine to materialize into a butterfly her rather abnormally developed feet caught in some delicate part of the machine's mechanism and in a moment this wonderful benefactor of spinster imperfections had exploded and the dream of old maids made new ended amid the heartiest applause of the retiring audience.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Geo. A. Harding's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.
