ARMORY, SEPARATE COMPANY F, O. N. G. OREGON CITY, Oregon, June 5, 1899. COMPANY ORDERS NO. 6. I. In addition to the regular drill on Monday night, until further orders, this Company will assemble on Monday and Thursday nights of each week commencing with the current week, for special drill and instructions in the school of the Company and Soldier and the ceremonies pertaining thereto.

II. This is made necessary by the shortness of the time intervening between now and date of encampment July 10, 1899, to accomplish the work required to put this Company on a footing absolutely essential to the intelligent discharge of their duties while in camp, and to this end the commandant expects the earnest co-operation of every man in the command.

III. From now until the encampment takes place the members will be required to devote considerable extra time to the company affairs for the purpose of putting themselves in proper shape for the proposed tour of duty, and it is trusted this will be done cheerfully and to the end that the greatest good may be accomplished. Non-commissioned officers are enjoined especially to take hold of their work, giving the time necessary to put the Company on a basis of efficiency not equaled by a similar organization in the state.

IV. An examining board is hereby appointed to convene at the Armory on Wednesday June 14, 1899, at 8 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of examining for warrants: Sergeant L. Miller and Sergeant McKenney. Detail for board: 1st. Lieut. S. G. Godfrey, 2d. Lieut. A. Willey.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Geo. A. Harding's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

An Excellent Combination. The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

Had Not Forgotten It. The ward heeler, with whom the ambitious politician had been in consultation an hour or more, shook his head slowly. "I don't know how it will turn out," he said. "But I'll do the best I can for you. How about the liquor question?" "I was about to ask it," replied the ambitious politician. "What'll you take?"—Chicago Tribune.

Reckless Extravagance. Senator Hoar is not a stingy man, but he looks out for the pennies. He was riding on a street car one day, relates a Washington correspondent, and had just completed a transaction with the conductor involving the payment of a quarter of a dollar for six car tickets—4 1-6 cents a ticket—when an acquaintance got on board and took the seat next to him. The acquaintance handed the conductor a nickel and turned to open up a conversation with the Massachusetts senator. The senator fidgeted in his seat a minute and then broke in with the remark, "I am glad to see that you are prosperous."

Snake Charmers. It is generally supposed that the serpents exhibited by snake charmers have been deprived of their fangs, and this is doubtless often the case, while one instance at least is recorded in which the mouth of the snake had been sewed together to prevent it from biting.

Must Be Barbers and Musicians. There is a barber shop in an up town avenue in New York where music goes with every shave. Never a barber is hired there who cannot twinkle the sweet mandolin or plunk the dreamy guitar. The gentleman who can play on no instrument but the razor and the shears has no welcome in this tonsorial parlor, for the boss barber is musical and loves to mingle celestial strains with the tortures of the barber chair.

Theater Tickets. The fact that a ticket bought for a theater and not used on the date stamped on it is always good for an admission is not generally known and probably theater managers would take very little trouble to spread knowledge of the fact but it is nevertheless true.

Forethought. "Amanda," said the husband of the soon to be widowed young wife, "my last request is that you will not let anybody know there is a large insurance on my life. I want you to live in undisturbed enjoyment of it for a few years at least."—Chicago Tribune.
