CLEVELAND STRIKE

Car Blown up With Dynamite and Several People Injured.

OREGON TROOPS PARADE.

Oregon Troops Will Return in a Body—Root to Run the War Department—Officers Appointed.

CLEVELAND, July 23.—A Euclid-avenue car, loaded with passengers, was wrecked by an explosion of nitro-glycerine or gun cotton shortly before 11 o'clock tonight. The injured were as follows:
Mrs. E. C. Martin, 79 Alabon street; compound fracture of the skull, right arm broken and internal injuries, which may prove fatal.
E. C. Martin, right arm badly cut, and bruised about the legs and body.
Mrs. Catherine Harris, 25 Cornell street, suffering from nervous prostration.
F. A. Smith, 69 Vienna street, injured about legs and body.
Albert E. Fassett, 12 Wallace place, legs injured.
Dora Schessler, 11 Oakdale street, bruised about the body.
Late tonight it was learned that Mrs.
Martin, one of the injured, would probably die. She suffered a compound fracture of the skull, had one arm broken and was otherwise injured. She was with her husband, who was also badly hurt.
The force of the explosion was so great that it shook all the houses in the neighborhood, and was heard for a distance of two or three miles.
There is no clue to the identity of the person who placed the explosive on the track. Persons living in the neighborhood say they saw a man in a buggy stop at the corner of Kensington street, where the explosion occurred, and that he got out by the railway track. He remained there for a short time, and then drove rapidly away.
The police are now out searching for the buggy in which the dynamite is supposed to have ridden, and all stations have been notified to be on the lookout for it.
Within a few moments after the explosion, a crowd of 1000 people assembled and the injured were suffering from the shock were cared for until the ambulance arrived. None of them were dangerously injured, their hurts being confined to bruises about the feet and legs. Mrs. Martin fainted before she was taken from the car. All were taken to their homes in ambulances.
The motorman on the car managed to get out of the vestibule of the car and then fell to the street, but he quickly recovered and helped to extricate the passengers from the wreck. Passengers who were on the car say the explosion seemed to lift the whole front end of the car, and it ripped up the floor for some distance from the front end. The car was, in fact, a complete wreck, but, strange to say, it did not leave the rails, and was taken to the barn by the next outward-bound motor.
The police were quickly summoned to the scene of the explosion, and a force of men were detailed to investigate with a view of running down the person who placed the explosive on the track. A boy living near the corner saw a mysterious man in the buggy. He said he noticed the buggy drive up there and stop, and saw the man get out. He fumbled about the rails for a minute or two and then jumped into the buggy and drove away at a gallop. There seems to be no doubt now that Mayor Farley will call the three or four available militia companies in this city, in addition to those already under arms.
The call will include the battery of artillery, and the governor may be requested to send other troops to the city.
In the vicinity of the Holden-avenue barns tonight there was continuous rioting for three or four hours. Every car that passed was attacked with stones and several pistol-shots were fired at them.
There was a lively fusillade at one time, the nonunion crews returning the fire.
The only person hurt was a woman who was shot in the finger as she stood in her doorway. The police made 25 arrests in that neighborhood.
Rioting continued all along Broadway tonight and it took three squads of police as many hours to escort three cars a distance of four miles to the barns. Fifteen or 20 of the rioters were taken into custody.
Later reports from those injured show that they were hurt much worse than at first supposed. It is now said that Mrs.
Harris suffered a fracture of the skull and may die, while F. A. Smith had both legs broken. Three or four persons in addition to those whose names are given, were hurt, but none seriously.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—In a most imposing dress parade, on the occasion of a reception to the Second Oregon volunteers, by Mayor Phelan, in behalf of the people of San Francisco, the Oregonians today bid their old Springfields adieu. Tomorrow, the ordnance and general property of the regiment will be turned in, so that today was the last time the boys will handle their old war guns. No tears were shed over the approaching separation, although many of the soldiers can remember a time when the old rifle saved a good American life.

Soldiers regard the use of such an antiquated weapon by the armies of an enlightened nation in warfare with savages vastly better armed as one of the blots on the great republic's name in the recent conflicts, hence the men part with their guns with less emotion than is usual with veterans.
Praise for the splendid appearance of the regiment on parade was unbounded.
Mayor Phelan himself could not find words expressive of his admiration.
With him were Lieutenant-Colonel Bergin and Lieutenant-Colonel Beck, of the governor's staff; Colonel W. P.
Sullivan and Dennis and Dennis O.
Sullivan, and each contributed in doing honor to the Oregon men. In view of the prolonged campaign they lately experienced, where drills were unknown, the work of the soldiers this afternoon in front of the great throng of spectators, deserves especial mention.
Examinations continue without hitch or delay. Companies F, G, and M, were today before the board. But few are ordered back for more critical inspection, mainly those suffering from eye weaknesses.
General pleasure prevailed among the ranks over the final delivery of their arms tomorrow. At first the soldiers thought they would have no more guard duty after their guns were turned in, but General Summers will have them mount guard without weapons. Not many of the boys will purchase their old rifles for keepsakes, as the government price, $13 is rather high for a Springfield.
Many will purchase their mess outfits, which are rated quite cheap.
Arrangements to have the regiment return to the state intact are still under way. General Shafter did not feel disposed, on his own responsibility, to grant General Beebe's request to have the ordnance turned in at Vancouver, and telegraphed the war department again yesterday. A reply has not been received up to a late hour. It is barely possible that the order to turn in the ordnance tomorrow may yet be revoked.
There is a general desire throughout the regiment to return home intact.
Some few still desire to be mustered out here. Companies from down the Willamette and as far as Ashland, do not regard with much favor the idea of passing through their homes and having to return, unless it is without material expense to them.
A committee of officers has been inquiring what rates may be secured for the regiment, and a paper will be circulated to ascertain some stated purpose.
General Summers says the men will all return in a body if suitable arrangements are made.
Prof. Pratt, of Portland, arrived today to visit his three sons in company H.
Private Hotchkiss, of G, who was taken sick on the Ohio, is regarded in a dangerous condition. His trouble is diagnosed as acute phthisis. Major Ellis today operated on Lieutenant Brance's wounded arm, removing fractured bone and a thread of the lieutenant's blue shirt that has been imbedded since the Malabon fight.
Undue agitation is felt over the case of Private Frank Girard, of Albany. General Summers states that the soldier had applied for furlough and practically had the assent of his commanders to leave, the formal permission being absent, owing to the confusion of disembarkation.
Even had he left without notice, the general states that there certainly would be no disposition to be harsh under the circumstances. "We're hard on googoes, but not on Americans," he said.
The arrival in port today of Major Herbert W. Cardwell, on the Morgan City, about completes the original number of Second Oregon officers in the city.
Major Cardwell's distinguished services in the Philippines are not the least that the state has to be proud of in those islands.
WASHINGTON, July 24.—Just what is going to be left for Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn, when Secretary Root takes hold, is hard to say. The principal duty of Mr. Meiklejohn during the last few months has been the management of the insular affairs, and he has been busy with the Cuban, Porto Rican and Philippine matters. It is now understood that Secretary Root will take all of those things in his own hands, by direction of the president. The announcement is made that the adjutant-general and president will manage the military affairs of the government.
This time, mention of General Miles' name is omitted, although the statement comes from the adjutant-general's personal organ. While the relations between Alger and Meiklejohn have always been pleasant, they have never been so close as to make it necessary to relieve Meiklejohn. It is probable that his intimacy with Major-General Miles is displeasing to the adjutant-general, and this may account for relieving him of the duties that he has performed very well in the past.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The president has appointed the following from the Second Oregon regiment to be captains in the volunteer army:
A. F. Prescott, formerly captain.
A. J. Braze, formerly first lieutenant.
E. P. Crowne, formerly adjutant of the regiment.
