THE LOCAL NEWS.

TOOK A TUMBLE.—Monday morning at 7 o'clock O. T. Williams was doing some work on his porch when he fell a considerable distance to the ground and received several bruises about his head; painful, but not serious.

HAS ACCEPTED THE POSITION.—The notice tendered to Mrs. Helena Rinearson on the county board of examiners by Supt. Bowland, has been accepted by her. Mrs. Rinearson is a prime favorite with teachers and others and her appointment gives general satisfaction.

CHANGE OF TIME.—A new time card went into effect on the Southern Pacific passenger schedule Tuesday evening. The only change so far as Oregon City is concerned is in the time of the north and south overland which is due now at 7:30 instead of 7:08 as formerly.

HAS HIS LEG BROKEN.—On July 24th little Clarence, the 7-year-old son of J. Evans, of Beaver Creek, was riding a cow when he was thrown from the animal's back and had one of his legs broken in two places. Dr. Thomas attended to the fracture and the little sufferer is doing nicely.

LIGHTS WERE OUT.—During the electrical storm Friday evening the electric lights were turned off and a grand scramble ensued to furnish even primitive methods of lighting. The company does not care to repeat former experiences when they suffered great damage by turning the current on during a heavy storm.

$1.51 PER CAPITA.—The state land board held its session at Salem Tuesday for the purpose of apportioning the money received as interest on account of the irrevocable school fund. The entire amount received was $190,905.88 and was distributed among 132,388 children amounting to $1.51 per capita. Clackamas county has 7,888 children and receives $1,910.88.

A PRECOCIOUS TODDLER.—Last Sunday during the four-year-old boy of John Rike, living out on the plank road, wandered down town boarded an electric car and was carried to Portland. On arrival there he was given into charge of police and through their efforts he was restored to his home. The youngster is a bright one and fully able to take care of himself.

NATIVE SONS APPOINTMENTS.—Grand President Sol Blumauer, of the Native Sons of Oregon, on Wednesday appointed district deputies and standing committees. Clackamas county receives as district deputy C. H. Caulfield of McLaughlin Cabin No. 4 and on the standing committee is represented by G. Hedges on committee of laws and supervision, while Col. R. A. Miller is chairman of the literature committee.

FORESTERS INSTALL OFFICERS.—At their last meeting the Foresters of America installed their officers for the coming term. Deputy G. C. R. Phil Rowley assisted by A. Hechtman as marshal had charge of the work and it was done in a very impressive manner.

The court appointed a committee to prepare refreshments for the second meeting in August at which time the unwritten work of the order will be exemplified for the benefit of the court.

WILL PLAY AUGUST 12.—Manager Hedges, of the "Jolly Fellows" base ball combination has received word from the Multnomah team that they have a date for Saturday, August 12, and the game between the two nines will be played at Portland at that time. The team will go into active training and promise to make it interesting for the Multnomahs. Oregon City should turn out in force on this occasion and by their presence lend encouragement to the doughty champions.

CALLED HIM DOWN.—A young man did some pretty tall begging Monday night. He was going down Main street at a late hour and for some reason made a violent assault upon an empty dry goods box outside of Selling's store. Officer Shaw took a hand in the game and placed him under arrest for disorderly conduct. He put up a strong talk of "didn't mean any harm" and as he promised to go straight home was allowed to go.

A VALUED CANE.—Mr. H. I. Kelly winks the streets with a jaunty air these days, and all on account of that new cane he carries. It is made of Oregon fir, but the particular piece of fir it came from was used for a signal mast on the Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes and was taken from that vessel by Fielding Kelly when she lay in the bottom of Manila bay. The cane is much prized by Mr. Kelly and he takes pleasure in showing it to his friends.

Big Log Drive.—There is now on the way down the river one of the biggest log drives ever known on the Willamette river. It is composed of over 8,000,000 feet of logs and comes mostly from the McKenzie river. The logs are balsam, fir and other varieties for the Willamette mills and will require about a month yet to reach this place. Thirty-five to fifty men are employed and when the main drive was at Peoria last week the river was packed so full that a man could walk across the stream without getting his feet wet.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—While working with a steam wood saw last Saturday evening an aged gentleman named A. Snyder, was quite seriously injured. The saw had been at work in an alley and to get out it was necessary to hitch a team to the back end and draw it out. Snyder had hold of the tongue guiding, and in going over a curb one of the wheels struck and the tongue was thrown around with terrible force striking Mr. Snyder on the right leg, breaking the bone in four places. Mr. Snyder is over 60 years of age and the injury is a serious one at his time of life.

PURE LUCK.—Among the "tourists" on Tuesday evening's overland train was a 14-year-old boy who had made his way here alone from Illinois. He said he had an uncle living in Oregon and determined to find him although he did not know his whereabouts. On arriving here the boy was discovered and put off the train and began inquiring if anybody knew his uncle, giving his name. At about the first inquiry he found a man that knew him and further inquiry showed that he was in town. A little search brought them together and the boy left town with his relative in a happy state of mind.

HOTEL CHANGES HANDS.—Commencing with last Sunday the Electric Hotel in this city passed into the possession of Jacob Cassell. Mr. Cassell has for the past two years been engaged in running the Cliff House with signal success and under his management the Electric may be expected to soon rank as one of the best hotels in the state. He is a hotel man of much experience and with the increased room and facilities of the Electric will be enabled to demonstrate his ability in catering to the wants of the traveling public. The Cliff House will remain under his management and will be run as a lodging house.

HAD A JOEY TIME.—The Oregon City council of the Ancient Order of Pyramids had a jolly time in Willamette hall Monday evening. The steamer Pomona brought two hundred members of the order up from Portland including a first class orchestra. An excellent literary and musical program was presented, refreshments were served and the whole wound up with a big dance and everyone had a splendid time. Among the attractions was a cake walk participated in by three couples and a splendid exhibition of the graceful result. The local council has every reason to be proud of the success attending the occasion.

HAD HER SHOULDER BROKEN.—Last Saturday evening after the fireworks at Chautauque, as Mrs. J. D. Rusk, Mrs. Charles Rusk and a 5-week-old child, and a 15-year-old boy were driving to their home, a little north of Clackamas, the team shied over the embankment, which is about three feet high there, and threw the occupants out, the horse running away. Mrs. J. D. Rusk fell upon her shoulder, breaking it, while Mrs. Chas. Rusk with her young child in her arms was thrown considerably farther without injuring her or the child in the least. Mr. Myers came along about the same time and JURY TURNED HIM LOOSE.—Last Friday John Ammons, a drover in charge of a band of horses which is being herded in the vicinity of Parkplace, was arrested upon complaint of Wm. Brown, accused of having driven more than 20 head of stock across the bridge at that place at one time, in violation of a state law regulating county bridges. The case was set for hearing before Judge Schuebel on Saturday and defendant demanded a jury trial which was granted and the six good and true, after digesting the evidence, returned a verdict of not guilty. The residents of Parkplace are quite indignant over the methods of stockmen at that place and feel that their rights are being trampled upon and propose to keep after careless stockmen until they are taught to observe the rights of the public.

ECCENTRICITY AFOOT.—Last Thursday Oregon City entertained within her historic walls a unique character in the person of "Uncle Sam" Colburn. He is on a journey around the world on foot and is due at the Paris exposition in 1903. He left New York in September, 1896 and tramped to San Francisco at about the outbreak of hostilities and there enlisted in the heavy artillery expecting to be sent to the front but instead his battalion was assigned to garrison duty. He has recently been discharged and has again resumed his journey. He will tramp to Seattle and from there sail for the Orient. His appearance is unique, being a perfect picture of our Uncle Samuel as he is popularly conceived, and has a happy-go-lucky temperament which makes him friends whenever he strikes. He expects to walk over 15,000 miles before he finishes his proposed trip.

A CLERICAL FRAUD.—A. J. Smith who stopped here for about two weeks and preached occasionally, has gotten himself into trouble by his lax methods of doing business. While here Mr. Smith occupied quarters at the boarding house of Mrs. Laura Doll, of whom he borrowed a small amount of money and quietly took his departure for Salem. On Saturday last Mrs. Doll appeared before Judge Schuebel and swore out a warrant against him on a charge of larceny. Chief of Police Burns communicated with the Salem police department and it was found that he had left that city between sons, leaving behind an unliquidated board bill. The Salem Statesman in speaking of the reverend's departure from that city says: "That the man is possessed of an exceptional nerve is evident from the fact that on the Sunday afternoon preceding his departure from the city, he addressed the prisoners at the state penitentiary. Unless the reverend gentleman reforms his methods of obtaining contributions, he may be assigned to a field of labor where he may be permitted to address his auditors of Sunday last, every day, rather than in periodical installments." Since the above was put in type word has been received that Mr. Smith was arrested at Albany on Wednesday and Chief Burns went up that evening to bring the prisoner back, and he is now in custody here awaiting trial.

THE PROFESSOR'S PRIZE.

It Was Something He Could Beat, but It Got the Best of Him.

One evening last winter one of Adelbert's popular professors attended a social function where the guests played progressive polo, a game in which the worthy educator lays no claim to being an expert. In fact, on the present occasion he was credited with but two progressions, a score of really astonishing smallness. Naturally, what is termed the "booby prize" fell to him, and this time it took the form of a double yolk egg, with the following sarcastic legend attached: "Something you can beat."

The professor smilingly accepted the reward, and after it was passed around and joked upon he finally slipped it into the side pocket of his overcoat and then straightway forgot its existence.

When the party broke up, he accompanied two young ladies to their home. When they reached the house and the latekey was produced and used, it was found that the front door was locked so tightly that it refused to yield to ordinary pressure. So the professor put his hip against a panel and pushed hard. There was a dull crash, a mild yell, the professor leaped in the air and convulsively clutched at his side. The double yolk had exploded! A moment later the afflicted educator gingerly drew from his pocket a pair of exceedingly yellow gloves, followed by a muffler of the same gaudy tint. And the ladies looked against the railing and laughed until they cried. Of course they promised not to tell, but in some unfathomed way the story—like the egg—leaked out.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THAT FIRST SIN.

Figures to Show That Adam and Eve Ate Eight Million Apples.

Probably our great ancestor, Adam, little thought of the trouble he would cause posterity by eating an apple. But now the question as to how many apples he really did eat is a new difficulty.

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat? Was it one or was it millions? When the subject was first mooted the editor very naturally replied, "Why, one, of course."

"No," said the assistant editor, "Eve ate one, and Adam ate one, too; that's two."

Then the subeditor passed along a slip of paper on which was written, "Eve 81 and Adam 81, making 162." But the poet, who is a man of imagination, capped this with, "Eve 81 and Adam 812—893."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 812, equals 8,954." The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,124,240—Eve in her position. That makes 8,132,382."—Philadelphia Record.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at G. A. Harding's Drug Store.

A Minister's Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure." This was hardly what he had expected and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over, and found on the other side the matter intended for the reading.
