"You." "Of what sum?"

"Five hundred ducats." "Where were they?" "In a green purse."

"And do you suspect any one of this robbery ?"

"A valet de place."

"Should you recognize him?" "Without doubt."

Then the interrogator pushed aside a dirty cloak, discovered a dead man holding a green purse in his hand and added: "You see, sir, that justice has been done. ## An Astonishing But True Story

"My home is in Sidney, Ohio. I have been nearer death with consumption than any other living person in the world, and I want you to read this, so you can tell others. I took a severe cold and neglected it, I grew worse all the time, and at the end of two years I had run into consumption. I coughed terribly, lost flesh, could not sleep, and became so dreadfully weak that I had to take to bed. In the following eighteen months I gradually reached the last stages of consumption. No less than seven physicians treated me and all gave me up saying I was in-curable. I was absolutely helpless. The whole family wore themselves out caring for me. One day mother and sister came to my bedside, and said

I had but a day or two more to live. Tears rolled down their cheeks as they sobbed the news. The doctors had declared I was in the last stage, and no human being could save me. I was willing to die, but before going to the cruel grave. I wanted to go out and see my dearly beloved town of Sidney once more. key told me such a thing was impossible—that I would surely die before I got But I insisted, and to gratify my dying wish, a carriage was fitted up with a bed of pillows, and to this I was carried and slowly driven around Court If use Square. I got home more dead than alive. Through the mercy of Provilence, someone brought a trial bottle of medicine said to be a consumption cure, No one imagined for an instant it was worth trying. But as a drowning person crasps at a straw, so I tried this medicine. I was better after taking two Mother got more of the medicine and I took it, improving all the time.
