

CORRESPONDENCE

SHUBEL, Oct. 16.—The Lutherans celebrated Harvest festival yesterday.

Miss Bertha Hanson was married last Wednesday in the Lutheran church to Mr. Geo. Bryant. The wedding ball was held at her father's place in the evening.

Mrs. Steiner is quite sick.

Fred Moulton is hauling his hops to town.

Misses Emma and Lena Hornschub are visiting in Albany.

Karl Riemen, of Oregon City, was in our midst yesterday.

Will Steiner, of Portland, visited his parents yesterday.

Justice Schuebel, of Oregon City, was out on a business-pleasure trip Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Steideman's new house is nearing completion.

Wesley Hill is moving into his new dwelling.

Henry and Herman Hanson were at home from Eastern Oregon for a few days during the past week, but have again returned.

Farmers are beginning to dig potatoes.

Colton.

COLTON, Oct. 15.—Colton has unavoidably been silent for a long time, but if asleep, is still awake to the undisputed fact the Oregon City Enterprise is still, as ever the leading county paper.

Jack Frost has played hob with the green beans and ground cherries.

Mr. Alick Baly, of Canby is painting Mr. Gorbett's new residence.

Miss Minnie Carlson has gone back to Portland again to remain during the winter.

Joe Carlson and Frank Arquette left on the 11th for Cook's landing.

W. E. Bonney and wife made a visit to Salem last week.

A. J. Bell, of Sherwood, was visiting relatives in Colton last week.

Andrew Gorbett has gone back to Ostrander to work.

Mr. Tafferty has been making improvements in the way of a new gate in place of the steps at the school yard. School will begin next month with Miss Clinsmith, of Clarks, as teacher.

Mrs. Dave Penelton and son Herbert are visiting at Mrs. Hunters.

Johnnie Arquette is hauling lumber for a new house. Must the tin cans and cow bells be always ringing in Colton.

Cherryville.

CHERRYVILLE, Oct.—Still it is rainy and cloudy.

Your scribe wishes to remedy a mistake, in regard to the items of last week in regard to the threshing machine, it came to Cherryville last Sunday and threshed for G. T. Beebe, but do not know how well his grain turned.

M. Frasier is visiting his daughter Mrs. Shidler, of Salmon.

Mrs. Flynn was the guest of Mrs. Tapp today.

Mr. Endersly's little daughter Birdie, has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Ware and their granddaughter, Miss Allie Ware were the guests of Mrs. Beebe Sunday.

Died.—At the home of Mr. Shank's Tuesday morning, "Old John" a faithful old horse of 20 years. He yielded up the ghost without a murmur.

Sandy.

SANDY, Oct. 16.—Potato digging is the order of the day. Yield is good, but good many are complaining of potato rot.

Caspar Junker has purchased a large self-playing organ with clock attachment for his concert hall.

Prof. Karr will reopen singing school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meinig were over the mountains for a pleasure trip and visiting friends near Grass Valley.

Miss Tillie Bruns the assistant postmaster of Sandy, will soon leave for Portland.

Bicycle riding is about over for this season as roads are getting to muddy and paths are unknown here. Great deal of interest is manifested by local bicycle rider in the Portland and Mt. Hood bicycle path which is complete from Portland to Orient, Maltonah Co. line. An effort should be made to have the path built out to Sandy.

One of the most pleasant social events was the Harvest Festival ball given at Meinig's hall Saturday evening Oct. 14. Messrs. Hon. Gordon E. Hayes, Eli Maddock, John Bradley, J. McCown, Henry Meldrum were in attendance on the occasion. As Mr. G. E. Hayes was booked as the speaker of the evening and was introduced by T. G. Jonsrud, president, who spoke on "The Duties of American citizens" in a manner that won the applause and admiration of every one in the house and who all hope to have Mr. Hayes speak to us again. Eli Maddock was called upon and made a few complimentary remarks to the progress the Sandy people are making. After the speaking all went to dance till broad day light when all went home feeling most delighted.

Barton

BARTON, Oct. 16.—Looks like winter has come all ready in our burg.

E. Preston and family are going to move to Troutdale.

Miss Joyal and Mrs. Gile, of Portland, have been visiting friends and relation here.

Save up your old tin cans for they will come handy in the near future.

Business is quite lively here on Second street.

Frank Pollard and James and Gaberi Norris returned home from the mountains.

Miss Bessie Forman is on the sick list.

Gus Gard, who has been visiting friends and relations here, will return to his home in San Francisco. We are sorry to see you go Gus, but with a happy adieu and a well wish for the future we leave you.

Barton is getting quite attractive here lately that is what one of our young — said.

Smyrna

SMYRNA, Oct. 16.—The frost of Thursday and Friday night ripened the potato tops, and digging spuds is now the order of the day. Farmers are talking about forks with extra strong handles to pry them out with.

Frank Taylor came back from the coast last Monday, with a load of fine salmon, Ye scribe knows whereof he speaks for he has eaten thereof.

Our progressive farmers, Joe Schwartz and W. H. Yoder are each putting up a silo.

Our school, district No. 92, began last Monday with a good attendance, Victor Dickey is the teacher.

Mr. G. Lantz left today for Dawson county, Neb., where he has two brothers residing. Uncle Gideon as he is familiarly called will almost rank with the pioneers he having come to Clackamas county twenty three years ago and this is his first trip out of the state.

J. J. and L. H. Yoder took in the Portland exposition Friday and Saturday of last week.

The mill here had to put on extra help for the past two weeks so as to keep up with the orders for lumber.

A. L. Yoder left for Corvallis last Tuesday morning where he expects to attend O. A. C. college for the remainder of the school year. Aaron says he should have started sooner, but it was hard to leave a $250 day job to attend school.

Perry Yoder, who is working with Brovie's hop bailer near Fairfield was at home over Sunday. He says they will have a weeks work yet.

The threshing season is over at last Schwartz and Yoder pulled their outfit in last Saturday evening.

Joe Johnston's team ran away last Friday, while hauling grain to the thrasher at Mr. Bow's and although the driver, Woody Johnston was thrown all the way from ten to forty feet in the air, according to eye witnesses, he escaped with a few slight bruises, but the wagon, bundle rack, and harness were strewn among the Oak gnubs in a way that reminded one of an Iowa cyclone.

Several from the neighborhood attended the sale at John Everhart's last Saturday, and report good prices for everything.

Redland.

REDLAND, Oct. 16.—It looks as if the pleasant weather is at an end.

A pleasant surprise was tended Miss Mary and Abe Kamuscher Saturday evening. The evening was spent in games and social amusement until about 12 when a delicate luncheon was served and all took their departure for home.

FIFTY YEARS OLD

Why let your neighbors know it? And why give them a chance to guess you are even five or ten years more? Better give them good reasons for guessing the other way. It is very easy; for nothing tells of age so quickly as gray hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is a youth-renewer. It hides the age under a luxuriant growth of hair the color of youth. It never fails to restore color to gray hair. It will stop the hair from coming out also. It feeds the hair bulbs. This hair becomes thick hair, and short hair becomes long hair. It cleanses the scalp; removes all dandruff, and prevents its formation. We have a book on the Hair which we will gladly send you.

wishing many happy returns of the day.

C. V. Schults and wife inform us that they are to move from our midst. We are sorry to part with you but you know best.

The hearts of all were saddened by the death of one of our old and well respected citizens, John Shirlalinger. The deceased was an old resident of this place. The cause was old age.

Miss Annie Hicenthothen commenced the fall term of school at district No. 75 last Monday. She is well liked by all.

Harry Mosher says he is getting on nicely with his school at Mountain Home.

Misses Bertha and Ethel Sprague, of Stone, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting their grandmother Mrs. A. Sprague.

Miss Mamie Baxter, of Oregon City, spent Sunday the 8th visiting Mrs. Mosher and friends in this place.

Miss Maude Stone, who is attending High school at Oregon City, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Leonard Newkirk and wife, of Logan, spent Sunday visiting her mother Mrs. Mosher at this place.

B. F. Linn has his mill in running order and is sawing the timbers for the frame.

Stafford.

STAFFORD, Oct. 17.—Charlie Larson is working for Louis Schroeder. Threshers are still at it.

Gages will cut their buckwheat as soon as the weather is favorable.

Rieble has the roof on his large cellar.

Pollakas sunk their new well some deeper but finally gave it up as a bad job—having come to solid stone which is without seams or cracks. They will probably reill the hole—what a pity they couldn't saw it up into post holes.

Some rain fell the fore part of the week.

C. W. Larson has rented the Neilauer place (10 acres), to pay $40 a year rent. It has a good house and barn, well and several outbuildings and a young orchard just come into bearing.

A spectacle fake is making the rounds of the neighborhood.

Mr. Weddie wants to let out the digging of his spuds to some one that will take a portion of them for pay.

John Moser threshed over 20 bushels of clover seed and the quality is A 1.

Three heavy frosts last week. The tops of garden truck was withered by it.

Mrs. Schiewes' house has been ciled and the roof repaired making it very cozy.

The enrollment of scholars is slowly drawing towards the 50 mark.

Game is not overly plentiful here this season, but trespass notices are posted on all sides.

Apple picking season is near at hand the bins will not be over-loaded.

Logan.

LOGAN, Oct. 16.—The farmers are mostly through with their fall seeding in this locality. The recent rain has put some of them behind.

The lower Logan school commenced last Monday with a good attendance. Mr. W. W. Austin officiating.

Married—Mr. Geo. Clark, of Logan, and Mrs. N. Brown formerly of Portland, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Saturday. The happy couple have our best wishes.

Quite a crowd of the young people of this neighborhood serenaded Mr. Geo. Clark at his residence. They were cordially invited in and all had a jolly time. Mr. Clark knows how to treat the boys.

The social hop given by Geo. Swales and E. L. Arthur at the residence of T. McCubbin was a success both socially and financially. All reported a good time.

Ada Fallert fell at school and dislocated. (Continued from page 7.)

CLEAN HAIR PURE HAIR comes from the use of the famous Seven Sutherland Sisters' Scalp Cleaner, and with perfect cleanliness comes beauty.

Mrs. N. J. Bell, Box 60, University Place, Omaha, Neb., writes: "Every head should be shampooed frequently with this wholesome remedy."

After each shampoo, when the hair is thoroughly dry, the scalp should be treated with Seven Sutherland Sisters' Hair Grower. Sold by all druggists.

ON SEVENTH STREET Oregon City, School of Academy Grade. Thorough Instruction. Patronage solicited at low rates. Fall term opens 2nd of October. REV. W. H. DAVIS, Mrs. M. J. DAVIS.

ONLY $2.75 SEND NO MONEY. CUTTING, DRESSING, and sewing to suit state your weight and height, also number of inches around body at bust and neck, and we will send the BEAUTIFUL, FUR TRIMMED BLAZER BLOUSE to you by express COLLECT, subject to examination. You can examine and try it on at your nearest express of Dry and if found perfectly satisfactory, usually so reported, we will send the most wonderful value you ever saw or heard of. Buy the extra agent our special offer price $2.75, and express charges will average $1.00 to $1.50 cents for each 100 miles. THIS CAPES IS LATEST STYLE FOR FALL and WINTER, made from all wool black or blue genuine Russian Beavers cloth, 27 inches long, very full sweep, 15-inch upper cape, extra full. Upper cape and large storm collar, beautifully trimmed with black beaver and very upper cape trimmed with three rows and collar with two rows of blue moleskin beaver cloth bottom ornaments. This cape is the latest made throughout and equal to those that sell more than double the price. Write for free Book Catalogue. BEARS, ROEBUCK & CO., OMAHA (Cheer, Roebuck & Co. are thoroughly reliable—Editor.)

Established 1865. C. N. Greenman, PIONEER Transfer and Express, Freight and parcels delivered to all parts of the city. RATES - REASONABLE.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co. The Kind You Have Always Bought. CASTORIA

MITCHELL WAGONS... Are the Best Wagons Possible to Build... Always Have Been, Always Will Be. A reputation maintained for 65 years is a better guarantee of a good wagon made of best materials, properly seasoned, than all the promises and assertions of manufacturers' agents and dealers in new-named unknown wagons combined. Mitchell Wagon positively is a SUPERIOR ARTICLE. BUY A MITCHELL WAGON. And KNOW that you have the BEST that can be made. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. General Agents First and Taylor Streets - Portland, Oregon

If You Want First-class Job Printing A Lowest Rates. CALL AT THE ENTERPRISE.

Do You Need Any Doors, Windows, Glass, Moulding Or Other Building Material. GO TO C. H. Bestow & Co. Corner 11th and Main Sts. Oregon City, Oregon.

Aurora Harness Shop We Make a Specialty of low prices. Our Leader is TEAM HARNESS. Our Stock includes Everything Worn by a Horse. We Buy Hides for Cash. Keep Leather For Sale. Do All Kinds Repairing. R. W. Zimmerman, Proprietor

NOW Just when you want and have to have clothing is the time that we make our unheard of low prices. The prices as given in our great 1000 SUIT SALE are a wonder in the merchant tailoring trade. The finest cloth manufactured and first-class work has earned us our standard reputation for good work. The J. M. Acheson Co. MERCHANT TAILORS Third and Alder Sts., Portland, Oregon.