Women's Shoes and Their Heels. It certainly is a pity that women, with all their neatness and correctness of dress, should be so dreadfully lax about the heels of their shoes. If it is not clearly understood what is meant by this, just take a look at the heels of the next woman passing. As she Chaplain Gilbert goes to Calvary raises her skirt daintily to cross the street, there is a swish of silken draperies, a wee bit of bright hued ruffle displayed, and, alas, two woefully downtrodden heels. The run down heel is a characteristic of almost every woman-the athletic girl not excepted. They are exceedingly remiss in this direction. When a man's shoes begin to get run down, he immediately bundles them off to the shoemaker, who speedily makes them presentable. Women should take lessons on this score from their brothers. and attend to the "sloppy" shoes without delay .- St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Not the Advice Expected.

After spending more than a quarter of a century in active business life in the city a certain merchant purchased a ranch which he considers to be admirably adapted for dairy farming. Having had no practical training in agricultural pursuits, he is dependent for his knowledge of the art upon those books which purport to tell the urban bred how to do the trick. He desires to learn all he can concerning dairying and for advice betook himself to his friend and pastor, Rev. Dr. Stebbins, in whose omniscience and wide reading he has absolute confidence.

"Do you know anything good on milk, doctor?" he asked the venerable man of Gal.

The jovial pulpiteer, who knows more of the "sincere milk of the word" than of any other lacteal fluid, answered solemnly:

"Yes, my dear sir, I believe I am familiar with the best thing on milk that can be found anywhere."

"What is it, doctor?" eagerly and unsuspectingly asked the budding rancher.

"Cream," ejaculated the preacher as he hurried round the corner.-San Francisco News Letter.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was

To go anywhere with my face in this condition," is the expression of a very natural feeling. To a beautiful woman an eruption on the face is the greatest of calamities, her very beauty seeming to increase the disfigurement. Ninetyeight times in every hundred, eruptions are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and the skin recovers its maiden bloom and softness. "Golden Medical Discovery" is a medicine which acts directly on the blood gurifying it, increasing its quantity and its rich-pess. Eruptions, blotches, pimples, etc., are but surface signs of the corrupt blood current underneath, "Discovery" cleanses the blood, and so cleanses the skin.

"For about one year and a half my face was very badle broken out," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 116 West Main St., Battleervek, Mich, "I sport a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received nu benefit. GOVERNOR W. W. THAYBE who died in Portland the first of the week was one of the best known men in Oregon. He was a man of strict integrity, large experience and ability of no mean order. He took a leading part in the history and development of Oregon. Being both governor and on the supreme bench he did much for the state and did it in a manner that was a credit to the state and to himself.

BRYAN is in Kentucky, denouncing the government of the United States for not hanling down the flag in Luzon and turning the sixty tribes in the Philippines over to the Tagals.
