In the matter of the change in the Creawell and Milwaukie road. In the matter of the report of John W Meidrum, deputy county surveyor, on the change in the Byres and Day change in the Creswell and Milwaukie road in Clackamas county. I submit berewith field notes of the survey and maps of the route of the proposed change in Cres-weil and Milwaukie road which because of the manner of which it has been re-ceived I have designated on the map as the Byres and Day change in the Cres-weil and Milwaukie road and respectfully recommend that, in case of the approval of this change an order be made requiring the same to be recorded in the Pecord of Roads for Clacksmas county. The deed conveying to the board of county commissioners of Clackamas county the necessary strip of land required to make the change through the lands of J B Day, I made out and transmitted on the 14th day of September, 1969, to Mr J B Day at Salem, Or, as requested by him to be executed by himself and wife and returned to the county clerk of Clackamas county. It will clerk of Ciackamas county. It will be perceived by inspecting the map here-with submitted that the changed road from the north end thereof to the inter-section of the north boundary of J B Day's land, a distance of 1.47 chains passes over land belonging to J A Byers, which is not regularly laid out as a county road. I transmit herewith a deed to be executed by said Byers and wife conveying the required strip of land to the board of county commissioners, and respectfully recommend that said deed be duly executed by said Byers and wife and delivered, preliminary to incurring further expense in the opening of this change in the Creswell and Milwaukie Sald report was made on this day
