Molalia Cattleman Held up on the Highland Road and Relieved of $80.

Last Monday evening as Dee Wright, the stockman of Molalla, was going home from Oregon City he was held up by two highwaymen four miles out on the Highland road, at about 6 o'clock, The robbers secured $80.

Wright was riding horseback and the men appeared in front of him, walking the same direction he was going. On reaching them he was asked for a match and as he reached for it, one of the men grabbed his arm and the other grabbed his horse. In attempting to break away the horse slipped and Wright was thrown, or pulled off. He fought hard, having no weapon, but was finally overcome by choking, and robbed. Before being overcome Wright was struck at with a knife several times and had the marks of four different blows, one on his forehead, cheek, arm, and one went through his clothing directly over his heart, but fortunately barely drew blood.

Wright came back to town and notified Sheriff Cooke who with several others went out and made a thorough search but could find no trace of the thieves, beyond that they had gone on foot to the Molalla road and from there all track is

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine.

$50 Reward.

The above amount will be paid for information that will lead to the conviction of the party or parties, implicated in the hold-up and robbery of Dee Wright, on Monday night about 6 o'clock. November 2, 1899.
