Oregon City Enterprise hatchery consigned to New Zealand, The shipment was authorized by the government and the experiment of transplanting salmon to the waters of that island will be closely watched by all interested.

> AT THE HATCHERY .- Supt. S. W. Downing was in town Tuesday and stated that the catch at the Clackamas hatchery this season would be only about 600,000 eggs. The washing away of the racks during the recent high water was a great set back and lors to the hatchery. In addition to the eggs taken here they have received 1,500,000 from the Little White Salmon which will keep things moving.

FORCED TO ENLARGE.-For sometime pastribe firm of Burmeister & Andresen have been cramped for lack of room to conduct their rapidly growing jewelry and musical merchandise business. The difficulty will be overcome by tearing out a partition in the rear of the store and converting that room into a part of the main store. The extra room gained by this will amount to twenty feet in length and will temporarily rolieve their troubles, Several new counter show cases will be put in, as will also a large section of wall cases for the display of silverware, and an elegant line of decorated china ware just imported by the firm and not yet unpacked on account of and bicycles, the 1900 patterns being about ready to place on the market. When the contemplated alte ations are made the firm will have one of the prettiest and most up-to-date stores in the state.

WHAT IS SHILDH.

A Minister's Mistake.

Senator Elkins' Great Scheme, During the presidential campaign of 1892 Senator Quay and Senator Elkins, who were managing the Republican interests, and ex-Senator Brice and Henry Watterson, who were in charge of the Democratic headquarters, used to live at the same hotel and frequently dined together. One evening, as they were sitting at the same table, Mr. Brice looked over to Senator Quay and asked:

"How are you folks off for money?" "We are very hard up," replied the epublican chairman. "How are you getting along?"

"Well," said Brice, "whenever we want money I go down into my own pocket for it. I have not been able to get much anywhere else."

"You are lucky to have a pocket to go into," said Senator Quay. "If I had money of my own, I would not grumble."

"But," said Brice, "I have to borrow 11.11

"Gentlemen," said Senator Elkins, "I have a suggestion to make. Suppose we four go down town tomorrow and borrow $1,000,000 upon our joint indorsement and divide it between the two parties and then let whichever one wins pay the notes?"-Chicago Record.

Gladstone's Peculiar Eyes.

There is an anecdote in Blackwood's of Gladstone and Professor Blackie which confirms the story of the statesman's eaglelike eyes. At a dinner the two men were opposite, and when Gladstone gave in a forcible way his idea that Homer was no longer recited but chanted, the professor cried out, "Mr. Gladstone, I don't believe a word of it!" Then he rose to argue the matter and said one sentence, but got no further. He had met Gladstone's gaze and seen his outer cyclids widened to their fuliness in a steady glare, and his tongue stumbled and he sank back into his chair in confusion. The writer concludes;

"Go to the zoo for it. Take your umbrella. Make your way to the place where the engles, vultures, falcons and such like creatures blink on their perches. Select a bird. Stare at him with insult, and you will see the outer lids expand as Mr. Gladstone's did. Poke at him with your umbrella. The filmy vertical lids through which he looks at the sun and opens to paralyze his feelings."

Her Husband's Story

"My name is E. J. Sprong, and my address is 16 Bondman Block, Troy, N. Y. I want to tell how thankful I am that my wife's health has been restored to her. About a year ago she caught a dreadful cold, which settled in her bronchial tubes and lungs. She certainly had bronchitis, and I think consumption, too, and we despaired of her life. She had a tightness and soreness in the chest, and it was difficult for her to breathe. There were darting, sharp, dull and heavy pains, with constant coughing and expectorat-"ing. Each day she was worse than the day before. I was advised to get Acker s English Remedy, and did so, but my wife only shook her head and said : 'Another dollar thrown away.' She took the Remedy, however, and said the effect was magical.
