

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Meeting Held at West Oregon City Saturday.

The November meeting of the Teachers' Association of Clackamas was held at the school building at West Oregon City on Saturday, November 25, 1899.

A goodly number of teachers and school officers were in attendance and school officers were in attendance and school officers were in attendance.

These in immediate charge of the incidental features of the meeting were Principal T. J. Gray and assistants, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Ryland and Miss Shipley.

They made all visitors feel both at home and at ease.

Meeting called to order at 1 p. m. by President N. W. Howland in the chair.

Minutes of previous meeting read, corrected and accepted.

The program of the day was opened by the Association singing our national anthem, America, Mrs. Haines acting as organist.

Roll call, each teacher responding with a quotation.

"Biography of Wendell Phillips" was the title of a highly entertaining paper presented by J. W. Gray, of Parkplace school.

The speaker spoke of the childhood, school days, early manhood, manhood and oratorical powers of Phillips.

Of aristocratic lineage, and reared in affluence, there was nothing in the life of Phillips to incline him to any great sympathy with the "down side" masses.

He was a man of whose condition he had no personal knowledge. However, through the acquaintance of Garrison, he made within a year, at the sacrifice of health, legal standing and social position, he enrolled himself in the unpopular ranks of abolition.

He went through the country whenever he could and a few sympathizers and talked to the people against slavery.

"School Libraries" was the subject assigned Mrs. Evans, of Oswego, who read an interesting paper on same.

She referred to the great advantages of these libraries to the school and the community.

Mrs. Evans said the establishing and maintaining of free libraries should be an obligatory upon the state taxpayer as the public schools are.

The speaker also referred to the library department of the "Womens' Club" saying that it would present to the next legislature a bill saying that a tax of 1/2 of a mill be levied for library purposes.

The notable event of the day was a very interesting and instructive number in the form of an eloquent lecture on "Turkey and the Turks" delivered by Mr. D. P. Thompson, of Portland, Examiner to Turkey.

The speaker was thoroughly acquainted with his subject, having been the representative of our nation to the Turkish Empire at one time.

All who know Mr. Thompson are aware of his rare powers of observation, and in this instance he seems to have laid down everything that came under the scope of his official vision, while speaking in that Empire, relating to Turkish character, manners, and customs of the people and their educational system.

His lecture proved of the great interest to all who heard it, and the Association showed their appreciation by tendering a vote of thanks to the lecturer.

"Brown's In Town."

The new farce, "Brown's In Town," which is the attraction at Shively's for Tuesday evening, Dec. 5th, is said to be one of the brightest and cleanest comedies ever seen on the stage.

It is about a young couple who are living in the country under an assumed name, so the father of the young man will not hear of the match.

Incidentally, every one they know, the father, the wife's suitor, a girl friend, and everybody who should be at home comes around and makes things interesting.

Of course it takes a good deal of preparation to straighten things out and before the audience knows it, the suitor of the wife is pretending to be her husband, and she is obliged to maintain the relationship.

The whole thing about the play is "go." When "Brown" gets to running nothing can stop it but "time to go home."

Sets on sale at Huntley's.
