O. L. Barber was a prominent Marquette in the city Monday. Mr. Barber is a member of the board of directors of the recently organized hop grower's association and is very enthusiastic over the organization. While it was organized too late for effective work this season he is confident that they can do a pile of good for the hop producers another year.

Local Events.

All prices at the Congregational Fair will be moderate.

The receipts of the county clerk's office for November amounted to $246.75.

Don't forget the Fair of the Saturday Club at the Congregational church on Friday evening, December 15.

The Pyramids order enjoyed a very pleasant social session Monday evening. Dancing was the chief attraction.

There will be a special meeting of the Altamaha Lodge No. 1, Saturday evening, December 9th. Work in the F. C. degree.

Dr. E. A. Sommer has removed his office from the Barclay building to his residence, rear of Huntley's drug store.

The pastor of the Baptist church will preach a special sermon on Sunday morning on the subject of "Education." All interested are especially invited.

While E. D. Tong, of Damascus, was unloading potatoes from his wagon in Portland Tuesday, he slipped and fell to pavement. The fall bruised him considerably and fractured his collar bone.

During the month of November there were 75 deeds recorded in the recorder's office; 41 mortgages were recorded and 34 mortgages cancelled. Five chattel mortgages were received. The cash receipts were $161.95.

J. P. Miller arrived here from the East Thursday morning with a carload of household goods, farming implements and some live stock. Mr. Miller was out here some time ago and purchased a fine farm near Parkplace upon which he will make his home.

The Y. M. C. A. starts a voting contest today for the most popular lady in Oregon City. A valuable present will be presented to the winner on New Year's day at the close of the contest. Vote for your lady if you want her to win.

Lecture "Turks & Turkey" by D. P. Thompson will be held at Parkplace school house Friday eve Dec. 7, for the benefit of the library fund. Adults 20 cents, children 10 cents. Everybody come.

The Bancroft founding act has been held good by the Supreme court and the city has nothing to do but pay the costs in the suit with the Stratton estate and take the medicine. It does not always do to try and push a case when the best legal opinion says it is doubtful.

A pleasant party was enjoyed by a large number of guests Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Rowland, corner of Sixth and Main streets. The occasion was the fiftieth birthday of Mrs. Rowland and will long be remembered by those present for the many pleasing features of the evening.

Separate Co. F. held their regular weekly drill Monday evening with a good attendance. Following the drill a company meeting was held and a large amount of business transacted. The company is in a prosperous condition and the member's interest in the organization is unabated.

Miss Blanche Beatrice McCord of Oregon City and Mr. Lyman Mulvaney were married Saturday, December 24, at St. John's parsonage, Rev. A. Hillebrand, officiating. Miss McCord is well known here and Mr. Mulvaney is a R. R. engineer in the employ of the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blount, of Canby, was taken before the county court Wednesday to be examined as to her sanity. She was found to be afflicted with a mild form of insanity, largely due to her age, being 85 years old, and she was ordered committed to the state insane hospital. She is possessed of some property and her brother, Wm. Blount, was appointed guardian.

The Saturday Club will give their first Fair on Friday evening, December 15, in the lecture rooms of the Congregational church. The departments will consist of fancy articles, dressed dolls, doll millinery, home-made candies and refreshments. The admission fee of 10 cents will be redeemable at any department. The doors will open and sale begin at 7:30.

The funeral of Miss Yonis Walker, the 16-year old daughter of Sol Walker who died of consumption last Wednesday, was held Saturday from the family residence, and was largely attended by many sorrowing friends of the deceased. Solar Circle Women of Woodcraft attended in a body and Rev. Atkins preached a very impressive funeral sermon. The remains were laid away in Mountain View cemetery.

J. W. Graham, an old resident of this county died Sunday near Sherwood from chronic inflammation of the stomach. Mr. Graham established and ran Graham's ferry on the Willamette for years. He was buried Tuesday by the A. O. U. W. at Pleasant Hill. He leaves a wife and five daughters and three sons, one of the latter, Charles Graham, returned recently from Germany where he had been studying music.

The Y. M. C. A. debating society on Wednesday evening proved very interesting to the members and was vigorously conducted by the participants. The subject under discussion was "Resolved that the Boers were justified in declaring war against England" with J. W. Loder and Arthur Holden on the affirmative and Howard Brownell and John Scroggs on the negative. A decision was awarded the affirmative side.

Burmeister & Andersen have as fine a jewelry store as you will find in many a city twice the size of this place. The stock they keep is such that all wants can be supplied at home. The improvements in the way of enlarging the store for their new stock, putting in new fixtures and a new gas plant for lighting the store are complete. Their store is a credit to the town and the money expended is more than coming back in increased trade.

In Justice Schuebel's court Wednesday the case of L. A. Stayer vs. B. J. Helvey and R. Fanton was on trial before a jury. The testimony showed that defendants had purchased an old second hand threshing engine from plaintiff and the suit was brought to enforce the payment of a note for $100 given for same. Defendants set up the claim that the engine was defective and besides resisting payment of the note asked for damages sustained. The jury wrestled with the proposition for several hours without being able to agree and finally got tired of the job and quit. Geo. C. Brownell represented the defendants and T. F. Cowing appeared for plaintiff.

HUNTLEY'S BOOK STORE, Oregon City, Or.

A QUIET ELECTION DAY.

A Light Vote Cast and But Little Interest Displayed.

The city election Tuesday was remarkable for the fact that it was the most quiet election day ever witnessed in Oregon City. The usual hurry and bustle was lacking and a stranger in town would never have known from surface indications that an event of annual public interest was transpiring. There was considerable work done in each ward, which while it was not of a demonstrative nature, proved effective in getting out a good vote.

The voting this year was largely of the "vest pocket" character and but very few challenges occurred.

The official canvass showed that 573 votes were cast in the city divided by wards, as follows, first, 239; second, 210; third, 124. Latourette for mayor and Jones for treasurer had no opposition and the large complimentary vote they received is most gratifying to their friends. The non-partisan ticket for councilmen in the first and second wards was successful, Koerner being elected over Little, independent citizen, by a majority of 27, and Albright beating Metzner by 46 votes. In the third ward the independent citizens ticket made a clean sweep, Grace being an both tickets received 111 votes. Schuebel's majority over Friedrich was 50 and Story's majority over Williams was 55.

The vote in detail was as follows:

FIRST WARD.
Latourette	197
Jones	208
Koerner	133
Little	106
SECOND WARD.
Latourette	181
Jones	198
Albright	128
Metzner	82
THIRD WARD.
Latourette	111
Jones	114
Schuebel, 1 year	87
Friedrich 1 year	37
Story, 2 years	83
Williams 2 years	38
Grace 3 years	111

A Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
