FRUIT IN DANGER.-Reports from different sections of the county during the past week state that the sap is running is the fruit trees and in case of a heavy host next year's crop will be ruined. The fear is general over the state and the weather department is earnestly repested to turn the cool weather valve on is order to stop the flow of sap before it is

WILL PLAY AT SALEM .- The Oregon City Y. M. C. A. basket ball team will pto Salem today and play the associaton team of that city a match game this staing. For tomorrow they have aceptel an invitation to play the Willam. the University team. The team is compsed of Geo. Case, capt., Nick Humphreys, Frank Montgomery, Willie leters, and Dave Williams and they are sendition to put up a splendld game, latractor Grilley and Referee W. Beach til accompany the team.

PLENTY OF CANDIDATES. -The board of maty commissioners had troubles of ber own last week when they came to appointing of road supervisors for esting year. The office is one that has tams for most men, on account of its amunerative qualities, and the commissioners were besieged with appli-

Oregon City Enterprise cants for the position. The result of appears elsewhere and the general ex pression is that the appointments as whole, are good ones.

> ATTEMPTED BURGLARY .- The Quint residence at Canemah last Friday night was the scene of an attempt at burglary Mrs. Qoinn was awakened by a noise in the kitenen and supposing it to be caused by the cat, started to investigate, She had no light and as she opened the kitchen door was surprised to find a man leaving by the outside door. Upon searching it was found that the introder had spread a towel on the floor and in it was packing all the eatables he could find, but in his hurry he forgot to take his plunder. Nothing else had been disturbed and no clue to his identity was found.

ABOUT REGISTRATION-Although the new law requiring the registration of voters has been in effect but about two weeks enough confusion has developed to render life a burden to county clerks, and in a number of cases voters have declared they would forego the privilege of voting before they would undergo the trouble necessary to secure the right of franchise. The difficulty lies in the matter of naturalization, those acquiring citizenship in that manner being forced to produce legal evidence of the fact that they are naturalized. Legal evidence in this case means their original papers or certified copies of them, and to many of the old timers this is no easy task. In many cases men who have voted for twenty years and more in Clackamas) county will be shut out unless they can secure copies of their papers issued in eastern courts long years ago. Another lass who will suffer are they who were under age at the time their father took the oath of allegiance. In order to make their title clear they must present a copy of their father's papers, or take out papers in their own name. As one year must elapse from the time of making the declaration of intention before the final papers can be issued, it looks as though many votes would be lost from that cause. Taking it all around the natur- election were appointed by the board: alized voter has troubles of his own and if he succeeds in securing his rights in most cases it will be at an expense of from $1 to $3 for certified copies. But there is one thing to be kept in mind, do not blame the county clerk if he refuses to register you. His duties are defined very clearly and he has no option but to adhere strictly to the letter of the law.
