

CORRESPONDENCE

Borings.

BORINGS, Feb. 5.—It has been some time since there has been any news in the columns of the Enterprise from Borings. But this is no sign that we are not able to kick. Some of our populist brethren are still kicking on expansion and beralling the administration. But their howling does not make things so, we are glad to say. Every argument advanced by our opponents can be paralleled in the speeches of their predecessors during the civil war. They attack us as imperialists, but we are no more imperialists than were the men who voted for Lincoln and who bore arms under Grant and Sherman in 1864. Admiral Dewey, when he went into Manila bay, did not serve the designs of imperialists. He was merely carrying out the historical policy of nations, the policy which was pursued by Geo. Rogers Clark, when by conquest, he added Indiana and Illinois to the Union during the Revolutionary war; by Sam Hudson, when he and his followers brought about the admission of Texas to the United States. Remember that expansion is not only the handmaid of greatness, but, above all it is the handmaid of peace.

Mrs. Wm. Hickey is spending the winter in Portland with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richey made a trip to Portland last week.

A crew of hands have been rolling logs on the road so the stumps can be blown out.

J. A. Sutton is back from the logging camp. He has been at work in Washington.

Rain, mud and cold weather does not stop flying trips to Jud Ridge and Barton. Boys we had better get our cow bells and tin cans all turned up for we will be apt to have use for them before long from all signs.

Milwaukie.

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 5.—Henry Stucky is hauling wood.

Many of our farmers are plowing and sowing grain, taking advantage of the good Oregon weather.

Mr. Mathews is digging a long ditch in Mr. McLoughlin's bottom land, on Kellogg creek.

Ed Bottemiller has built a handsome new boat. We may expect to see many of his gentle sex friends taking pleasure rides on the river this summer. He has recently purchased a buggy and harness and has a wheel which is the best one in the neighborhood (so he says), now if he only had a flying machine he would have all the locomotion needed.

Alexander Zander, whose parents reside here, had the misfortune to lose three of his toes while working in the gold mines near Grants Pass. His brother Albert is with him and the last account is that he is about on crutches.

B. Tscharner struck his thumb with a hammer on Saturday so hard that the nail came off. He now carries his hand in a sling, the wound being very painful.

S. W. Jones, of Gervais, is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. L. L. Moore.

F. O. Paine was shaking hands with old Milwaukie friends preparatory to a trip East.

J. Anderson has returned to his duties after an extended trip East, by way of California. He returned via Utah after visiting Kansas and settling up the family estate.

John Miller is building an addition to his house, and is having the well known plaster contractors, John E. Wetzler and Albert Wetzler, spread mortar on the entire inside of his residence.

Al Henneman returned from an extended trip up the valley, where he bought 12 or more car loads of spuds for a Portland firm.

Will Kuehl was in Oregon City Sunday to attend the funeral of his old comrade in arms, Ernest M. Foster.

Sam Hoesley has bought a fine horse of Mrs. Atkinson.

Miss Constance Ralph was in town Wednesday visiting some of her friends.

The German Ladies Aid society met at Mrs. Oatkin's home on Thursday. The new officers are: Mrs. W. Kuehl, president; Mrs. H. Schrader, vice-president; Miss Emma Schrader, secretary; Mrs. P. Roth, treasurer. The society is progressing nicely and much good is being done, nearly every German lady here is now an active member.

Miss Rose Tscharner has graduated at the Portland High school and a large number of her friends went to the graduating exercises at the High school Wednesday evening. She was the recipient of many flowers among them was a beautiful basket of red carnations, presented by her Sunday school classmates.

We notice from the Sunday Oregonian, Feb. 4, that a call has been issued from the fruit growers convention at Corvallis for a meeting of the prune growers in Portland, March 7th and 8th for the purpose of forming a union. To this we say amen and hope the Clackamas county prune men will support the movement.

The Grange play that is being prepared cannot be delivered until the new hall is built, as Mr. Motter the dramatic club's trainer, says he will bring 100 persons from Portland which would fill the old hall to overflowing. It is hoped the number will be limited to such an extent that a few Milwaukie people will be able to attend.

Milwaukie has a new grocery flunkey? Ahem!

Geo. Wissinger is reported to be sick in Washington.

The Grafting machine has again got in its dastardly work upon the people who were easy to persuade that it will rain "16 to 17" dollars about the 24th.

On Friday a party was held in Mr. Selwood's tower. About 15 couple of school children were entertained by Master Will Selwood. The novelty was that the boys furnished all the refreshments and the girls were present to help enjoy the meal and fun, both were plenty.

Miss Lydia Bottemiller will go to Spokane, Wash., on Tuesday, where she has a position in the M. E. deaconess' home as nurse. On Friday evening a number of her friends surprised her, by coming to her home in a body and singing as they were at the door. When she opened it there they were with good things to eat and smiling faces. They were invited in and took possession of the premises. She was presented with a German bible, elegantly bound in morocco and gold, by Rev. Geo. Harting, to which she made a fitting response. The evening was spent in playing games, singing, social conversation and a dainty repast being served. We all wish her success and God's speed in her new undertaking.

A house full of Miss May Harrigan's friends surprised her on Saturday night. A nice time was had by all present. Games were played and a well prepared lunch was served.

Rev. Geo. Harting is holding protracted meeting in the M. E. church and on Feb. 13 the ministers convention will be given and last three days.

On Thursday evening a wood hauler, Dick Hunter, was relieved of $2 00 in front of the Harmony school house by two men.

On Sunday morning or Saturday night, some burglars entered the home of Mr. Henneman and secured all their bread, a whole cheese, a cake and a quantity of cookies. A quantity of meat disappeared at Andy Walker's. The shutter was opened at Mr. Tscharner but some one happened to be up at that time and so the would-be thieves were frightened away. At Moterman Howell's a fine dressed chicken was taken and the pla'e thrown in Homer Mullen's yard and at Casper Kerr an over coat was taken out of the blacksmith shop and some other things are missed. At Fred Breg's the porch larder was emptied of a cake, two pies, a bucket of lard, three rolls of butter, $1.00 worth of condensed cream, some pickled herring and a lot of soap. Mr. Berg says he is out of $5 or $6 worth of provisions. At Mrs. Quant the lock on the wood shed was broken and the contents of several demijohns sampled, and as they contained vinegar, the filled glasses were left standing. On Sunday morning two pie plates, and a lot of butter smeared on the steps of the M. E. church was found.

Marquam.

MARQUAM, Feb. 5.—L. D. Hall, one of the old pioneers of this country died at the residence of his grand-daughter, Mrs. Ida Jack, of Glad Tidings. Father Hall, as he was called, crossed the plains in 1851, settling upon North Howell Prairie, where he resided until late years when he sold, and for some time resided at University Park. For the past year he has been here near Marquam. For over seventy years he was a faithful member of the Methodist church. His funeral was held in the Monitor church and he was buried near Mt. Angel, where his wife and part of his children are buried. He leaves one son, Charles C. Hall, of North Yakima, Wash.

Wm. Whittington and family are moving to Springwater, where he is to start a blacksmith shop.

Wm. Jack, of Marquam, has sold his stock and rented his farm. He will move to Silverton to engage in the undertaker's business.

A. B. Marquam and wife visited her sister, Mrs. Leslie, above Wilhoit Springs, on the Molalla, who was partially paralyzed lately.

Rev. Milton, of the U. B. church, preached to a large congregation on Sunday night at Marquam.

James Marquam and family visited on North Howell Prairie Saturday and Sunday.

Sherwood News.

SHERWOOD, Feb. 6.—Mr. Ora Johnson, a prominent farmer of Sherwood, has bought property here, we understand, and expects to move to town in the near future.

We are very sorry to note the death of Miss Anna Varner. She had been sick only a week, but on Tuesday she was called away. She leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

Alison Baker, of Graeme passed through here on his way to Portland to get repairs for his new mill.

A. J. Bell was in Oregon City Saturday on business.

Mr. Henry Beavert, an old and respected citizen of Sherwood, Or., died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Snyder, on Sunday morning, Jan. 28,

Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain. Which is it? If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep. You are as tired in the morning as at night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good. Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

To Hasten Recovery.

You will be more rapidly cured if you will take a laxative dose of Ayer's pills each night. They arouse the sluggish liver and thus cure biliousness.

Write to our Doctors. We have the exclusive services of some of the most eminent physicians in the United States. Write freely all the particulars in your case. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

1900. He was born in Polk Co., Kansas, Dec. 16, 1837. He crossed the plains, driving an ox team, in 1853 and reached Portland the same year, where he stayed a short time, living on the east side of the river. From Portland he came up the river as far as Champoux, and after living there a short time, came to Sherwood, where he lived till his death. He was married to Mary C. Baillie who died about 23 years ago. To them were born four daughters, two of whom, Mrs. W. A. Snyder, and Mrs. Alex. Baillie, are still living; their second child having died in infancy and the fourth when about sixteen years of age. For several years Mr. Beavert was engaged in mining in different parts of the state and was very extensively known. He suffered a stroke of paralysis several years ago, which was followed by several slight ones, the last one which occurred in Aug., 1898, leaving him helpless. He bore his affliction very patiently and was glad when the summons came. J. M. Barber, of the Congregational church at Sherwood, conducted the funeral at the home where he died, and his remains were laid to rest in the Pleasant Hill cemetery. He will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Redland

REDLAND, Feb. 5.—Again I feel called upon to seize my pen and let the world know of some of the stirring events that are happening and will soon happen.

The farmers of Redland have most of their spring plowing done, and some are preparing to seed, soon. The early bird catches the worm.

Say! Those fairy tales that have been told by that Stafford correspondent of late about the tobacco plant growing out of doors and the blue birds and the like, might do to tell to some one who lived within the bounds of the Arctic circle or some other part of the world, where such things are not known, but to we Oregonians it won't do.

Mr. A. Argenter, who was up before the court for threatening the life of James Seaver, the mail carrier, was released on his own recognizance. It is not a good idea to let such characters run at large. It is a serious offense to lay for a man with a gun if it is only loaded with powder.

Harry Hubart, one of our highly esteemed and well respected boys, has been arrested for using obscene language to a lady. The cause was that he had been taunted by the same. It looks as if this difficulty could have been over come by going to the boy's parents, instead of the law, which will add cost, hard feelings, and, above all, disrespect for a good, studious, highly esteemed boy.

Savere, our mail carrier, reports that Argenter stops him and again threatens his life. It is time he was put where he belongs.

There will be an entertainment and basket social given at the Redland school house, on the evening of Feb. 23rd. All are invited to attend, and the ladies are cordially invited to bring a basket or a pie. The proceeds will go to aid in purchasing books for the library. The people of Redland know the value of a good library.

We heartily indorse the attitude of Samantha toward polygamist Roberts, while it was a day of great joy when we heard he was denied his seat.

F. E. Murdock, of Macksburg was seen in our town Sunday.

Rev. Sopier delivered an excellent sermon at the Bethel church Sunday.

Smyrna

SMYRNA, Feb. 5.—F. E. Taylor is hauling potatoes to Hubbard.

Sam Lantz has moved into Hans Spahr's house and will do some clearing for the latter.

Next Saturday, Feb. 10, at one o'clock p. m., the registration officer will be at the Sampson school house. Let all who are entitled to register, turn out.

J. P. Lantz, of Albuquerque, N. M., has been spending the past week in our midst, visiting old acquaintances. He visited here eleven years ago and praises us for the progress we have made since then.

In last week's Oregonian we notice a complaint about the cows using the suburban cycle paths. Our cows are better mannered than that, but there are equestrians in the community who are lacking in good manners or they would not ride their horses on the foot and cycle paths, even if those paths are made by volunteer labor.

Graeme

GRAEME, Jan. 5.—The Sunrise lodge of the A. O. U. W. initiated two members at their last meeting.

Will Graham and bride left last Monday for Germany, where Mr. Graham will resume his studies of music.

Baker brothers have purchased the Aurora sawmill and are erecting it near here; they expect to have it running in the near future.

We learn that Edward Brown, formerly of this vicinity, now in the Philippines, whose term of enlistment expired Jan. 15th, has reenlisted.

A basket social was given at the Hood View school house by the Dewey debating society Friday evening. The proceeds will be used for school purposes.

The last question solved by the Dewey debating society was "Resolved, that Washington was a greater general than Napoleon," which was decided in favor of the negative.

Beaver Creek

BEAVER CREEK, Feb. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Phelps, of Cathlamet, Wash., and Miss Ethel Hughes, of Salem, are the guests of Henry Hughes and wife.

Wm. E. Owens and sister, Mrs. H. E. Hughes have returned from Woodland, Cal., to which place they had been called by the serious illness of their brother, who died shortly after their arrival.

Prof. Ginther intends having a school entertainment at the end of the term and is already instructing some pupils who "carry a tune."

Mr. and Mrs. Micheal, of Oregon City, are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Herman.

The Hall Co. will have a kitchen built in time for their next dance, which will be held on the evening of Feb. 22nd.

Wm. O'Conner is on the sick list.

On Saturday, Enos, youngest son of O. H. Hughes, fell from a fence and fractured his arm. The fracture is being attended to by Dr. T. B. Thomas.

Mr. Johnson, a former resident of this place, but now of Los Angeles, Cal., was visiting his old friends here the last few days.

The basket social held at the hall on Friday evening, was a grand success. All the baskets and cakes sold at a fair price and one basket sold for $1.10. The proceeds will be used to buy dishes for the hall.

Ely.

ELY, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Moran returned Saturday from LaCamos, Wash., after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Ely, of that place.

Mr. J. R. Elliot, of Minn., is looking around with a view of locating in this vicinity.

Mr. Gerhauser is in receipt of numerous inquiries from the east, in regard to prices of farms in this community.

W. B. Stafford is nursing a carbuncle on his left clavicle.

Prof. Darling's school [has closed for the winter. It is promised there will be a spring term.

Causes of Loss of Hair

Dr. Sabouraud, the eminent French Dermatologist, says that 98 per cent of hair losses are the results of microbes and the neglect of dandruff. The antiseptic action of preparations kills microbes and removes dandruff. Their constant use for a period will, by acting directly on the hair bulbs, furnish nourishment, vitality and growing power to the impoverished roots and hair shafts, resulting in complete restoration.
