

BRILLIANT MUSICALS.

Given at Congregational Church Under the Direction of Mrs. E. E. Charman

Music-lovers were given a rare treat last Friday evening at the Congregational church, the event being the musicals given under the personal direction of Mrs. E. E. Charman.

The first number was an instrumental trio, selection from "Faust" by Misses Lulu and Mattie Draper and Mr. Surryne, and their brilliant playing portrayed the absent words to such a selection.

"Peggy," by McLimes Charman, Porter, Pope and Canfield was the happy blending of four well trained voices, and received a hearty encore.

In the rendition of "Good Bye Sweet Day," Mrs. Harry Miller betrayed a voice that at times was soft and caressing, at times was strong and noble.

The "cello solo," "La Rosa" by Frank Surryne was a delightful feature of the program.

"I would That My Love," was most enthusiastically received, as sung by Mrs. E. E. Charman and E. E. Campson.

Little Ramona Rollins is a well known musical prodigy, and in "Mignon," her voice fell upon the audience as refreshing as a dewdrop on a summer rose.

In her recital of "Wide Awake" Miss Clara Warner proved herself a sparkling gem in elocutionary circles.

Mrs. Harry Miller sang "My Heart Sings" with much feeling and talent. The violin solo, "Nocturne in G Major," by Miss Mattie Draper was played with great expression and brilliancy, her phrasing and bowing being most artistic.

"Old Folks at Home" by The Ladies' Quartette was received with most hearty appreciation and roundly applauded. In the piano solo, "La Campanella," Miss Beatrice Barlow handled lovingly the keys, and demonstrated her ability for brilliant playing, and her number was presented with a skill that evoked tremendous applause.

Mrs. L. L. Porter and Miss Mattie Draper were the accompanists for the evening.

This musicals will do much toward benefiting the local musical atmosphere and Mrs Charman and all who took part are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts to give an opportunity of hearing such artists. The church cleared about $50 from the receipts.

The next event to which public attention is called, will be the Easter praise service by the choir of this church.

Enjoyable Reception.

Neat invitations were sent out by the W. R. C. to attend a reception in honor of the M. C. V. A., and those fortunate enough to receive one, were delighted to embrace the opportunity of attending this social function. It is needless to say that it was a highly enjoyable affair, as these women have an established reputation in the social events of this city. During the evening short, impromptu speeches were made by Mrs. Marv A. Stafford, T. W. Sullivan, H. L. Kelly, Father Hillebrand, Geo. A. Harding, J. U. Campbell, and Will Logans. A vocal solo by Miss Imogene Harding was a welcome feature of the evening's entertainment, as was also the trio, "Forget Me Not" by Mesdames N. W. Lawrence, R. C. Ganong and Imogene Harding which was enthusiastically encored.

After doing ample justice to a most bountiful spread, dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

A Hot Debate.

Deputy District Attorney G. B. Dimick went out to Barlow Saturday to take part in a rousing debate that occurred there in the evening between the Barlow Literary Society and the Marks Prairie Literary Society. The speakers on the opposing teams were of prominence and presented strong arguments upon the question: "Resolved, That the introduction of modern labor-saving machinery had been a benefit to the laboring classes." Barlow Society had the affirmative side and won the debate with the following named speakers: G. B. Dimick, Judge Wait, Canby; Professor Shirley Buck, Canby and Justice W. W. Jessie, Barlow.

The speakers for Mark's Prairie Literary Society were: J. R. Dimick and T. A. Campan, Hubbard; George Oglesby, Needy, and John Abbot Macksburg. A well-rendered literary and musical program preceded the debate.—Telegram.

Another Pioneer Called Away.

Word was received in this city yesterday of the death of Mrs. John Myers, of Portland, widow of the late John Myers. The funeral will be held from the Episcopal church, this city, Saturday. Death is indeed a cruel messenger at any time, but it seems particularly so in this case, when it invades a happy home and claims for its own both the father and mother in less than a month. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

Surprise Party.

Frank Barlow was the recipient of a genuine surprise party at his home Tuesday evening. The affair was given by many of his friends in honor of his 40th birthday. Members of his family presented Mr. Barlow with a gold ring. The evening was passed joyously, the guests devoting themselves to cards and vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered during the evening. Those present were: Mr and Mrs. Fouts, Mrs. Fox, Miss Betta Fouts, Miss Elma Albright, Mrs. Charles Albright, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Church, James Church, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Harding, Miss Imo Harding, Mrs. Nelson Lawrence, Mrs. Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury and Hazel Pillsbury and E. C. Cole.

Anniversary Celebration.

Last Monday was the 36th anniversary of Pythianism, and Cataract Lodge, No. 76, of this city celebrated it right royally that evening. The following program was rendered, which was hailed with delight by all those present:

Opening prayer.....Rev. E. S. Bollinger

Circuit Court Notes.

The following new cases have been filed in the circuit court:
Geo. W. Crn vs. Elizabeth Cran.
Noblett & Co. vs. W. E. Carl.
E. F. Riley vs. J. J. Porter.

Prepared for War.

The steamer Ruth is probably the first armed vessel to ascend the Willamette to this point. Last Friday she steamed proudly up the river, her passengers and cargo protected by a large muzzle-loading cannon and sufficient ammunition to reduce any city on the water way. This weapon was consigned to the Agricultural college and is a present to them from a gentleman in Oregon City. The first salute was fired from it Tuesday morning, in honor of Lincoln's birthday.—Corvallis Gazette.

This death-dealing war implement was loaned the O. A. C. to be used in battery practice, by James Roake of this city, whose son Chester is now attending that college. The cannon was manufactured in Mr. Roake's machine shops, and is 6 feet in length, throws a 3-pound ball, and weighs about 700 pounds.

"Housework is hard work without Gold Dust"

TO WASH BRUSHES AND COMBS

To wash hair brushes and combs, dissolve a tablespoonful of Gold Dust Washing Powder in boiling water; when it is nearly cold, dab the brushes up and down without allowing the backs of the brushes to become wet; when the brushes are clean, dip them in plain cold water and dry them either by the fire or in the open air. Soap turns the ivory back combs or brushes yellow, but Gold Dust does not injure them.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Last Saturday evening the basket ball team met their first defeat in the series of games played with the Willamette University. A game has been arranged for March 5, with the University of Oregon.

Indoor base ball Saturday evening, business men's teams, reds vs blues. The Bible class is doing good work under Rev. Joseph Beaven.

The blues will have charge of the open meeting next Sunday. Everybody invited.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.
