

CORRESPONDENCE

(Concluded from page 2)

Mrs. D. Peniston was visiting her mother, Mrs. Hunter, last Monday. It would be well and wise for a Colton young girl to mark his umbrella for if it strays away it will probably never return.

Carus.

Carus, March 19.—Three pleasant evening parties have lately been given by the young people of this place, by Mrs. Humphrey Jones, Mrs. Charles Spence, Mrs. A. O. Hayward, respectively. This (Tuesday eve) Mrs. M. E. London gave a party for her son, Mr. Thomas, who is soon to leave home for Eastern Oregon.

Last Thursday afternoon witnessed the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cooper for Pilot Rock, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper made a honeymoon visit of two months among many friends and relatives in Carus and vicinity. Well known in this place since early childhood, they take with them, to the home of their adoption, the earnest wishes of all for their continued happiness and prosperity.

Charlie Lowe and Charlie May bade farewell to their numerous friends in Carus, last Tuesday. Mr. Lowe will go to Neigh, Neb., Charlie May to Baker City, Ore.

William and David Jones are home from Wardner, Idaho, on a visit.

Lindsley and Son have a fine new engine, of greater power than the old, for their sawmill.

H. O. Inskip is putting up a new board fence in front of the Fred Lindsley premises.

We lately saw Frank-Jagger driving about twenty-five head of fat sheep to town, for market. We are informed that Fred Vondarhae, sr. has bargained off as many more.

Hood View.

Hood View, March 18.—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Orr, last week a son.

Mr. Taylor, who has been quite ill, is much improved.

The small children of Ira Seely and Mr. Lintebentaylor, who have typhoid and pneumonia, are reported some better.

The Conell creek school closed last Friday with a nice program under the able management of Chas. Hanson, of Wilsonville.

Miss S. M. Graham closed the winter term of school in the West Butteville district last Friday, with an entertainment and basket social, which netted them about $10, toward the new desks recently purchased.

Mrs. Tookeberry, formerly of Graeme, now a resident of Sherwood, was with us one day last week.

Owing to the absence of Mr. Allen last Saturday our literary program was short, sweet and well spiced. We expect great proceedings on the following two Saturdays and may soon close our debates for the season of work.

Farmers are quite busy rushing in spring grain, hauling off potatoes and finishing up grubbing for the spring. C. I. Tooke has broke a small tract of new land.

Marquam.

Marquam, March 20.—David Broadie died at his home near Scott's Mills, March 15. He came home from Portland on the 13 of March, and on the following day an operation was performed for appendicitis, by Dr. Brooks of Silverton, from which he never rallied, dying the next day. He was buried at the Miller cemetery on Sat., March 17, 1900. A bright young man, respected by all who knew him.

John Nicholson was born near Marquam, Oregon, Oct. 20, 1848. Died at his home in Marquam, March 16, 1900. His father was one of the early pioneers, coming to this country about 1847, settling on the donation land claim two miles east of here, where John was born. In 1878 he married Althea Hagedorn. To them were born four children, three of whom with his wife survive him. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at the Miller church.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair, of Oregon City, were in attendance at the funeral of her father, John Nicholson. They remained till Monday.

Dr. Weaver, of Hubbard, was called to see Mrs. Dunlavy, who is seriously ill.

Mr. Little, of Needy, has purchased 20 acres of the old Thompson claim, lying just north of the Butte Creek fair ground. Consideration $400.

Bad Jack has been quite sick with the grippe, but is now on the road to recovery.

Frank Ridings is digging and delivering nursery stock, for which there is a pretty good demand.

Mr. Day, of Forest Grove, has at last succeeded in organizing a lodge of Artisans. I admire his pluck and perseverance.

Improvement is the order of the day. A new fence surrounds the parsonage, and Mrs. Albright has just completed a new picket fence around her house. Others are putting up new and fixing the old; let the good work go on.

The ever wide awake Ladies Aid Society of Marquam gave one of their successful entertainments a short time ago. It was held in the pavilion at the fair grounds. A short program, consisting of songs, recitations, tableaux, etc., was given, and a bountiful lunch served to all who desired. They cleared about fifteen dollars to apply on some parsonage debts.

Central Point.

CENTRAL POINT, March 19.—David Penman, sr. has early potatoes through the ground.

We are glad to hear that Wm. G. Randall is getting along so nicely with his broken leg, he is able to be out on crutches.

Quite a large crowd was out last Wednesday evening to hear Senator Geo. C. Brownell lecture on politics. He told them he was going to congress with flying colors.

Harry H. Eastham left this place the 13th for Gold Hill, but has returned again. He says the wages there are not much better than they are here and the accommodations very poor. He has concluded to remain on the farm for a short period.

F. Rider, of Independence, who has been visiting his uncle, Wm. Rider, of this place, leaves for Sumpter today for the purpose of going into business if conditions are favorable.

Ina Bachman, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Ida Montgomery, at present.

Joe Wrigley, of Portland, is visiting his son-in-law, Wm. Randall.

Joseph Ellis is getting out timbers for a new barn.

Little Penman has been on the sick list the last couple of weeks.

Hobart Eastman has recently purchased some fine thoroughbred Shropshire sheep. He has some extra fine lambs.

David Penman, jr. expects to go away to work soon to remain all summer.

We hear that Enos Cahill has purchased a automobile. He tried it yesterday by taking J. U. Campbell to town in his horseless carriage.

The social and entertainment that was given at the Leland school house last Saturday night for the benefit of Mrs. J. Wilson was a decided success. After a lengthy program was rendered J. U. Campbell, of Oregon City, lectured on "The Philippines," after which the baskets were sold at auction. Mary Rider carried off the laurels of the evening by having the prettiest basket, which brought the highest price. The proceeds of the evening were $32.25, which will be used for medicine and other necessities.

There have been many other donations from the public at large for her. Mrs. Wilson wishes to return thanks to all those that were so kind in donating to her in the time of need she says their kindness will never be forgotten and hopes their gifts will be returned to them an hundred fold.

Barton.

BARTON, March 19.—Looks like summer has come already in our little valley.

Miss Annie Burghardt has been trying her wheel and she says it is rather rough riding.

Mr. James Henkle and Mr. James Norris left for Portland, where they will work in a brick yard.

Mr. Kollman went to Eastern Oregon, where he will work during the summer.

Mr. John Moll, of Killgaver, was the guest of Chas. Burghardt Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. White were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burghardt Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Burghardt and Mr. White attended the lodge at Logan Saturday.

Mr. Chas. and Gabriel Norris are going to Pleasant Home to seek work.

It isn't so attractive around here since Barton's favorite is gone.

Mr. E. H. Burghardt is going to Ione, Ore., to see about a mill sight.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Geo. A. Harding's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Did a Wholesale Business.

An Englishman hailing from the north went into the Chatham hotel, in Paris, recently and cautiously asked the price of a whisky.

"One franc, sir," replied the bartender.

"And a whisky and soda?"

"One franc, sir. All drinks are the same price."

The Englishman sat down and, to his astonishment, found that the place was run on American lines and that the customers helped themselves at their own discretion. He pushed that bottle of whisky till it was nearly empty. As he went out he paid down his franc, but the manager called him back and said, "You have forgotten your change."

"I thought that the drink was a franc?"

"That is so, sir," was the reply. "That is the retail price, but there is a reduction when you buy wholesale."

And he handed back 5 sous.—London Chronicle.

Mentioned as Usual.

Clara—Did the newspapers notice your papa at the banquet?

Freddie—Yes.

Clara—Well, mamma said she could not see his name in the list.

Freddie—No, but the list ends up with "and others." That means papa. They always mention him that way.—Tit-Bits.
