Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-I see your advertisement in the papers in regard to treating woman's diseases, and would be grateful to you for your advice in my case. I am suffering from falling of womb, have pains in my sides and legs, in fact I ache all over.

I am getting so weak I cannot stand on my feet much. I have the headache sometimes, and a choking, tight feeling in my breast and throat. Have a baby seven months old. I hope to hear from you soon, as I am in so much distress."—Mrs. J. R. COMPTON, Eggbornsville, Va., May 16, 1898.

pains in left side and hip. My doctor said I had womb trouble and enlarge-ment of the ovaries. I have doctored two months, but see no improvement.

-MISS MARY E. REED, Swan Creek,

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-Your good advice has been worth more than all I ever received from a doctor. Words cannot express my gratitude to you for Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Com-ular and my head has a tired feeling. Hospital treatment does me no good.

The Hair In the Watch.

Superfluous hirsute adornments are unpopular with women, especially when they take the form of inciplent mustaches. Men, as a rule, are not so sensitive, but a hairy individual, who must have been a lineal descendant of Esau, inasmuch as he actually had whiskers growing out of his ears, had GERMAN EVANGELICAL LUTH a rather harrowing experience in a ERAN IMMANUAL CHURCH-Corner fashionable Chestnut street jewelry store. He wanted to buy a watch, the best in the place, and a very elaborate timepiece was shown to him by the salesman. It was said to be an excellent timekeeper. "We have had it in stock for quite awhile," explained the salesman, "and can guarantee that it won't vary a fraction of a second. We've never allowed it to run down."

The prospective purchaser, who looked like a prosperous mine owner from the west, had been examining the

"That's very strange," said the salesman. The man again placed the watch to his ear to make sure, and then the truth became apparent. The hair which protruded from his ear had intruded into the works and stopped the delicate mechanism. The salesman didn't like to explain matters, and his delicacy cost him the sale of the watch.-Phila-and injure the living, and the desire to save a suicide's life arises in most cases not from humanity, but from the hope of averting such a direful catastrophe. If a master offends his servant or makes him "lose face" or a shopkeeper his assistant or apprentice, the surest revenge is to die on the premises, for it not only involves the nower of hauntnot only involves the power of haunting and of inflicting daily injuries, but renders it necessary that the body should lie where death occurs until an official inquiry is made, which brings into the house the scandal and turmoil of a visit from a mandarin with a body of officials and retainers.

It is quite common for a man or woman to walk into the courtyard of a person against whom he or she has a grudge and take a fatal dose of optum there to insure these desirable results! -Mrs. Bishop's "The Yangtse Valley and Beyond."
