JOLLY FELLOWS HOP.—The Jolly Fellows will give their next dancing party at Armory hall, Friday, April 20. This will be the next to the last of their series of seven parties and promises to be a very swell affair. Their last party will occur May 11.

SOUND FISHY.—Charles Albright, Will Logan, Forbes Pratt, and Robert Wilson, went out to Clear Creek last Saturday to lure the festive troutmen from their hiding places. They succeeded remarkably well for this time of year, landing over 100 of the speckled beauties. They averaged about 10 inches long, and Mr. Albright, so the story goes, pulled out a 14-pounder.

WOODMEN DANCE.—A very pleasant dancing party, preceded by a musical program, was given by the Modern Woodmen of the World Tuesday evening, at Willamette hall. The following program was rendered, after which the dancing was indulged in until a late hour: Instrumental duet, Mr. and Mrs. Turney; piano solo, Miss Caples; vocal solo, Frank Confer; vocal solo, Miss Miles; guitar duet, Mrs. Turney and Miss Smith; vocal solo, Miss Reynolds.

SPANISH WAR VETS.—Aliso Camp No. 1, which consists of a goodly number of Spanish war veterans, held a very enjoyable meeting Tuesday evening. They expect to make it a fraternal, as well as a social organization. They will keep track of all the Oregon boys who participated in the late war, and should they be in distress at any future time their wants will be administered to. They will meet every two weeks hereafter, and will enter the social arena in the near future.

COUNCIL MEETS.—An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Monday evening, for the purpose of considering the report of the special committee on sewers. An appropriation of $100 was made to secure the service of an engineer, who is to examine and find out what part of the city would be proper to place within the sewer district and to submit an estimate of the cost of the same. Petition of Theodore Wygant, of Portland, to purchase two lots on Main street was denied, but petitioner was notified he could have property by paying $500 for the same.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at G. A. Harding's Drug Store.
