feet, and he was submerged five seconds. He successfully jumped from the big steel bridge in Portland the previous Sunday, and as a diver, is very graceful and nifty and has a peculiar style of coiling himself up just as he reaches the water, that throws him immediately to the surface, and enables him to make high dives in real shallow waters. Two boats were engaged to transport the Portland visitors, and it was the liveliest Sunday the city has witnessed for weeks.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel, a birthday party was given in honor of Eulalie's seventh birthday. They spent a pleasant afternoon playing games and in social enjoyment, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Monica Montgomery, Florence Grace, Beth Cooper, Pearl and Ruby Frances, Josie Curran, Helen Ely, Effie and Ethel Jefferson, Lillian Gillett, Ruby Howard, Anita Dixon, Marian Humbel, Eulalie and Roberta Schuebel and Master William Montgomery. Mrs. M. A. Humbel, of Portland, assisted in entertaining the children during the afternoon.

TWO CAMPAIGNS.—A meeting of the republican county central committee, and also a meeting of citizen's county central committee were held in this city last Saturday. Both committees arranged for their respective campaigns. The republicans agreed upon the idea of all their candidates visiting the different precincts en masse, while the democrats concluded to divide up and a few go at a time to the different voting places. The citizens claim they will challenge the republicans for joint discussion, and the latter assert their willingness to meet them anywhere at any time on any subject. Both parties will wage a short campaign, but their plans are subject to the judgment of the executive campaign committee.

BICYCLE RACES.—The bicyclists of this city are urging that another parade be given in which everybody will be prepared to participate, claiming that the former parade was a little premature and they did not have time to arrange for it. It has been decided to not only give another parade as soon as the weather is settled, but to attach races to the program and make it a regular field day. Salem has been asked to co-operate, and as soon as word can be received a relay race will be arranged between that city and here. The distance covered in this race will be about 36 miles. Eight men will indulge in the relay, four Oregon City boys and four Salem riders. The wheelmen will be stationed about nine miles apart, ready to relieve each other. The Salemites will carry greetings from Mayor L. V. Lorette to the mayor of their town, while our boys will deliver to the mayor of Oregon City greetings from Mayor Bishop. Prior to the date of this double-city race, several minor races will be held in order to ascertain the strongest riders. For the purpose of arranging these races, and numerous other bicycle interests, a mass meeting of every wheelman in this city is called for Tuesday evening, May 1, at the M. C. A.

WEDDED WEDNESDAY.—The wedding of Mr. Charles Muir and Miss Nora Caldwell occurred in this city last Wednesday evening, Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating. Only intimate friends and relatives were present. Mr. Muir is a member of the energetic grocery firm of Marr & Muir. Their many friends extended congratulations.

RECEIVED $2000.—Within four days from the time of her husband's demise, Mrs. Charles Athey received $2,000 from the A. O. U. W. of which Mr. Athey was a member. This is simply a sample of the promptness with which this order adjusts its losses, and is another merit mark that will be recorded to the credit of the A. O. U. W.

THE BLUFF SEWER.—Joseph Kelly, of Portland, has been awarded the contract for preliminary plans, and estimate of cost of the proposed new sewer No. 2. His bid was $85, and being the lowest, it was accepted, and he will proceed at once to map out a sewer district and furnish an estimate of what the same can be constructed for. The sewer district will comprise all the property between First and Seventh streets.

DOVE FROM THE BRIDGE.—4000 people witnessed L. Q. Smith, of Portland, dive from Oregon City's big suspension bridge, last Sunday afternoon. The distance from where he leaped to the water is 90 feet, and he was submerged five seconds. He successfully jumped from the big steel bridge in Portland the previous Sunday, and as a diver, is very graceful and nifty and has a peculiar style of coiling himself up just as he reaches the water, that throws him immediately to the surface, and enables him to make high dives in real shallow waters. Two boats were engaged to transport the Portland visitors, and it was the liveliest Sunday the city has witnessed for weeks.
