CHAMPION... Mowers and Binders

Give best satisfaction of any. Read what some of your neighbors in Clackamas County say about them.

Champion Handles all Kinds of Grain.
Needy, Oregon, Oct. 31, 1898.
MITCHELL, LEWIS & STAYER Co.,
Portland, Oregon.
GENTLEMEN:—The Champion Binder bought of you last season has given me splendid satisfaction, and I am more than pleased with it. It will cut elevate, and bind any kind of grain—long, short, thick or thin—and runs the lightest of any machine I ever saw run. My neighbors are all well pleased with my machine, and pronounce it the best in the neighborhood, and I can tell you of two of them who will buy Champions next year.
C. Joust.

More than Pleased With His Bargain.
Logan, Oregon, Nov. 1, 1898.
MITCHELL, LEWIS & STAYER Co.,
Portland, Oregon.
GENTLEMEN:—In reference to the Champion Binder which I purchased from you this season, will say that it works to perfection and I am more than pleased with my bargain. This season I cut 130 acres of grain on as rough ground as can be found anywhere, and the only expense I had was 5 cents for two small bolts. Anyone desiring to purchase a Binder should take a Champion by all means, for it is easily operated, very light in draft, and ties all the bundles.
C. F. Wolfen.

Mitchell Wagons are Standard and have been for 65 years.

When you buy a Mitchell you buy the best that can possibly be built, and run no chances as to quality.

BOERS SURRENDER.

The Siege of Mafeking Raised—Buller Takes New Castle.

BECKHAM KENTUCKY'S GOVERNOR.

Briton's Caught in a Boer Trap—Peace Terms Expected.

KIMBERLY, May 23.—About 800 Boers have surrendered at Vryburg, north of Kimberly, and a little more than half way between that place and Mafeking. The road is all clear from Mafeking, and all opposition in this district is practically ended.

PRETORIA, May 18.—It was officially announced today that when the laagers and forts around Mafeking had been severely bombarded the siege was abandoned.

LONDON, May 18.—From the mention of laagers in the Pretoria dispatch, it is understood here that prior to the raising of the siege of Mafeking, the Boer laagers around that place were vigorously bombarded by the British relief column, and the burghers practically compelled to abandon the siege.

Buller Takes New Castle.

LONDON, May 18.—General Buller, in a dispatch to the War office, dated Newcastle, May 18, says: "Newcastle was occupied last night, and today the whole Second Division and the Third Cavalry Brigade will be concentrated here. I have sent the mounted force through Nqutu to expel a small force of the enemy and to reassure the natives. The enemy have burned the chapel, broken much glass, plundered many houses and taken cash from the banks, but otherwise they have not done much harm. The railway is badly damaged, the Ingagane and Nkader bridges are destroyed, as are many culverts and the pumping stations and water works. Of the 7000 men flying before us, about 1000 seem to have gone to Wakkerstroom and some by Muller's Pass to the Free State. The remainder, who are described as disorganized rabble have gone north, and say they intend to make a stand at Laing's Nek."

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The United States supreme court today decided the Kentucky governorship case in favor of Governor Beckham, dismissing the writ of error from the Kentucky court of appeals. The opinion was handed down by Chief Justice Fuller this morning and a vigorous dissenting opinion was delivered by Harlan. Justices Brewer, Brown and McKenna also dissented from portions of the opinion.

The opinion was handed down by Chief Justice Fuller, and the case dismissed for want of jurisdiction, it being held that determination of cases of this character and all contests for state officers must necessarily be settled by the political branch of the government. That branch had acted in the Kentucky case when the general assembly took jurisdiction. There was no appeal from the assembly's decision, which was favorable to Goebel and Beckham, except to the tribunal of the people, which tribunal, the chief justice said, was always in session.

He also said the case was purely a state case—that Kentucky was in full possession of its faculties, as a member of the Union there was no emergency which called for interference. The opinion in Kentucky was not unanimous, Justices Brewer, Harlan and McKenna dissenting.

LONDON, May 21, 3:10 a. m.—Displayed in the most conspicuous style in the Daily Express, is the dominant war news of the morning.

"We have the best reason for stating that in the last 24 hours a telegram has been received at the Foreign office, addressed personally to the Prime Minister from President Kruger, proposing terms of peace. The exact terms of the message cannot be stated; but we believe it is couched in an exceedingly humble strain."

It is inconceivable, of course, that Lord Salisbury can have sent any reply except the one that stands ready on the lip of every Briton—unconditional surrender.

LONDON, May 22.—4:35 p. m.—It is officially announced that Colonel Botha has reported that while marching in the direction of New-Castle yesterday was one of his squadrons of mounted infantry was ambushed by a party of Boers six miles west of Vryburg, in the Transvaal, and that very few of his force escaped. His casualties numbered 66 men.

CAPE TOWN, May 22.—British troops have arrived at Vereeniging. (In the Transvaal, north of the Vaal river.) The bridge across the Vaal was found intact. Twenty-seven Free Staters and two locomotives were captured.

Boer Envoys Speak.
WASHINGTON, May 20.—An audience, remarkable for its size, sympathy and enthusiasm, greeted the Boer envoys at the reception given in their honor tonight at the Grand Opera-House, under the auspices of the Congressional and Citizen's committee. The house was crowded to suffocation, and many were turned away. The interior was decorated with the National tri-colors of both the United States and the Transvaal. There were probably 30 members of the senate and house present. Speaker Henderson was in one of the boxes, and others present were Senators Daniels, of Virginia; Teller, of Colorado; Tillman, Pettigrew, Mason and Wellington; Representatives Shafroth, Atwater, Clayton, Glynn, Ruppert, Gaines, Latimer, Lentz, Sulzer, Landis, Linney, Ryan, Greene, Henry, (Mass.) Hay, De Armond, Clark (Mo.), Miers and Rhea (N. Y.) One of the boxes, it was stated, had been reserved for the President, a committee having been sent to the White House with tickets of admission to the opera-house, but no representative of the President's official household was on hand.

Chairman Sulzer, of the reception committee, presided, and a number of addresses, all of them patriotic in character and earnestly supporting the cause of the Boers, were made, the speakers including Messrs. Fischer, Wolarens and Wessels, the Boer envoys, Senator Wellington, Hon. Bourke Cockran, of New York, and Chairman Sulzer.

Commissioner Wessels' speech was a vivid picture of the Boers in their contest for their rights, of the charity and devotion which characterized their manner, and of the patriotism with which they all went in to fight their battles. He felt sure that the audience would admit that the Boers had many good characteristics, and was not as black as he was painted. The English nation apparently wished to act as judge and jury. He asked the audience whether the Boer nation had not the right to claim the liberty and sympathy of the United States, and of the whole world. Mr. Wolmarins, who spoke in Dutch, said that while the envoys did expect to be sympathetically received in this country, yet they had not anticipated such a strong welcome as had been shown to them in New York City and Washington. He knew, however, it could not be different, because the people of this country have the same love of liberty and sense of justice that the Boers had, and their sympathy would be a help to them in their struggle.

ROYAL

Absolutely Pure BAKING-POWDER

No inferior or impure ingredients are used in Royal for the purpose of cheapening its cost; only the most highly refined and healthful.

Royal Baking Powder imparts that peculiar sweetness, flavor and delicacy noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, rolls, etc., which expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other leavening agent.

Alum is used in making cheap baking powders. If you want to know the effect of alum upon the tender linings of the stomach, touch a piece to your tongue. You can raise biscuit with alum baking powder, but at what a cost to health!
