COMMENCEMENT. EXERCISES.

Held in Shively's Opera House Wednesday-Pleasing Program.

closed Wednesday evening with appro priate exercises at Shively's opera house. The management of the exercises merit. great praise for efforts exerted in making this commencement the most attractive and entertaining ever held in Oregon City. No pains were spared in decorating the hall. The rostrum was made especially attractive with a solid back ground of instural green, made of Oregon grape woven into fish netting, and the stage scenery embellished with garlands of ferns and roses draped with class colors.

Within this bower of beauty were orderly arranged the twenty-four graduates and the participants on the program, including the school board of directors. The class motto "We learn not for school but for life" was suspended across the stage in gilt letters. The remainder of the decorations consisting of baskets of flowers and wild roses and United States flags.

The program, beginning promptly at 8:20, continued with great interest and entertainment to the audience for one and one-half bours.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery invoked the blessings of God upon the graduating class as it goes out into the world.

Mr. Surrhyne's 'cello solo, accomsolicitous applause with several encore selections.

Kenneth Scott Latourette presented class salutations to the audience with the grace and ease of an orator, defined the significance of commencement, the relation of the theory to practice, and love to fellow men and to God a nobler in life than a desire for fame or hable comprehension as delivered uy - circuit judge of Portland, tion was received with marked attention and teemed with patriotism and profound research concerning the history of our United States constitution.

The instrumental duet by Misses Alice Lewthwaite and Edna Caufield was heartily received and encored.

Miss Maud Estella Kidder's farewell benediction upon her class as veledictorian, were bestowed with great earnestness and impressively received. The school had been to her class a place of mental enjoyment and not a place of hour each day to Sunday School Method. pennance for which she sincerely assured

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, dis-courages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become ao prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urin-ates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.
