R. and Company A, Third Regiment Oregon National Guard, each attended the services in a body. An overflow meeting was held at the Baptist church, the services being of a patriotic character.

J. W. Smith, of Macksburg, makes the following report to the U. S. Department of Agriculture: The weather during the last five days has been cold and rainy, with very high winds, which have done much damage to fruit trees. Fall wheat looks very bad, and is turning yellow and dying. There is a great deal of rust on the blades. Early sown spring grain is looking bad. Hops look bad. Everything looks bad to the farmer.

C. M. Doty, living nine miles east of Foster, brought to Lebanon last Thursday for shipment to Portland, 474 dozen eggs, leaving 50 dozen at home for lack of cases for packing. From 200 hens since the 6th of March, he has marketed 524 dozen eggs, besides those necessary for table use and for hatching 300 young chickens. Mr. Doty has been the poultry business for five years, and thinks it can be made to pay if properly managed. He will increase the number of hens to 1000.—Brownsville Times.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Official gathering at Molalla School House Saturday.

An unusually pleasant meeting of The Clackamas County Teachers' Association was held in the school building at Molalla, Saturday, May 26, 1900.

Called to order at the usual hour by the president, N. W. Bowland. The Association sang "America." The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

J. F. Mitts was elected to membership in the Association.

It was decided to omit the July and August meeting, on account of the Chautauqua assembly.

The superintendent will decide later as to the June meeting, selecting the place of meeting and announcing the program.

"Food" was the subject assigned to Mr. Mitts, which evoked a lively discussion. Some startling ideas were propounded to a listening world. A new dwelling place assigned the soul—namely, the stomach. Women who have long advocated a good meal before asking any favors' had no doubt smile at the idea of the 'Lords of Creation endorsing the theory.

A most delicious lunch was served by the good ladies of Molalla.

Association called to order at 2 p. m. by Superintendent Bowland.

An instrumental solo by Prof. Eugene Ogle, received an enthusiastic encore.

"The Parable of the Wheel" written by Charles C. Rutherford, who is now in Eastern Oregon, was read by Mr. Gintner.

Mrs. Schamel recited "The Three Lovers" in a charming manner.

A very interesting and instructive paper on the "War of 1812" was read by Mr. Crittenden. He believes in going back of events and teaching the causes that lead up to them. Does not believe in "leaving out the battles, because someone's feeling might be hurt by teaching them. The boys and girls need not be taught patriotism, need to be taught how much suffering their ancestors bore for love of human liberty. Mr. Ogle gave another instrumental solo.

"How to Make the School Room Attractive" was the next subject on the program. Mr. Eby was called on to start the discussion. Many good ideas were advanced.

A vote of thanks was given the people of Molalla for their hospitality and entertainment.

Remarks were made by Messrs. Harless, E. P. Carter, John Cole, and others. The attendance was very good and the audience appreciative.

On motion the Association adjourned until the next meeting.

SHAKING HIS SKELETON.

Mrs. Trembath's Futile Effort to Secure Alimony From the Estate of the Late John R. Trembath.

Last Tuesday was the day set for hearing the claim of Mattie Trembath against her husband, John R. Trembath. It is a peculiar case and the claims and counter claims are substantially as follows:

John R. Trembath, who for many years resided in this city, removed to Astoria about two years ago, and upon his return, went insane and was committed to the asylum, where he died last February. His brother, H. W. Trembath was appointed administrator over his estate, which embraced a limited amount of jewels and about $1500 in cash. Mrs. Trembath filed a claim of alimony and for the recovery of the $1500, alleging that she had loaned her husband the amount prayed for during his lifetime.

Judge Ryan disallowed the claim for alimony, because it developed that the couple were not legally married. The guardian's attorneys showed that Mrs. Trembath was not legally divorced from her first husband. The decree of divorce had been rendered, but for some reason the entry of the same had not been made. As to the claims, it was decided that the Probate court had no jurisdiction.

But John R. Trembath having died since, the matter properly came up before the Probate court. Mrs. Trembath was represented by her attorney, Mr. Brodie, of Portland, and the administrator's interests were looked after by Attorney Franklin T. Griffith of this city.

Mrs. Trembath testified that she loaned John Trembath $1400, cash, in 1893, for three years, without interest. That she loaned him $800 more without taking any note therefor; that the other amounts were made up of sums she had given the deceased to keep for her.

Administrator H. W. Trembath contends that the money that deceased had was at all times his own, and that whereas he was known to have about $4000 a short time previous to his commitment there was only to be found about $1500 in his name when the papers of guardianship were issued.

Valuable Mines.

J. W. Gray, Jack and Wm Johnson and Mike Harrington, who recently arrived in this county from Detroit, Michigan, have filed a mining claim on the Salmon river. One of the young men served in the Spanish war under Governor Roosevelt, and the mining district has accordingly been christened the "Rough Rider," while a creek near by has been named after the governor. The quartz taken from many veins in that locality yields as high as $83 to the ton. A quartz rock weighing 100 weight, containing gold to the amount of $75 was sent as a memento to Governor Roosevelt by these gentlemen last Saturday. They will place a 10 stamp mill in that district next Monday.
