Circuit Court.

The circuit court began session today, Judge T. A. McBride presiding.

One of the first cases to come up was the Selma Lange divorce proceedings against Oswald Lange. They were married in Germany in 1887, from where they since emigrated to this country. As the sheriff could not serve a personal summons it was ordered by the court that the case be advertised for at least six weeks.

G. N. Ereckson was awarded judgment against Frank Andrews in a suit for payment for labor performed for the defendant. Ereckson had a contract with Andrews to cut 150 cords of wood, ot 80 cents per cord, on the Ladd place, near Mount Pleasant. He cut 68 cords, but received only $5 in payment for his labor. The court ordered the wood sold in order to satisfy the judgment.

The Walter W. Ray proceedings against Lillian B. Ray were heard in the circuit court Wednesday. The divorce was granted and the defendant allowed to use her maiden name of Lillian B. Thatcher.

Default was entered against Clarence T. and Annie Darling, his wife, on motion of Mary Mader, by Judge McBride Wednesday. They were summoned May 15 to appear within 10 days to answer the suit of Mary Mader. The plaintiff in the case was awarded judgment for the sum of $359.35 for each of the defendants and for costs and attorney's fees, amounting to $6 more. This constitutes the first lien against mortgaged.

Harris Ridings, the 19-year-old son of George Ridings, of Marquam, who was awaiting trial in the county jail on the charge of taking up a stray horse belonging to a neighbor and selling the animal, was ordered discharged from custody by Judge McBride. Sentence was suspended on him, pending good behavior.

Married.

A very pretty pretty church wedding occurred on Wednesday evening, June 6, 1900, in St. Paul's Episcopal church, in which Miss Marie Humphrey and Mr. Pierre L. Traglio, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. P. K. Hammond. Miss Viola Farr was maid of honor and Mr. Hanaford best man.

Promptly at 8:15 to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Mattie Draper, the bridal party entered the church and in the presence of about 30 guests they stood at the alter and took the solemn vows which made them huband and wife. The bride was given away by Mr. George A. Harding, in the absence of her father. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

Mr and Mrs. Tragelio will reside in Oregon City and will be at home to their friends after June 14.

Charles Smith and Miss Leo Stone were joined in wedlock at the residence of J. Newman, Wednesday, June 6, Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

League Entertainment

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will give an entertainment under the direction of Miss Atwood, Monday evening, June 11, beginning promptly at a quarter before eight.

There will be recitations by Miss Carrie Seeley, Miss Rebekah Reynolds and Mrs. Florence Hickman. A series of songs appropriate to the month of June will be given by children and young people. A choice number of vocal selections will be rendered by the Willamette Falls quartet, Miss Lillian Roblin, Miss Anna D. Atwood, and Mr. Haven Belknap, of Salem; the illustration of the parable of the Ten Virgins will be repeated by the twelve young ladies who gave it so admirably a short time since.

The admission has been placed at the low price of 15 cents; children under twelve, 10 cents. No one can afford to miss it.
