News of the Week

Friday, June 1.

Governor Taylor of Kentucky, is indicted as an accessory before the fact to the wilful murder of Governor Goebel.

Roberts army occupies Johannesburg, Kruger takes flight from Pretoria.

New Jersey democrats will send an uninstructed delegation to Kansas City.

Queen Li has decided to bring suit against the United States for the restoration of the crown lands and revenues.

New York's vote in the democratic convention will go to Bryan.

President McKinley has nominated General Otis a major-general in the regular army.

Saturday, June 2.

The proposed trust amendment bill was voted down, in the house.

Twenty-three warships are now at Taku—nine Russian, three British, three German, three French, two American, two Japanese and one Italian. In addition to their crews, the Russians have on board their ships 11,000 troops from Port Arthur, with field equipment, fourteen thousand Russian troops are held in readiness at Port Arthur.

Representative Tongue has been notified that upon his recommendation, free rural delivery will be established in the vicinity of Sheffs, Linn county, Or., to begin June 11. Had the papers been filed, a similar service would have been established at Newberg and Dayton. He also secured an additional letter carrier for Salem.

Senator Simon will probably leave for home immediately upon the adjournment of congress, and his alternate will serve in his place at the Philadelphia convention. The senator desires to attend to business that has been accumulating at home.

Representative Tongue was talking with Admiral Dewey on the effect of the battle of Manila on the Pacific coast, and in the course of his talk the Admiral said: "The annexation of the Philippine Islands will be of great benefit to the Pacific coast and the whole United States, but the coast more than any other section. Why, have you noticed the enormous increase in trade? It is wonderful, and will keep growing." There is no question about Dewey being an expansionist, and the talk of his running on an anti-expansion ticket with Bryan is consequently absurd.

Governor Thomas has given his indorsement to a gigantic proposition, having for its object the bringing of the defeated Boers to the Valley of the Platte in Colorado. The Union Pacific Land Company proposes to give 1,000,000 acres of land, to be taken up under the Carey land act, on the Julesburg and Wyoming divisions. There is to be no charge for the gift, and the company will undertake to transport the Boers to Colorado, being repaid on the installment plan after the communities are established and prosperous. E. C. Wantland, agent of the Union Pacific, left for the East last night, where he will meet the Boer envoys and explain in detail the proposition.

Kruger's whereabouts is mystifying the British. He is said to be in the Transvaal country.

The United States transport Rosecrans sailed from Seattle for Nome today, with two military companies and the first season's shipment of war department supplies. The companies are A and K of the Seventh Infantry.

British officers are not alarmed over the ravages of the Boxers. They look upon it as a small matter. Rebels attack a party of foreigners, killing four and wounding many.

Littlefield anti-trust law passed by the house. Sherman law is amended by making combinations in restraint of interstate commerce illegal.

Monday, June 4.
 In Luzon, Major March, with his detachment of the Thirty-third regiment, overtook what is believed to have been Aguinaldo's party on May 19, at Lagat, about 100 miles north-east of Vigan. The Americans killed or wounded an officer, supposed to be Aguinaldo, whose body was removed by his followers.

Rear Admiral Phillip Hichborn, Chief Constructor of the United States Navy, and the man to whom more than any one else is due the splendid performance of the ships of the American fleet during the war, is in Portland inspecting the plant of the Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works. He is on a tour of the different shipbuilding establishments of the Pacific coast.

Boer fighting power is not yet crushed.

St. Louis street car strike is still on. While riding on Grove line one man was shot to death and two women were assailed and their clothes were torn from them.

Roberts declares Johannesburg is quiet and the Boers are surrendering.

Tuesday, June 5.
 Mansfield, O., June 4.—Mrs John Sherman died at midnight, aged 72 years. She was Miss Margaret Cecilia Stewart, only child of the late Judge Stewart of this city. She was married to Mr. Sherman December 31, 1848. There are no children. She was born here, and will be buried here.

Major general E. S. Otis was allowed to land today at San Francisco, after five days in quarantine at Angel Island.

Neely's postoffice fraud in Cuba amounts to something like a million dollars.

Wives are wanted for 300,000 unmarried males in Australia. Newspapers of the island are doing all in their power to induce women to that country.

Wednesday, June 6.
 Pretoria falls. Boers give up without a struggle. Roberts is now ready to fight. Civilians meet him with a flag of truce. Gen. Botha has escaped the British.

East receives the result of the Oregon election as the signal gun to McKinley's success.

 Boers capture whole battalion of imperial Irish yeomanry.
 Aguinaldo is supposed to have been killed or fatally wounded last Saturday by Gen. March's troops.

New York democrats repudiate the Chicago platform but will accept the one to be adopted at Kansas City.
