News of the Week

Friday, June 15.

Mrs. Gladstone, widow of W. E. Gladstone, died at London. She was 82 years, old and was the daughter of Sir Stephen Glycne.

W. J. Bryan has written democratic leaders in Kentucky, urging a change in the Goebel election law. The democrats, including the dead governor, admit that the law is a failure.

Democrats are after Schley for running mate with Bryan.

Commissioner-General Powderly, of the Bureau of Immigration, today obtained the deportation of 31 Japanese from Port Townsend, Wash., where they had landed in violation of the immigration laws.

Ex-Secretary of State Harrison R. Kincaid has been elected county judge of Lane county. The official canvass today gave him one more vote than Knox, his republican opponent.

Observers at Shanghai and Tien Tsin think there is a great deal more trouble ahead for the concert of powers than merely reaching Pekin with 2000 men. Serious disturbances have taken place at Yunnan Fu and Meng Tse, as well as at other points at a considerable distance from the capital. The whole Chinese Empire seems to be in a ferment.

Saturday, June 16.

In speaking of the China situation, Admiral Dewey says the outcome will be the adoption of the American policy of open ports for American commerce on equal grounds with all other commercial nations. He says the recruits of the Spanish war make this possible, and declares most emphatically, that he is a thorough expansionist and that the acquisition of the Philippines alone gives us our present stand in the Orient.

Admiral Dewey withdraws his name as a presidential aspirant, and declares that the people do not select the president, but the leaders and bosses do.

Representative Moody called at the White House today and said good bye to the president, assuring him of a rousing majority in Oregon and the surrounding states in November. He pointed with pride to his and his colleague's majorities, but assured the president that he would carry the state by from 12,000 to 15,000.

Dewey positively declines to become Bryan's running mate.

Gold democrats will not swallow Bryan They want a man who will represent anti-expansion, but sound on the money question.

Sunday, June 17.

One more dark mystery of New York Bay confronts the harbor police, and it possesses a grisley nature which they may never solve. The victim is G. P. Rummelin, a wealthy business man of Portland, Or. whose body was taken from the ebbing tide at Stapleton, in the bo oagh of Richmond, formerly known as Staten Island, yesterday morning, stone dead, with the throat cut from ear to ear, the awful wound almost severing the head from the body.

An extra session of congress may be convened, owing to the Chinese war. Administration is apprehensive.

Churches and residences of foreigners in Tien Tsin, China, are burned to the ground.

Monday, June 18.

The Ninth Regiment has been ordered to Manila, whence it will proceed to China.

The gunboat Concord, with marines aboard, has sailed from Manila under sealed orders, supposedly for China. The British cruiser Buenaventura has sailed for Hong Kong with troops and stores for Hong Kong and Tien Tsin.

That the gold fields of Cape Nome are richer and more productive than has yet been represented, is the story brought down by the steamer Alpha, which arrived from the North tonight. From a single claim, worked by 20 men in the employ of Brady, $15,000 was taken out in one week and the same claim panned out $56,000 within the month. As an earnest of Cape Nome's golden productiveness, the Alpha brought down $250,-

000 in gold dust. There were five passengers on board, and the dust belonged to four of them.

As the result of last week's scouting, 60 Filipinos were wounded, 200 killed and 240 rifles, with 24,000 rounds of ammunition, was surrendered. Two Americans were killed.

Malarial fever has been prevailing since April in Cavite and Batangas, the provinces which are garrisoned by the Forty-sixth and Thirty-ninth regiments. Thirty per cent of the men of each regiment are on the sick list. Of two battalions in Batangas province, one has 150 sick and the other 190.

Boer war is near an end. Plans are in progress for withdrawing British troops. First will probably go to China, others to India.

Tuesday, June 19.

Census of Porto Rico gives nearly one million inhabitants to the little island.

The delegates from Alaska and also from Hawaii were admitted to seats in the National republican convention.

Gen. Joe Wheeler today received his commission as brigadier-general in the United States army from President McKinley.

The democratic platform will declare for the abandonment of the Philippines. Democracy has not yet crystallized on a vice-presidential candidate.

"Judge Van Leeuwen, who left Pretoria with a permit from the Military Governor, is understood to have been the bearer of a verbal message from British authorities to President Kruger, to the effect that if he would surrender now, he would not be sent out of the country. Van Leeuwen, was unable to see Kruger, but when passing through Machadodrop he told State Secretary Reitz, The latter scouted the idea of surrendering.

Wednesday, June 20.

England needs soldiers badly. Chamberlain is said to have ordered conscription in Jamaica.

Republican convention opens at Philadelphia.

New York wants Woodruff for vice-president.

Kruger is said to be cut off from Delagoa Bay.

Russia is said to have a force at the gates of Pekin.

State militia will go into camp near Salem.

Thursday, June 21.

No nominations yet at Philadelphia.
