THE LOCAL NEWS.

BOLTON SCHOOLHOUSE.—The contract for the erection of a new one-room school building at Bolton has been awarded to Fred S. Baker. Work will begin at once.

STRUCK FOR MORE PAY.—The cutter department of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co. experienced another strike Tuesday morning. The strikers numbered about a dozen, but two were induced to remain, while the others held out and their places were supplied by new men.

LAWYER SOCIAL.—One of the most delightful out-door parties of the season occurred on the lawn at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sommer last Friday evening. All the party delicacies were lavishly served, and amusements galore, including dancing, were indulged in until a late hour.

APPOINTED ADMINISTRATRIX.—Last Saturday, Albina Hendrickson, through her attorneys, Dimick and Eastham, was appointed administratrix of the estate of her deceased husband, Benjamin Hendrickson. The personal property is valued at $1200, and the real property is valued at $1000.

SPIRITUALISTS AT NEW ERA.—A protracted spiritualistic camping meeting was begun at New Era, last Saturday under the management of the State Spiritualists Association. Many believers in this doctrine from all parts of the state are in attendance.

CLACKAMAS THE BEST.—Postmaster W. J. Lewellen, of Springwater, and wife returned Tuesday morning from a two-week's tour of Marion, Polk, Linn, and Benton counties. In speaking of the condition of crops as compared with those of Clackamas county, Mr. Lewellen said: "Our crops look better than any witnessed in the counties visited."

and discredited currency, the election of a democratic president could not fail to impair the country's credit and to bring once more into question the intention of the American people will never tolerate the Chicago platform. We recognize the necessity and propriety of the honest cooperation of capital to meet new business conditions and especially to extend our rapidly increasing foreign trade, but we condemn all conspiracies and combinations intended to restrict business, to create monopolies, to limit production or to control prices, and favor such legislation as will effectually restrain and prevent all such abuses, protect and promote competition and secure the rights of producers, laborers and all who are engaged in industry and commerce.

Protection.

We renew our faith in the policy of protection to American labor. In that policy our industries have been established, diversified and maintained. By protecting the home, competition has been stimulated and production cheapened. Opportunity to the inventive genius of our people has been secured and wages in every department of labor maintained at high rates, higher now than ever before, always distinguishing our working people in their better conditions of life from those of any competing country. Enjoying the blessings of American common schools, secure in the right of self-government and protected in the occupancy of their own markets, their constantly increasing knowledge and skill have enabled them finally to enter the markets of the world.

We favor the associated policy of reciprocity, so directed as to open our markets on favorable terms for what we do not ourselves produce in return for free foreign markets.

In the further interest of American workmen, we favor a more effective restriction of the immigration of cheap labor from foreign lands, the extension of opportunities of education for our children, the raising of the age limit for child labor, the protection of free labor as against contract, convict labor and an effective system of labor insurance.

Our present dependence on foreign shipping for nine-tenths of our foreign carrying is a great loss to the industries of this country. It is also a serious danger to our trade, for its sudden withdrawal in the event of a European war would seriously cripple our expanding foreign commerce. The National defense and Naval efficiency of this country, moreover, supply a compelling reason for legislation which will enable us to recover our former place among the trade-carrying fleets of the world.

The nation owes a debt of profound gratitude to the soldiers and sailors who have fought its battles and it is the government's duty to provide for the survivors and for the widows and orphans of those who have fallen in the country's wars.

The pension laws, founded on this just sentiment should be liberal and should be loyally administered, and preference should be given, wherever practicable, with respect to employment in the public service, to soldiers and sailors and to their widows and orphans.

We commend the policy of the republican party in maintaining the efficiency of the civil service. The administration has acted wisely in its effort to secure for public service in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands only those whose fitness has been determined by training and experience. We believe that employment in the public service in these territories should be confined, as far as practicable, to their inhabitants.

It was the plain purpose of the 15th amendment to the constitution to prevent discrimination on account of race of color in regulating the elective franchise. Devices of state governments, whether by statutory or constitutional enactment, to avoid the purpose of this amendment, are revolutionary, and should be condemned.

manent improvement of the roads and highways of the country, meet with our cordial approval, and we recommend this subject to the earnest consideration of the people and of the legislatures of the several states.

We favor the extension of the rural free delivery service wherever its extension may be justified.

In further pursuance of the constant policy of the republican party to provide free homes on the public domain, we recommend adequate national legislation to reclaim the arid lands of the United States, reserving control of the distribution of water for irrigation to the respective states and territories.

We favor home rule for and the early admission to statehood of the territories of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.

War Revenue.

The Dingley act, amended to provide sufficient revenue for the conduct of the war, has so well perfected its work that it has been possible to reduce the war debt in the sum of $40,000,000. So ample are the government's revenues and so great is the public confidence in the integrity of its obligations that its newly funded 2 per cent bonds sell at a premium. The country is now justified in expecting and it will be the policy of the republican party to bring about a reduction of the war taxes.

We favor the construction, ownership, control and protection of an isthmian canal by the government of the United States.

New markets are necessary for the increasing surplus of our farm products. Every effort should be made to open and obtain new markets, especially in the Orient, and the Administration is warmly to be commended for its successful effort to commit all trading and colonizing nations to the policy of the open door in China.

In the interest of our expanding commerce, we recommend that congress create a Department of Commerce and Industries in the charge of a secretary with a seat in the cabinet.

The United States Consular system should be reorganized under the supervision of this new department, upon such a basis of appointment and tenure as will render it still more serviceable to the Nation's increasing trade.

The American government must protect the person and property of every citizen, wherever they are wrongfully violated or placed in peril.

We congratulate the women of America upon their splendid record of public service in the volunteer aid association and as nurses in camp and hospital during the recent campaigns of our armies in the Eastern and Western Indies, and we appreciate their faithful co-operation in all works of education and industry.

President McKinley has conducted the foreign affairs of the United States with distinguished credit to the American people.

In releasing us from the vexatious European alliance for the government of Samoa, his course is especially to be commended. By securing to our undivided control the most important island of the Samoan group and the best harbor in the Southern Pacific, every American interest has been safeguarded.

We approve the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States.

We recommend the part taken by our government in the peace conference at the Hague. We assert our steadfast adherence to the policy announced in the Monroe Doctrine. The provisions of the Hague conference were wisely regarded when President McKinley tendered his friendly offices in the interest of peace between Great Britain and the South African Republics. While the American government must continue the policy prescribed by Washington, affirmed by every succeeding president, and imposed upon us by the Hague treaty of nonintervention in European controversies, the American people earnestly hope that a way may soon be found, honorable alike to both contending parties, to terminate the strife between them.

THE PHILIPPINES.

In accepting, by the treaty of Paris, the responsibility of our victories in the Spanish war, the president and the senate won the undoubted approval of the American people. No other course was possible than to destroy Spain's sovereignty throughout the West Indies and in the Philippines Islands. That course created our responsibility before the world the unorganized population whom our intervention had freed from Spain, to provide for the maintenance of law and order, and for the establishment of good government and for the performance of international obligations. Our authority could not be less than our responsibility, and wherever sovereign rights were extended it became the high duty of the government to maintain its authority to put down armed insurrection and to center the blessings of liberty and civilization on all the rescued peoples.

The largest measure of self-government consistent with their welfare and our duties shall be secured to them by law. To Cuba, independence and self-government were assured in the same voice by which war was declared, and to the letter this pledge shall be performed.

The republican party, upon its history and upon this declaration of its principles and policies, confidently invokes the considerate and approving judgment of the American people.

German on the Convention.

BERLIN, June 29.—The National Zeitung, commenting upon the proceedings of the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia, refers to Mr. Wolcott's expression of sympathy for the Boers in his speech at the opening of the convention as "singular after the republican administration had refused American support to the Boers." It is presumed this was a political maneuver designed to take the wind out of the sails of the democrats.
