The game of basket ball Saturday eve between Boltonites and the home team resulted in a score in favor of the home team of 31 to 7. The game was orderly executed and good feeling prevailed throughout. See'y Grilley umpired the game and Rudolph Gantenbien and Willie Peters were referees. The ice cream social after the game was enjoyed by nearly all in attendance,

This is the time of the year when ticularly profitable. The cool refreshing lands it is $1329,17 quarters in our bathing department are especially inviting during the warm season, as is shown by the large attendance since the warm weather has set in. The baths are kept constantly in use, some persons taking two baths a day. The small annual dues of $6 00 pays for a bath as often as you want to take it for an entire year, six days out of every week. One bath a day for 360 days aggregates at customary prices the enormous sum of $90.00. At the Y. M. C. A. you get a ance of sickness and doctor bills, by always keeping clean.
